Freeing Ali The Human Face Of The Pacific Solution:

Witnessing Australian Stories Kelly Jean Butler, 2017-07-28 This book is about how Australians have responded to stories about suffering and injustice in Australia presented in a range of public media including literature history films and television Those who have responded are both ordinary and prominent Australians politicians writers and scholars All have sought to come to terms with Australia's history by responding empathetically to stories of its marginalized citizens Drawing upon international scholarship on collective memory public history testimony and witnessing this book represents a cultural history of contemporary Australia It examines the forms of witnessing that dominated Australian public culture at the turn of the millennium Since the late 1980s witnessing has developed in Australia in response to the increasingly audible voices of indigenous peoples migrants and more recently asylum seekers As these voices became public they posed a challenge not only to scholars and politicians but also most importantly to ordinary citizens When former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered his historic apology to Australia's indigenous peoples in February 2008 he performed an act of collective witnessing that affirmed the testimony and experiences of Aboriginal Australians The phenomenon of witnessing became crucial not only to the recognition and reparation of past injustices but to efforts to create a more cosmopolitan Australia in the present This is a vital addition to Transaction's critically acclaimed Memory and Narrative series Trauma Texts Gillian Whitlock, Kate Douglas, 2018-05-11 These chapters gathered from two special issues of the journal Life Writing take up a major theme of recent work in the Humanities Trauma Autobiography has had a major role to play in this age of trauma and these essays turn to diverse contexts that have received little attention to date partition narratives in India Cambodian and Iranian rap refugee letters from Nauru graffiti in Tanzania and the silent spaces of trauma in Chile and Guantanamo The contexts and media of these autobiographical trauma texts are diverse yet they are linked by attention to questions of who gets to speak write inscribe autobiographically and how and where and why and how can silences in the wake of traumatic experiences be read These essays deliberately set out to establish some new fields for research in trauma studies by reaching out to a broader global context into various texts media and artifacts representing diverse histories with specific attention to different voices bodies memories and subjectivities This collection addresses the contemporary circuits of trauma story and the media and icons and narratives that carry trauma story to political effect and emotional affect This book was previously published as two special issues of Life Writing Rescuing Afghanistan William Maley, 2006 Shows that only a long term commitment from the wider world of a type that is rarely ever found offers a reasonable prospect of rescuing Afghanistan from the dangers it continues to face The Longest Journey Peter Browne, 2006 Over the past five years more than 25 000 Africans have arrived in Australia under the federal government's humanitarian resettlement program Some have spent a decade or more in refugee camps in remote regions of East Africa years of inadequate food enforced inactivity and the threat of violence Hundreds of thousands are still stranded in the camps Australia is one of only a dozen western countries that resettle refugees but how fair is the resettlement process Does it always help the neediest of all refugees Yearning to Breathe Free Dean Lusher, Nick Haslam, 2007 Give me your tired your poor your huddled masses yearning to breathe free How has Australia risen to Emma Lazarus great challenge This overview of the historical social and political contexts that have shaped Australia's recent treatment of asylum seekers offers a clear eyed view of the many dimensions of the asylum seeker predicament including its psychological and humanitarian consequences and lays out an agenda for change in policy Sir Gustav Nossal the Rt Hon Malcolm Fraser Senator Lyn Allison Phillip Adams Professor Stuart MacIntyre and Lindsay Tanner MP introduce the six sections Julian Burnside QC Dr Carmen Lawrence Peter Mares Pamela Curr Michael Clyne Linda Briskman Derrick Silove Michael Gordon Arnold Zable and David Manne are among the contributors to the 20 chapters Yearning to Breathe Free is a passionate but informed work that is multi faceted thought provoking and ultimately hopeful All royalties for this book go to the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre Rethinking Displacement: Asia Pacific Perspectives Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt, 2016-04-08 This book responds to the need to explore the multitude of interconnected factors causing displacements that compel people to move within their homelands or traverse various borders in the contemporary world that is characterised by extensive and rapid movements of people It addresses this need by bringing together historical and contemporary accounts and critical examinations of the displaced by articulating the commonalities in their lived experiences It accomplishes the task of charting a new path in displacement studies by offering a number of studies from interdisciplinary and diverse methodological approaches comprising ethnographic and qualitative research and literary interpretations to emphasise that although the forms and conditions of mobility are highly divergent individual experiences of displacement and placelessness offer a critical challenge to the artificial categorisations of people's movements Each chapter adds insights into the different configurations of displacement and placement and offers fresh interpretations of migration and dislocation in today's rapidly changing world The contributors critically examine a variety of displacement processes and experiences in the context of war tourism neoliberal policies of development and the impact of various agro forestry policies They focus on a range of countries enabling a thorough comparative analysis in terms of scope and range of examples and methods of analysis This book makes an original contribution to the growing body of literature on displacement and will appeal to a wide readership including advanced undergraduates and graduate students and professors in disciplines such as human geography development studies sociology and anthropology regional studies and comparative impact assessment The Ashgate Research Companion to Migration Law, Theory and Policy Satvinder S. Juss, 2016-03-23 The Ashgate Research Companion to Migration Law Theory and Policy complements the already successful Ashgate series Law Migration established in 2006 which now has a number of well regarded monographs to its credit The purpose of this Companion is to augment that Series by taking stock of the current state of literature on migration law theory and policy and to sketch out the contours of its future long term development in what is now a vastly expanded research agenda The Companion provides readers with a definitive and dependable state of art review of current research in each of the chosen areas that is all embracing and all inclusive of its subject matter The chapters focus on the regional and the sub regional as well as the national and the global In so doing they aim to give a snap shot that is contextual coherent and comprehensive The contributors are both world renowned scholars and newer voices and include scholars practitioners former judges and researchers and policy makers who are currently working for international organisations

