neglected tradition of anarchist thought on education Although few anarchist thinkers wrote systematically on education this analysis is based largely on a reconstruction of the educational thought of anarchist thinkers gleaned from their various ethical philosophical and popular writings Primarily drawing on the work of the nineteenth century anarchist theorists such as Bakunin Kropotkin and Proudhon the book also covers twentieth century anarchist thinkers such as Noam Chomsky Paul Goodman Daniel Guérin and Colin Ward This original work will interest philosophers of education and educationalist thinkers as well as those with a general interest in anarchism how group based social differentiation and student centred education foster the idea that ethnic and social attributes matter losing any sense of our common humanity Considering the consequences of this for students and university education as a whole and challenging all pre existing ideas of how to approach reported ethnic attainment gaps The Minoritisation of Higher Education is a thought provoking read The book will be of great interest to scholars postgraduate students and professionals in the areas of higher education learning and teaching equality and diversity ethnicity and attainment It is also an important work for policymakers concerned with higher education
