Freedom Of The Migrant Objections To Nationalism:

The Freedom of the Migrant Vilem Flusser, 2003-04-02 The Freedom of the Migrant presents a series of reflections on national ethnic and cultural identity offering a unique perspective on such topics as communication nomadism housing nationalism migrant cultures and Jewish identity BOOK JACKET

The Deportation Regime Nicholas De Genova, Nathalie Peutz, 2010-04-15 This important collection examines deportation as an increasingly global mechanism of state control Anthropologists historians legal scholars and sociologists consider not only the physical expulsion of noncitizens but also the social discipline and labor subordination resulting from deportability the threat of forced removal They explore practices and experiences of deportation in regional and national settings from the U S Mexico border to Israel and from Somalia to Switzerland They also address broader questions including the ontological significance of freedom of movement the historical antecedents of deportation such as banishment and exile and the development entrenchment and consequences of organizing sovereign power and framing individual rights by territory Whether investigating the power that individual and corporate sponsors have over the fate of foreign laborers in Bahrain the implications of Germany's temporary suspension of deportation orders for pregnant and ill migrants or the significance of the detention camp the contributors reveal how deportation reflects and reproduces notions about public health racial purity and class privilege They also provide insight into how deportation and deportability are experienced by individuals including Arabs South Asians and Muslims in the United States One contributor looks at asylum claims in light of an unusual anti deportation campaign mounted by Algerian refugees in Montreal others analyze the European Union as an entity specifically dedicated to governing mobility inside and across its official borders The Deportation Regime addresses urgent issues related to human rights international migration and the extensive security measures implemented by nation states since September 11 2001 Contributors Rutvica Andrijasevic Aashti Bhartiya Heide Casta eda Galina Cornelisse Susan Bibler Coutin Nicholas De Genova Andrew M Gardner Josiah Heyman Serhat Karakayali Sunaina Marr Maira Guillermina Gina Nu ez Peter Nyers Nathalie Peutz Enrica Rigo Victor Talavera William Walters Hans Rudolf Wicker Sarah S Willen

"Nazi Fantasy" Amos Morris-Reich, 2025-03-27 This book brings together Vil m Flusser and intellectual Jewish history of the second half of the twentieth century Flusser is viewed today by many scholars as the most original theoretician of media and photography in the second half of the twentieth century and yet this is the first monograph about him in English Combining elements of Flusser's biography with a rigorous study of his writing this book shows that concepts of virtuality medium and embodiment underpin not only Flusser's understanding of technological media such as photography but also his understanding of evolution and of real or imaginary biological organisms This book argues that Flusser contended with Nazism in his writings on these biological and ecological themes Two threads and their relationship are explored the first bears on Nazism as undergirded by a biological perspective an attempt to eradicate a population taken to be parasitic in the second Nazism is simply viewed as stupid Such a line of inquiry necessarily leads to and includes our dealing with the Nazi fantasy because fantasy was fused into Nazism's own vision. This book will not only be an ideal resource for students and scholars of intellectual Jewish history but will interest anyone seeking an introduction to Flusser and the philosophy of science within the context of Nazism. Voices from Exile, 2015-11-24. The sixteen essays in this volume are a tribute to Hamish Ritchie's deep interest in exile as a literary and historical phenomenon. The first eight focus on the British and Irish context including studies of Jürgen Kuczynski and his family, Martin Miller, Lilly Kann, Hermann Sinsheimer, Albin Stuebs, Ludwig Hopf, and Paul Bondy, as well as contributions on the Association of Jewish Refugees and the exile experience as reflected in Klaus Mann's Der Vulkan. The following four contributions widen the discussion to encompass Germany, the Netherlands, Austria, and Yugoslavia by focusing on the diaries of Anne Frank and Etty Hillesum, the early poetry of Bertolt Brecht, and works by Vladimir Vertlib, Aleksandar Ajzinberg, and David Albahari. The historical dimension is deepened with contributions on William Joyce, Joseph Jonas, the marginalisation of the mass emigration of the Jews within German memory, and the exile of princesses for whom, until recent times, marriage often meant a life far from home.

