explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

Food and Drink Idioms in English Laura Pinnavaia, 2019-01-10 Idioms carry an aura of mystery for all speakers owing to the discrepancy between their literal and non literal meanings This book clears up some of these ambiguities by examining a series of expressions that have derived from the most instinctive and essential of all human behaviour eating and drinking The quantity and quality of 276 food and drink idioms are explored investigating two hundred and fifty years of English monolingual lexicography and forty years of usage as attested by contemporary linguistic corpora The examination of these idioms syntactic semantic pragmatic historical social and cultural characteristics will foster in speakers a whole new approach to idiom comprehension and usage and will constitute thought provoking ground for further research in other idiom domains