Seeking Asylum Alone Mary Crock,2006 Unaccompanied and separated children continue to be caught up in programs to deflect unauthorised Australian boat arrivals to offshore processing centres If such children do make it to Australia the processes for identifying children travelling alone are inadequate with too much reliance placed on the self identification of such children No child victim of trafficking has been identified in Australia since 1994 Australia s refugee status determination system was established with adult asylum seekers as the norm Children face obvious disadvantage in both articulating their story and in being heard At the crucial first point of contact with authorities children are required to articulate their need for protection without either an advisor or an effective guardian Case studies of children within the asylum process also suggest that immigration officials and officials at appellate level have been poorly trained and have lacked the skills to deal with child asylum seekers with appropriate sensitivity Another barrier faced by these children is legal questions remain as to how well the international definition of refugee has been read to accommodate the particular experiences of children It is hoped that this report will encourage Australian officials to think seriously about children as refugees in their own right most particularly when the children are travelling alone This Report was funded by the MacArthur Foundation Chicago the Australian Research Council and the Myer Foundation Also available Seeking Asylum Alone A Comparative Study Unaccompanied and Separated Children and Refugee Protection in Australia the UK and the US by Jacqueline Bhabha and Mary Crock

Refuge Beyond Reach David FitzGerald,2019 Why do people seeking asylum often break immigration laws Refuge Beyond Reach shows how rich democracies deliberately and systematically shut down most legal paths to safety An architecture of repulsion in the air at sea and on land keeps most refugees far away from places where they can ask for sanctuary

Dealing with America J. V. Langmore,2005 The United Nations is under scrutiny like never before it is under constant attack from neoconservatives in President George W Bush s administration and many of its own officials are under investigation for fraud some have been charged In the midst of this controversy a high level panel including former Australian Attorney General Gareth Evans has released a detailed set of proposals for reform and that blueprint has been taken up by the Secretary General Kofi Annan

Feminist Geopolitics Deborah P. Dixon,Sallie A. Marston,2016-09-17 Building on a trans disciplinary feminist project that foregrounds the bodies of those at the sharp end of various forms of international activity such as immigration development and warfare the chapters included in this book cover a variety of sites concerns and hopes These range from the fraught geopolitics of marriage and birth in Ladakh India to the fate of detained migrant children in the U S and from the human rights abuses of women and children in Uzbekistan to the body politics of aid workers in Afghanistan The collective aim is to expose the force relations that operate through and upon those bodies such that particular subjectivities are enhanced constrained and put to work and particular corporealities are violated exploited and often abandoned Oriented around issues of security population territory and nationalism these chapters expose the proliferating bodies of geopolitics not simply as the bearers of socially demarcated borders and boundaries but as vulnerable corporealities seeking to negotiate and transform the geopolitics they both animate and inhabit This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender Place and Culture A Journal of Feminist Geography

Dissenting Lives Anne Collett, Tony Simoes de Silva, 2017-10-02 This collection brings together a series of essays that combine the public and private nature of dissent stories of dissent that encapsulate the mood of an historical or cultural period or of a society Dissent is most memorable when it is public explosive dramatically enacted Yet quiet dissent is no less effective as a methodical unstitching of social and political mores rules and regulations Success depends perhaps less on intensity than on determination on patience as much as courage Moreover although many persistent dissenters often gain an iconic status most live dissent in the fabric of their ordinary lives Some combine both Imprisoned at Robben Island for 27 years his image and voice erased from the print media or airwaves Nelson Mandela remained even in jail one of the most powerful agents of dissent in South African society until his freedom in 1990 Deep connections deep commitment profoundly personal convictions and courageous public dissent are some of the threads that bind together this diverse and exciting collection of essays Alone each essay explores dissent and consent in stimulating and distinct ways together they speak both of the effects of dissent and consent and of their affective energies and potential This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing

Soft Weapons Gillian Whitlock, 2010-02-15 Azar Nafisi's Reading Lolita in Tehran Marjane Satrapi's comics and Baghdad Blogger Salam Pax's Internet diary are just a few examples of the new face of autobiography in an age of migration globalization and terror But while autobiography and other genres of life writing can help us attend to people whose experiences are frequently unseen and unheard life narratives can also be easily co-opted into propaganda In Soft Weapons Gillian Whitlock explores the dynamism and ubiquity of contemporary life writing about the Middle East and shows how these works have been packaged promoted and enlisted in Western controversies Considering recent autoethnographies of Afghan women refugee testimony from Middle Eastern war zones Jean Sasson's bestsellers about the lives of Arab women Norma Khouri's fraudulent memoir Honor Lost personal accounts by journalists reporting the war in Iraq Satrapi's Persepolis Nafisi's book and Pax's blog Whitlock explores the contradictions and ambiguities in the rapid commodification of life memoirs Drawing from the fields of literary and cultural studies Soft Weapons will be essential reading for scholars of life writing and those interested in the exchange of literary culture between Islam and the West
