Edithas Burglar A Story For Children:

A Comprehensive Summary and Analysis of Editha's Burglar A Story For Children Frances Hodgson Burnett, 2025-03-08
Frances Hodgson Burnett's Editha's Burglar introduces us to Editha, a peculiar and imaginative little girl unlike her peers. Living in London with her parents, Editha spends much of her time in her father's library, immersed in books and newspapers. Her father, a writer and newspaper editor, unwittingly exposes her to a world of strange events through his work, including the existence of burglars. Editha's Burglar Frances Hodgson Burnett, 1890. The precocious child who encountered the burglar in the house at night and entertained him while he pillaged so as to save her father who was asleep in an adjoining room was a creature of Mrs. Burnett's imagination. She was an entertaining youngster as self-possessed and mentally alert in her strange situation as Lewis Carroll's Alice in her famous interview with the Mock Turtle. Editha's Burglar Frances Hodgson Burnett, 2015-09-01. Editha's Burglar Frances Hodgson Burnett, 2021-03-14 I will begin by saying that Editha was always rather a queer little girl and not much like other children She was not a strong healthy little girl and had never been able to run about and play and as she had no sisters or brothers or companions of her own size she was rather old fashioned as her aunts used to call it She had always been very fond of books and had learned to read when she was such a tiny child that I should almost be afraid to say how tiny she was when she read her first volume through Her papa wrote books himself and was also the editor of a newspaper and as he had a large library Editha perhaps read more than was quite good for her She lived in London and as her mamma was very young and pretty and went out a great deal and her papa was so busy and her governess only came in the morning she was left to herself a good many hours in the day and when she was left to herself she spent the greater part of her time in the library reading her papa's big books and even his newspapers She was very fond of the newspapers because she found so many curious things in them stories for instance of strange events which happened every day in the great city of London and yet never seemed to happen anywhere near where she lived Through the newspapers she found that there were actually men who lived by breaking into peoples houses and stealing all the nice things they could carry away and she read that such men were called burglars When she first began to read about burglars she was very much troubled In the first place she felt rather timid about going to bed at night and in the second place she felt rather sorry for the burglars
