In Loving Memory: Key Quill

By Zennith | October 23, 2023

This past Sunday, October 22nd, 2023, I attended the memorial service for Key Quill, or Charles, a young person who was just getting started in life. He was getting ready to start a an electrical engineering program, after having completed his associates degree in general sciences.

Key Quill was - and will continue to be - a cat, with a gray coat across most of his body, with his muzzle, tail-tip, and paws a darker shade. These muted colors are offset by the vibrance of his clothing: violet shades, a purple wizarding hat, t-shirts or jackets of all colors, a skull cap with "MARVEL" written across it in red letters, and so many other expressive accents that...give me some new ideas and make me want to go shopping, honestly! Key is also inseparable from his ginger tabby cat, Phoenix, an adventurous creature with a bright orange coat.

(That's a quadrupedal IRL-housecat, to be clear, not an anthro?)

Earlier this year, Phoenix had passed away suddenly. At the time, Key had said Phoenix had gone to the other side to be there, waiting, for when Key joined him. They are together again.

The memorial service was hosted at a large and inviting farm in the countryside. When I joined online, there were already several family members and friends standing around and talking in-person in the kitchen, including of course Charles's mother, Kim, and Charles's fraternal twin brother, Mark.