Understanding Flusser, Understanding Modernism Aaron Jaffe, Laci Mattison, Michael F. Miller, Rodrigo Martini, Paul Ardoin, S. E. Gontarski, 2023-07-27. The Czech-Brazilian philosopher Vilém Flusser (1920-1991) has been recognized as a decisive past master in the emergence of contemporary media theory and media archeology. His work engages and also rethinks several mythologies of modernity, devising new methodologies, experimental literary practices, and expanded hermeneutics that trouble traditional practices of literary/literate knowledge, shared experience, reception, and communication. Working within an expanded concept of modernism, Flusser presciently noted the power inherent in algorithmic information apparatuses to reshape our fundamental conceptions of culture and history. In an increasingly technological world, Flusser's form of experimental theory-fiction pits philosophy against cybernetics as it forces the category of the human to confront the inhuman world of animals and machines. The contributors to Understanding Flusser: Understanding Modernism engage with the multiplicity of Flusser's thought as they provide a general analysis of his work, engage in comparative readings with other philosophers, and offer expanded conceptualizations of modernism. The final section of the volume includes an extended glossary clarifying the playful terminology used by Flusser, which will be a valuable resource for experts and students alike.

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15. The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth-century photography and explains that history with a wide-ranging interdisciplinary manner. This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force. This encyclopedia presents the important developments, movements, photographers, photographic institutions, and theoretical aspects of the field, along with information about equipment, techniques, and practical applications of photography. To bring this history alive for the reader, the set is illustrated in black and white.

throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Toward a Political Philosophy of Race Falguni A. Sheth, 2009-03-05 Timely controversial and incisive Toward a Political Philosophy of Race looks uncompromisingly at how a liberal society enables racism and other forms of discrimination Drawing on the examples of the internment of U S citizens and residents of Japanese descent of Muslim men and women in the contemporary United States and of Asian Indians at the turn of the twentieth century Falguni A Sheth argues that racial discrimination and divisions are not accidents in the history of liberal societies Race she contends is a process embedded in a range of legal technologies that produce racialized populations who are divided against other groups Moving past discussions of racial and social justice as abstract concepts she reveals the playing out of race racialization of groups and legal frameworks within concrete historical frameworks MediaCities: Proceedings Jordan Geiger, Mark Shepard, Omar Khan, 2014-02-09 Proceedings from MediaCity 4 MediaCities the International Conference Workshops and Exhibition mounted at the University at Buffalo May 3 5 2013 Edited by Jordan Geiger Mark Shepard and Omar Khan Diversity and Homogeneity Joanna Kruckowska, Paulina Mirowska, 2016-02-22 Diversity and Homogeneity explores current issues related to the nation ethnicity and gender in literature film media and theatrical performance in both the UK and the USA Employing a broad research framework it investigates the problematics of migration nomadism nationhood citizenship patriotism terrorism totalitarianism social and racial equality as well as masculinity and femininity in modern multicultural societies Keenly attuned to questions of alterity social and cultural fluidity and heterogeneous forms of identity yet also sensitive to contemporary unifying tendencies informing an increasingly globalized world the volume s contributions critically interrogate and challenge the traditional notions attached to the three overarching categories of the book s title Turks, Jews, and Other Germans in Contemporary Art Peter Chametzky, 2021-09-14 The first book to examine multicultural visual art in Germany discussing more than thirty contemporary artists and arguing for a cosmopolitan Germanness With Turks Jews and Other Germans in Contemporary Art Peter Chametzky presents a view of visual culture in Germany that leaves behind the usual suspects those artists who dominate discussions of contemporary German art including Gerhard Richter Anselm Kiefer and Rosemarie Trockel and instead turns to those artists not as well known outside Germany including Maziar Moradi Hito Steyerl and Tanya Ury In this first book length examination of Germany s multicultural art scene Chametzky explores the work of more than thirty German artists who are among other ethnicities Turkish Jewish Arab Asian Iranian Sinti and Roma Balkan and Afro German With a title that echoes Peter Gay s 1978 collection of essays Freud Jews and Other Germans this book like Gay s rejects the idea of us and them in German culture Discussing artworks in a variety of media that both critique and expand notions of identity and community Chametzky offers a counternarrative to the fiction of an exclusively white Christian German culture arguing for a cosmopolitan Germanness He considers works that deploy critical confrontational and playful uses of language especially German and Turkish that assert the presence of foreign bodies among the German body politic that grapple with food as a cultural marker that engage with mass media and that depict and inhabit spaces imbued with the element of time American discussions of German contemporary art have largely ignored the emergence of non ethnic Germans as some of Germany's most important visual artists Turks Jews and Other Germans in Contemporary Art fills this gap

