

Let us go back to the Chambers-Paine copyright. The case is John Paine v. John C. Chambers. The complaint of Paine is to recover the copyright in a book, "The History of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts,"

Opponents of the measure in Congress have argued that it is too broad, that it will strip the right of local governments to regulate the use of land, and that it will interfere with the ability of states to regulate the use of land. The measure is also criticized for being too vague, and for not providing for adequate safeguards for the environment.
