French Film Text And Contexts:

French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2014-04-23 The second edition of this innovative textbook brings together leading scholars to provide detailed analyses of twenty two key films within the canon of French cinema from the 1920s to the 1990s Films discussed include masterpieces such as Renoir's La Bête Humaine and Carne s Les Enfants du Paradis popular classics such as Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Ma Nuit chez Maud landmarks of the New Wave such as Les 400 Coups and A bout de souffle important films of the 1990s such as Nikita and La Haine The films are considered in relation to such issues as the history of French cinema the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception the relationship with Hollywood cinema gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema

French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2000 This excellent book analyzes key French films in their cultural context and explores their relation to literary texts and popular ideas of national history French Film Theory and Criticism Richard Abel, 1993-09-12 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English Japanese Cinema Alastair

Phillips, Julian Stringer, 2007-12-18 From the Seven Samurais and Godzilla to the Ring this is an outstanding collection of twenty four articles on key films of Japanese cinema from the silent era to the present day that presents a full introduction to Japanese cinema history culture and society An Introduction to Film Studies Jill Neldes, 2003 An Introduction to Film Studies has established itself as the leading textbook for students of cinema This revised and updated third edition guides students through the key issues and concepts in film studies and introduces some of the world's key national cinemas including British Indian Soviet and French Written by experienced teachers in the field and lavishly illustrated with over 122 film stills and production shots it will be essential reading for any student of film Features of the third edition include full coverage of all the key topics at undergraduate level comprehensive and up to date information and new case studies on recent films such as Gladiator Spiderman The Blair Witch Project Fight Club Shrek and The Matrix annotated key readings further viewing website resources study questions a comprehensive bibliography and indexes and a glossary of key terms will help lecturers prepare tutorials and encourage students to undertake independent study Individual chapters include Film form and narrative Spectator audience and response Critical approaches to Hollywood cinema authorship genre and stars

Animation forms and meaning Gender and film Lesbian and gay cinema British cinema Soviet montage Cinema French New Wave Indian Cinema Literary Adaptations in Spanish Cinema Sally Faulkner,2004 In this survey of the history of Spanish cinema in the Spanish dictatorship and democratic periods the author argues that studies of adaptations must simultaneously address questions of text formal issues central to the study of film and literature and context crucial ideological concerns

The French Screen Goddess Jonathan Driskell,2015-03-26 Many years before Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve rose to fame the French cinema produced a host of glamorous female stars designed to rival their Hollywood counterparts Bathed in soft light discussed adoringly in fan magazines and shown wearing the latest fashions these cinematic stars emerged in opposition to France's traditional stage based stardom while remaining through the roles they played and the looks they sported a distinctly French phenomenon The French Screen Goddess examines how these stars influenced the narratives and look of their films contributed to defining the period's new emancipated femininity the modern woman and related to the decade's politics particularly the Popular Front of the mid 1930s The book focuses on the three most important examples of this type of stardom Annabella Danielle Darrieux and Michele Morgan while also considering many other key stars such as Arletty Viviane Romance and Jean Gabin Previously neglected films are considered and true classics of French cinema re-examined with Rene Clair's Quatorze juillet Julien Duvivier's La Bandera and Marcel Carne's Le Quai des brumes and Hotel du Nord foremost among these Cinema Studies Susan Hayward,2017-08-18 Cinema Studies The Key Concepts is essential reading for anyone interested in film Providing accessible coverage of a comprehensive range of genres movements theories and production terms this is a must have guide to a fascinating area of study and arguably the greatest art form of modern times Now fully revised and updated for its fifth edition the book includes entries on topics such as Acting Audience CGI Convergence Cult cinema Digitisation and globalization Distribution Experimental film Transnational cinema World cinemas The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing,2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film The Cinema of Catherine Breillat Sophie Bélot,2017-08-28 In The Cinema of Catherine Breillat B lot offers a detailed analysis of Breillat's past and recent films Breillat is one of the most internationally renowned French women filmmakers whose notoriety is built on her explicit representation of women's sexuality Most of her films rely on a female protagonist's personal and intimate search of her self characterised by her sexual journey Facing censorship and controversy Breillat's films do not easily fit classification and place the viewer into an uncomfortable position This study looks at Breillat as an independent cinema auteur entertaining a close relation with her films by exploring and positing women from adolescence to adulthood as sexual beings reflecting her films identity emanating from Breillat's personal or intimate scenes