The Symbolic Scenarios of Islamism Andrea Mura, 2016-03-09 The Symbolic Scenarios of Islamism initiates a dialogue between the discourse of three of the most discussed figures in the history of the Sunni Islamic movement Hasan al Banna Sayyid Qutb and Osama bin Laden and contemporary debates across religion and political theory providing a crucial foundation upon which to situate current developments in world politics Redressing the inefficiency of the terms in which the debate on Islam and Islamism is generally conducted the book examines the role played by tradition modernity and transmodernity as major symbolic scenarios of Islamist discourses highlighting the internal complexity and dynamism of Islamism By uncovering forms of knowledge that have hitherto gone unnoticed or have been marginalised by traditional and dominant approaches to politics accounting for central political ideas in non Western sources and in the Global South the book provides a unique contribution towards rethinking the nature of citizenship antagonism space and frontiers required today While offering valuable reading for scholars of Islamic studies religious studies and politics it provides a critical perspective for academics with an interest in discourse theory post colonial theory political philosophy and comparative political thought

Of 'truths Impossible to Put in Words' Rose-Carol Washton Long, 2009 This volume of essays relate Max Beckmann's work to the tangible circumstances of its production and reception The essays contextualise aspects of Beckmann's early middle and late career by way of detailed reference to contemporary music film philosophy theatre history sports and exile

Deleuze & Fascism Brad Evans, Julian Reid, 2013-05-29 This edited volume deploys Deleuzian thinking to re theorize fascism as a mutable problem in changing orders of power relations dependent on hitherto misunderstood social and political conditions of formation The book provides a theoretically distinct approach to the problem of fascism and its relations with liberalism and modernity in both historical and contemporary contexts It serves as a seminal intervention into the debate over the causes and consequences of contemporary wars and global political conflicts as well as functioning as an accessible guide to the theoretical utilities of Deleuzian thought for International Relations IR in a manner that is very much lacking in current debates about IR Covering a wide array of topics this volume will provide a set of original contributions focussed in particular upon the contemporary nature of war the increased priorities afforded to the security imperative the changing designs of bio political regimes fascist aesthetics nihilistic tendencies and the modernist logic of finitude the politics of suicide the specific desires upon which fascism draws and of course the recurring pursuit of power An important contribution to the field this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations fascism and international relations theory

"Escape to Life" Eckart Goebel, Sigrid Weigel, 2012-05-29 After 1933 New York City gave shelter to many leading German and German Jewish intellectuals Stripped of their German citizenship by the

Nazi regime these public figures either stayed in the New York area or moved on to California and other places This compendium adopting the title of a famous volume published by Klaus and Erika Mann in 1939 explores the impact the US and NYC in particular had on these authors as well as the influence they in turn exerted on US intellectual life Moreover it addresses the transformations that took place in the exiled intellectuals thinking when it was translated into another language and addressed to an American audience Among the individuals presented in this volume are such prominent names as T W Adorno H Arendt W Benjamin E Bloch B Brecht S Kracauer the Mann family S Morgenstern and E Panofsky The authors of the essays in this compendium were free to choose the angle biography theory politics or aspect a single work a personal constellation deemed best to illuminate the given intellectual s work Acclaimed NYC photographer Fred Stein a German Jewish refugee from Dresden produced numerous portraits of exiled intellectuals and artists A selection of these compelling portraits is reproduced in this book for the first time

Transgression in the Architectures of

After-Modernity Carmen Popescu,2025-09-03 In architecture transgressive acts have always been a reality in spite of rules and canons that have defined the discipline and its extended field However in recent decades their frequency and radicality have surged from rather random marginal and or idiosyncratic phenomena While their sudden rise can be explained as a reaction to the compulsive normativity of modernity the deeper roots are to be sought elsewhere the recent waves of transgressiveness are intimately linked to the hypercrisis affecting our world today spanning ecological political economic and social dimensions and catalysing fundamental mutations and disorders Some of these transgressive acts are motivated by a desire to dismantle a malfunctioning system but more often than not breaking the rules has become an inherent survival tactic amid urgent social challenges In our era of after modernity transgression emerges not just as an act of defiance but reveals a new paradigm at work a critical framework for reimagining the built environment challenging established orders and advocating for the rights of marginalised populations Drawing on a rich array of theoretical insights and empirical case studies from multiple countries this volume provides a unique forward looking perspective on transgressive acts in architecture as responses to today s ecological political economic and social crises

