The New York Market for French Art in the Gilded Age, 1867-1893 Leanne M. Zalewski, 2022-12-15 This transatlantic study analyses a missing chapter in the history of art collecting the first art market bubble in the United States In the decades following the Civil War French art monopolized art collections across the United States During this Gilded Age picture rush the commercial art system art dealers galleries auction houses exhibitions museums art journals press coverage art histories and collection catalogues established a strong foothold it has not relinquished to this day In addition a pervasive concern for improving aesthetics and providing the best contemporary art to educate the masses led to the formation not only of private art collections but also of institutions such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and to the publication of art histories Richly informed by collectors and art dealers diaries letters stock books journals and hitherto neglected art histories The New York Market for French Art in the Gilded Age 1867 1893 offers a fresh perspective on this trailblazing era French Impressionists , French Impressionists Herman Joel Wechsler, 1969 Great Art Critics (1750-2000) J. Pedro Lorente, 2020-04-01 The art world has become a point of contention within a range of debates and yet strangely enough while art criticism has been discussed at length very little is said about art critics Following in the footsteps of Lionello Venturi's History of Art Criticism in the current volume Lorente provides an updated reassessment of the great art critics from the Enlightenment down to the turn of the millennium Conceived as a didactic handbook with a recommended bibliography at the end of each chapter this concise work tells the history of a profession in permanent crisis while also paying homage to its most influential practitioners in different cultural contexts The Age of the Avant-garde Hilton Kramer, 2017-07-12 Hilton Kramer well known as perhaps the most perceptive courageous and influential art critic in America is also the founder and co editor with Roger Kimball of The New Criterion This comprehensive book collects a sizable selection of his early essays and reviews published in Artforum Commentary Arts Magazine The New York Review of Books and The Times and thus constituted his first complete statement about art and the art world The principal focus is on the artists and movements of the last hundred years the Age of the Avant Garde that begins in the nineteenth century with Realism and Impressionism Most of the major artists of this rich period from Monet and Degas to Jackson Pollock and Claes Oldenburg are discussed and often drastically reevaluated A brilliant introductory essay traces the rise and fall of the avant garde as a historical phenomenon and examines some of the cultural problems which the collapse of the avant garde poses for the future of art In addition there are chapters on art critics museums the relation of avant garde art to radical politics and on the growth of photography as a fine art This collection is not intended to be the last word on one of the greatest as well as one of the most complex periods in the history of the artistic imagination The essays and reviews gathered here were written in response to particular occasions and for specific deadlines in the conviction that a start in the arduous task of critical revaluation needed to be made not because a critical theory prescribed it but because our experience compelled it

The Age of French Impressionism Art Institute of Chicago, Gloria Lynn Groom, Douglas W. Druick, 2010 Presents a collection of more than one hundred French impressionist paintings found in the Art Institute of Chicago     Realism in the Age of Impressionism Marnin Young, 2015-07-24 The late 1870s and early 1880s were watershed years in the history of French painting As outgoing economic and social structures were being replaced by a capitalist measured time Impressionist artists sought to create works that could be perceived in an instant capturing the sensations of rapidly transforming modern life Yet a generation of artists pushed back against these changes spearheading a short lived revival of the Realist practices that had dominated at mid century and advocating slowness in practice subject matter and beholding In this illuminating book Marnin Young looks closely at five works by Jules Bastien Lepage Gustave Caillebotte Alfred Philippe Roll Jean Fran ois Raffa lli and James Ensor artists who shared a concern with painting and temporality that is all but forgotten today having been eclipsed by the ideals of Impressionism Young s highly original study situates later Realism for the first time within the larger social political and economic framework and argues for its centrality in understanding the development of modern art

Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor s central place in American art and culture     The Chautauquan , 1911
