French Paintings After 1800:

French Paintings After 1800 Michael Wilson, 1983 French Paintings After 1800 National Gallery (Great Britain), Michael Wilson, 1983 A History of French Painting from Its Earliest to Its Latest Practice Clara Cornelia Harrison Stranahan, 1899 "French Paintings of Childhood and Adolescence, 1848-1886" Anna Green, 2017-07-05

The premise of Anna Green's timely and original book is that nineteenth-century representations of childhood and adolescence in paintings but also in other forms of visual culture and in diverse written discourses of the period are critical for understanding modernity. Whilst such well-worn signifiers for modernity as the city, the dandy, and the prostitute have been well-mined, childhood and adolescence have not. Paintings of the young produced in France from 1848 to 1886, Green contends, inform not only our understanding of modern life but also our perception of modernist or avant-garde painting. Figuring largely are Manet and the Impressionists as well as a gamut of more traditional painters of children who are crucial in providing context for the avant-garde. Because modernity is an essentially urban phenomenon, Green's focus is primarily on the city, usually Parisian child. The painted youth of her study are organized initially by class and gender. Then the chapters are structured according to themes: parent-child relations, modes of discipline, work, education, and play, the spectacle, sexuality, that straddle the congruences among the book's triple trajectory: the young, their modernist representations, and the experience of modernity. Green's interdisciplinary approach ensures that this book will be of interest not only to art historians but to all those concerned with the cultural and social history of childhood.

French Art of the Eighteenth Century Heather Eleanor MacDonald, 2016-01-01. Since 2004 the Dallas Museum of Art has been the repository of the renowned collection of eighteenth-century French art assembled by the late Michael Rosenberg. The long-term loan of these masterpieces greatly enhances the collection of European art at the Museum and the series of scholarly lectures funded by the Foundation the Michael L. Rosenberg Lecture Series gives a powerful boost to its European art program. Those lectures presented by top scholars in the field of European art history are re-presented in this volume.

Delicious Decadence ?The Rediscovery of French Eighteenth-Century Painting in the Nineteenth Century Monica Preti, 2017-07-05. The history of collecting is a topic of central importance to many academic disciplines and shows no sign of abating in popularity. As such, scholars will welcome this collection of essays by internationally recognised experts that gathers together for the first time varied and stimulating perspectives on the nineteenth-century collector and art market for French eighteenth-century art and ultimately the formation of collections that form part of such august institutions as the Louvre and the National Gallery in London. The book is the culmination of a successful conference organised jointly between the Wallace Collection and the Louvre on the occasion of the acclaimed exhibition Masterpieces from the Louvre: The Collection of Louis La Caze. Exploring themes relating to collectors, critics, markets, and museums from France, England, and Germany, the volume will appeal to academics and students alike and become essential reading on any course that deals with the history of collecting the history of taste and the nineteenth century craze for the perceived douceur de vivre of eighteenth century France It also provides valuable insight into the history of the art markets and the formation of museums The New York Market for French Art in the Gilded Age, 1867-1893 Leanne M. Zalewski, 2022-12-15 This transatlantic study analyses a missing chapter in the history of art collecting the first art market bubble in the United States In the decades following the Civil War French art monopolized art collections across the United States During this Gilded Age picture rush the commercial art system art dealers galleries auction houses exhibitions museums art journals press coverage art histories and collection catalogues established a strong foothold it has not relinquished to this day In addition a pervasive concern for improving aesthetics and providing the best contemporary art to educate the masses led to the formation not only of private art collections but also of institutions such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and to the publication of art histories Richly informed by collectors and art dealers diaries letters stock books journals and hitherto neglected art histories The New York Market for French Art in the Gilded Age 1867 1893 offers a fresh perspective on this trailblazing era