The Latinx Files Matthew David Goodwin,2021-05-14 In The Latinx Files Matthew David Goodwin traces how Latinx science fiction writers are reclaiming the space alien from its xenophobic legacy in the science fiction genre The book argues that the space alien is a vital Latinx figure preserving Latinx cultures by activating the myriad possible constructions of the space alien to represent race and migration in the popular imagination The works discussed in this book including those of H G Wells Gloria Anzald a Junot Diaz Andr M Carrington and many others often explicitly reject the derogatory correlation of the space alien and Latinxs while at other times they contain space aliens that function as a source of either enlightenment or horror for Latinx communities Throughout this nuanced analysis The Latinx Files demonstrates how the character of the space alien has been significant to Latinx communities and has great potential for future writers and artists

Caught By Politics S.

Eckmann, L. Koepnick, 2016-09-23 This book explores German and European exile visual artists designers and film practitioners in the United States such as Max Beckmann George Grosz Hans Richter Peter Lorre and Edgar Ulmer and examines how American artists including Walter Quirt Jackson Pollock and Robert Motherwell responded to the Europeanization of American culture

Homemaking Anindya Raychaudhuri, 2018-10-19 Is it possible to think of a counter hegemonic progressive nostalgia that celebrates and helps sustain the marginalised What might such a nostalgia look like and what political importance might it have Homemaking Radical Nostalgia and the Construction of a South Asian Diaspora examines diasporic life in south Asian communities in Europe North America and Australia to map the ways in which members of these communities use nostalgia to construct distinctive identities Using a series of examples from literature cinema visual art music computer games mainstream media physical and virtual spaces and many other cultural objects this book argues that it is possible and necessary to read this nostalgia as helping to create a powerful notion of home that can help to transcend international relations of empire and capital and create instead a pan national space of belonging This homemaking represents the persistent search for somewhere to belong on one's own terms Constructed through word image and music preserved through dreams and imagination the home provides sustenance in the continuing struggle to change the present and the future for the better

Transnational Trills in the Africana World Cheryl Sterling, 2019-03-18 This volume focuses on how music and arts in the global Africana world are used for political and social change It will be an essential resource for scholars and students in African studies Africana Afro Atlantic studies diaspora studies sociology music literature politics and culture The volume is divided into three sections namely Music and Politics Case Studies of Experiential Practices in Healing and Education and Literature the Arts and Political Expression which cross subject areas such as nationalism political identity post coloniality health education orality and cultural expressivity Diverse topics are covered such as the African thematics of jazz the Y'en a Marre Fed Up movement in Senegal the Occupy Nigeria movement NGO activism in Brazil and Africana performance traditions as well as the dynamics of oral and written literature The articles explore works by Joseph Conrad Nathaniel Mackey Kofi Awoonor and Ngugi wa Thiong'o as well as the artistic expression of Jean Michel Basquiat

Crisis and Communitas Dorota Sajewska, Małgorzata Sugiera, 2023-05-29 This book is a critical transdisciplinary examination of a broad range of philosophical ideas theoretical concepts and artistic projects of community in the 20th and 21st century in the context of global local social and political changes This volume opens new vistas by focusing on carefully selected instances of multipronged crises in which existing concepts of commonality are questioned reformulated or even speculatively designed with a better future in view As many authors of this volume argue in the face of today's unprecedented global ecological and economic challenges speculative design is of utmost importance as it can foster alternative unthought of forms of connectivity that go far beyond progressivist narratives of nation corporation and nuclear family Focusing on the situations of upheaval both historical and fabulated the collection not only examines how multipronged crises trigger antagonisms between egalitarian forms of communitas and the normative concept of the nation and other normative forms of communities as a community that separates and excludes It also looks closely at philosophical and artistic projects that strive to go beyond the dichotomies and typically extrapolated utopias envisaging new political economies ways of living and alternative relational structures It will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies cultural studies political studies media studies postcolonial and decolonial studies critical anthropology