Queer Movie Medievalisms Tison Pugh, 2016-12-05 How is history even possible since it involves recapturing a past already lost It is through this urge to understand feel and experience that films based on medieval history are made They attempt to re create the past but can only do so through a queer re visioning that inevitably replicates modernity In these mediations between past and present history becomes misty and so too do constructions of gender and sexuality leading to the impossibility of heterosexuality or of any sexuality predicated upon cinematic medievalism Queer Movie Medievalisms is the first book of its kind to grapple with the ways in which mediations between past and present as registered on the silver screen queerly undercut assumptions about sexuality throughout time It will be of great interest to scholars of Gender and Sexuality Cultural and Media Studies Film Studies and Medieval History

Contexts in Translating Eugene A. Nida, 2002-11-29 Contexts in Translating is designed to help translators understand the varieties of contexts and their importance for understanding a text and reproducing the meaning in another language The contexts include the historical setting of writing a text the cultural components that make a text unique the types of audiences for which the translation is intended and the most efficient and effective ways of producing a satisfactory representation of the source language text The structural levels of language are described and the principal features of text organization are also explained In addition the main features of various books on translation are outlined and a chapter on basic theories of translation is followed by a selective bibliography

A Companion to Jean Renoir Alastair Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2013-04-11 A Companion to Jean Renoir An extraordinary collection of essays that more than fulfills the aims of its editors Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau The essays offer exciting original work from younger scholars as well as long established authorities all of which offer invaluable insights into the films writings and life of Jean Renoir Receiving particular attention are questions about the singularity or multiplicity of what the editors call the many Renoirs French American Indian even transnational especially from the early 1930s through the early 1960s Whether mining relatively unexplored archive materials deploying newly current methodological approaches interrogating one of a wide range of topics and issues or engaging in close textual analysis the contributors construct a tantalizing series of innovative road maps for future researchers to pursue Richard Abel University of Michigan Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau have brought together essays that bring new perspectives to both the best known and the lesser known of Renoir's films Both French cinema specialists and viewers new to Renoir's work will find much of interest in this outstanding collection Judith Mayne Ohio State University Dubbed simply the best director by Francois Truffaut Jean Renoir is a towering figure in world film history This exhaustive survey of his work and life features a comprehensive analysis of his films from the multiple critical perspectives of the world's leading Renoir scholars Renoir's career spanned four decades and four countries and included an extraordinary body of films some of which La Grande illusion 1937 and La Règle du jeu 1939 are universally recognized masterpieces Fathered by the celebrated painter Pierre Auguste Renoir the filmmaker lived through much of the twentieth century beginning his career in the silent era and ending it in full Technicolor His films are notable for their paradoxical combination of strong internal coherence and thematic breadth and diversity and they provide a rich source for today's scholars of film history and French culture This handbook the largest volume on Renoir ever produced in the English language ranges in scope from extreme close up analysis of individual films to long shot explorations of his aesthetics and the social and cultural contexts in which he worked The most ambitious critical study of Renoir to date this book will appeal to film enthusiasts as much as scholars and specialists

Beyond The Star System Technologies World Cinemas Genre Authorship and Cinema and Developments in Theory Polish Cinema in a Transnational Context Ewa Mazierska, Michael Goddard, 2014 The opening up of Poland economically and politically to global influences after the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 coupled with the rise of transnational approaches to the study of film presents ideal conditions for examining Polish cinema from a transnational vantage point Yet not only have studies of Polish cinema remained largely within a national framework but Polish cinema as well as many other Eastern European cinemas has been virtually excluded from new research in transnational cinema Polish cinema in a transnational context addresses this lacuna in film studies offering extended analysis of this national cinema's global influence Contributors assess the reception of Polish films in Europe and North America Polish international coproductions the presence of Polish performers in foreign films and the works of subversive migr auteurs like Andrzej u awski and Walerian
