President's Commission, ADEA President's Commission, 2003 Justice in Oral Health Care Jos V. M. Welie, 2006 Oral health is an intrinsic part of overall health The mouth is part of the digestive and respiratory systems it is essential to spoken communication and facial expression in fact toothaches are among the most severe and hence debilitating kinds of pain that a person can suffer The economic cost of dental disease is staggering equaling an annual loss of some 20 million days of work in the US alone But far more disastrous is the personal cost for those suffering from these conditions More than 100 million US citizens lack dental insurance There is widespread consensus that the resulting disparities are most unfortunate But are they also unfair The dental profession and society at large appear much less eager to confirm the unfairness of this situation After all with unfairness comes the ethical obligation to attempt rectification of the situation It is one thing to praise charitable voluntarism it is guite another to insist on distributive justice. This book makes the case for justice in oral health Renowned dental ethicists discuss various theoretical perspectives national and international policy experts propose practical changes and experienced dental educators outline innovative teaching modes This book is not just food for thought it is an invitation to critical discussion and creative planning Defining the Missions of AASCU Institutions, 1990 This collected work presents nine papers concerning state college and university expectations which were originally presented at an August 1989 conference in Colorado developed by the Academic Affairs Resource Center Topics considered in the essays include the essential philosophy undergirding the American Association of State Colleges and Universities AASCU critical issues affecting the future of the various disciplines research and scholarship and the role of AASCU institutions in the community Papers have the following titles and authors AASCU s Role among Institutions of Higher Education Keith Lovin Nontraditional and Minority Students Faculty and Staff How Have They Contributed to a Transformation of the Academic Community Tobin Barrozo The Liberal Arts and the Professions On Common Ground
