Rottet, Barry Jean Ancelet, Richard Guidry, Thomas A. Klingler, Amanda LaFleur, Tamara Lindner, Michael D. Picone, Dominique Ryon, 2010-09-30 The Dictionary of Louisiana French DLF provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present This dictionary describes the current usage of French speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana the coastal marshes the banks of the Mississippi River the central area the north and the western prairie Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty four areas in these regions In addition to the data collected from fieldwork the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings The new authoritative resource the DLF not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling the pronunciation including attested variants the part of speech classification the English equivalent and the word's use in common phrases The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in la Louisiane Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting's authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what B JW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious United States Army in the World War, 1917-1919 United States.
