Edna His Wife Margaret Ayer Barnes, 1935      Edna, His Wife Margaret Ayer Barnes, 1935      The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2011-02-01 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians. While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago-centered fiction are available, they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s. In The Chicago of Fiction: A Resource Guide, James A. Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1,200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980. The synopses include plot summaries, names of major characters, and an indication of physical settings. An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century, while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors, some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources. Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis, the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies, i.e., class, ethnicity, gender, immigrant experience, and race. The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading, particularly since genre, juvenile, and young adult fiction, as well as literary fiction, are included.

The Middle Class in the Great Depression Jennifer Haytock, 2013-08-20 In contrast to most studies of literature from the Great Depression which focus on representations of poverty, labor, and radicalism, this project analyzes popular representations of middle-class life.      Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series, 1963 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work, copyrighted, and data relating to the copyright claim: the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration, the copyright date, the copyright registration number, etc.      The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864

Looking at Life Through American Literature Nellie Mae Lombard, 1940      Transgression and Redemption in American Fiction Thomas J. Ferraro, 2020-12-03 Transgression and Redemption in American Fiction is a critical study of classic American novels. Ferraro returns to Hawthorne's closet of secreted sin to reveal The Scarlet Letter as a deviously psychological turn on the ancient Mediterranean Catholic folk tales of female wanderlust, cuckolding, priests, and demonic revenge. This lights the way to explore what Ferraro calls the Protestant temptation to Marian Catholicism in seven modern American masterworks, including Chopin's The Awakening, Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby, Cather's The Professor's House, and Hemingway's The Sun Also Rises. Transgression and Redemption in American Fiction explores stories of forbidden passion and sacrificial violence with ultra-radiant women and sometimes men at their focus. It examines how these novels speak to readers across religious and social spectrums, generating an inclusive mode of address and near-universal relevance. Ferraro breaks the codes of contemporary criticism in his thematic focus and critical style, going beyond Protestantism and even Judeo-Christian Orthodoxy itself. Transgression and Redemption in American Fiction encourages the attentive reader to think about the American imagination the myriad arts of writing about the passion plays of love and even our canonical structures for reading and thinking about literature in new ways The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low, 1936 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers Christian Register and Boston Observer..., 1919 The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The New Orleans of Fiction A Research Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i.e. class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1935-08 American Studies: The Basics Andrew Dix, 2021-11-02 American Studies The Basics is an accessible and concise introduction that aims to unpack what American studies does and why it matters From Moby Dick to baseball Hollywood westerns to BlackLivesMatter and Disneyland to the U S Supreme Court American studies engages with a myriad of topics in its efforts to understand what the French sociologist Jean Baudrillard called social and cultural America The book begins by considering how America was studied before American studies emergence as a recognized discipline in the mid twentieth century Successive chapters then explore the rise of American studies its varied subjects its distinctive methods of research its geographical framing and its politics Throughout the book explanatory examples are drawn from across American history and culture Photographs are examined alongside novels and historical monuments discussed next to films The text offers an ideal way into an exciting academic subject of continuing growth and relevance This book is a must read for those studying and with an interest in American studies André Bazin, the Critic as Thinker R. J. Cardullo, 2017-01-28 Andr Bazin 1918 58 is credited with almost single handedly establishing the study of film as an accepted intellectual pursuit as well as with being the spiritual father of the French New Wave Among those who came under his tutelage were four who would go on to become the most renowned directors of the postwar French cinema François Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol Bazin can also be considered the principal instigator of the equally influential auteur theory the idea that since film is an art form the director of a movie must be perceived as the chief creator of its unique cinematic style Andr Bazin the Critic as Thinker American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s contains for the first time in English in one volume much if not all of Bazin s writings on American cinema on directors such as Orson Welles Charles Chaplin Preston Sturges Alfred Hitchcock Howard Hawks John Huston Nicholas Ray Erich von Stroheim and Elia Kazan and on films such as High Noon Citizen Kane Rear Window Limelight Scarface Niagara The Red Badge of Courage Greed and Sullivan s Travels Andr Bazin the Critic as Thinker American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s also features a sizable scholarly apparatus including a contextual introduction to Bazin s life and work a complete bibliography of Bazin s writings on American cinema and credits of the films discussed This volume thus represents a major contribution to the still growing academic discipline of cinema studies as well as a testament to the continuing influence of one of the world s pre eminent critical thinkers Before Reading Peter J.
