

Review 2)

Why 'Regionalism' matters?

- Deepening and widening process of globalization made 'region' in the different context
 - How the current process of regionalism is different from ones of decades ago?
 - Were there any historical trends or waves of 'making of a region'?

Economics Of Regionalization An Overview:

The Regionalization of the World Economy Jeffrey A. Frankel, 2007-12-01 Regional economic arrangements such as free trade areas FTAs customs unions and currency blocs have become increasingly prevalent in the world economy Both pervasive and controversial regionalization has some economists optimistic about the opportunities it creates and others fearful that it may corrupt fragile efforts to encourage global free trade Including both empirical and theoretical studies this volume addresses several important questions Why do countries adopt FTAs and other regional trading arrangements To what extent have existing regional arrangements actually affected patterns of trade What are the welfare effects of such arrangements Several chapters explore the economic effects of regional arrangements on patterns of trade either on price differentials or via the gravity model on bilateral trade flows In addition this book examines the theoretical foundation of the gravity model Making extensive use of the gravity model of bilateral trade several chapters explore the economic effects of regional arrangements In addition this book examines the theoretical foundation of the gravity model Regionalization and Globalization in the Modern World Economy Alex E. Fernández Jilberto, André Mommen, 2017-03-16 Originally published in 1998 This collection of outstanding essays explores the importance of regionalization and globalization to the world economy International contributions explore the process of regionalization in the Pacific Area The Americas Africa and Europe and question whether the world economy is characterized by increasing regionalization rather than globalization The book is an excellent contribution to debate on development economics It investigates how the processes of globalization and regionalization driven by liberalization of trade and capital markets weaken nationally established monopolies and protected industries and it looks at the challenge to Third World nations and the countries of the former socialist bloc Economics
