The Dynamics of Change in Higher Education Svein Kyvik, 2008-12-25 In most Western European countries higher education has to an increasing extent been developing outside universities partly through the establishment of new institutions and partly through the upgrading of professional and vocational schools into higher education colleges The main trend in countries with a binary system has been that student numbers have increased more in the college sector than in the university sector Yet there is a shortage of in depth studies on the changes that have taken place in this part of the educational system and on the processes that have driven this development The aim of this book is to improve our understanding of these processes through developing concepts and theoretical perspectives which might offer new insights of complex phenomena This book is based upon a large number of studies on college education in Norway and in other Western European countries I have studied change processes in this field over a period stretching back to the late 1970s

Kyvik 1981 and this book synthesises my former publications as well as updates the development until August 2008 and presents new analyses based on my gradual attainment of deeper insight into the processes that have taken place

Heller,Marcelo Silva,2011-06-01 Despite increasing interest in how involvement in local government can improve governance and lead to civic renewal questions remain about participation s real impact This book investigates participatory budgeting a mainstay now of World Bank UNDP and USAID development programs to ask whether its reforms truly make a difference in deepening democracy and empowering civil society Looking closely at eight cities in Brazil comparing those that carried out participatory budgeting reforms between 1997 and 2000 with those that did not the authors examine whether and how institutional reforms take effect Bootstrapping Democracy highlights the importance of local level innovations and democratic advances charting a middle path between those who theorize that globalization hollows out democracy and those who celebrate globalization as a means of fostering democratic values Uncovering the state s role in creating an associational environment it reveals the contradictory ways institutional reforms shape the democratic capabilities of civil society and how outcomes are conditioned by relations between the state and civil society     Education and Democratic Ideals Gordon

Canfield Lee,1965     Democracy and Multicultural Education Farideh Salili,Rumjahn Hoosain,2010-04-01 Democratic political systems and the democratic way of life is aspired by most people around the world Democracy is considered to be morally superior to other forms of political systems as it aspires to secure civil liberties human rights social justice and equality before the law for everyone regardless of their gender culture religion and national origin Enshrined in democracy is separation of religion and state fair and competitive elections of leaders according to a country s constitution which in turn is based on democratic ideals Democracy aspires for people of different backgrounds to live together with their differences intact but all contributing towards a better life for all In today s increasingly pluralistic societies many people of different cultural and national backgrounds are brought together Many have migrated from countries with autocratic political systems Some with religions that require them to behave in different way others with cultures teaching them values of harmony collectivism and conformity as opposed to the culture of their host country emphasizing individualism and cherishing differences Hence in multicultural societies development of pluralistic democracy a democracy which includes respect for diversity is essential A truly multicultural education which is based on the assumption that different cultures will be equally represented in education goes a long way towards education for democratic citizenship Such an education would make students aware of issues of human rights and justice and encourage them to define their own values and ways in which they could contribute to a better world The aim of this volume is to provide a forum for discussion of how multiple social perspectives and personal values can be brought together on common grounds around matters related to democracy Contributions from research and scholarly theoretical work as well as presentation of existing creative models of democracy education will be included Authors from the major democracies will comment on the models and practice of multicultural education in their respective countries to facilitate discussion and learning from each others experiences      Steiner

Waldorf Pedagogy in Schools Martyn Rawson,2021-05-24 This book offers a comprehensive exploration of Steiner or Waldorf pedagogy and practice in schools Drawing on key research it traces the origins of Steiner education from the original Waldorf school and shows how this approach has since been adapted and applied in educational settings around the world Outlining the educational philosophy of Steiner education the book considers its unique features such as its commitment to a pedagogical anthropology that takes the whole developing human being into account body mind and spirit and the developmental approach that arises out of this It sets out the specific curriculum and teaching approach alongside vignettes of teaching and learning situations adopted in Steiner educational settings to show how the approach works in practice Offering a critical perspective on this teaching style Rawson examines the contributions that Steiner education has made in different cultures and looks towards future developments in China and other Asian countries Considering all aspects of Steiner education this book is essential reading for anyone wanting to understand the fundamental elements of this approach and its continuing relevance within the educational landscape      International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995      Democracy Ricardo Blaug,2016-02-28 Put together specially for students of democracy this invaluable reader gathers key statements from political thinkers explained and contextualised with editorial commentaries This new edition includes a new introduction new sections and 29 new readings published since the first edition Arranged into four sections Traditional Affirmations of Democracy Key Concepts Critiques of Democracy and Contemporary Issues it covers democratic thinking in a remarkably broad way A general introduction highlights democracy s historical complexity and guides you through the current areas of controversy The extensive bibliography follows the same structure as the text to help you deepen your study      Education in Europe: Policies and Politics José Antonio Ibáñez-Martín,Gonzalo Jover,2013-03-09 This book aims to provide a wide ranging analysis of the educational challenges posed by the treaty signed in Maastricht in 1992 It brings together an international group of specialists in the fields of educational theory philosophy of education politics of education comparative education and gender equal opportunities Focusing particularly on pedagogic issues it is essential reading for those engaged in educational research for students of education and for those working with European Union institutions      Reconceptualizing Curriculum Development James Henderson,and Colleagues,2014-12-05 Reconceptualizing Curriculum Development provides accessible clear guidance on curriculum problem solving and educational leadership through the practice of a synoptic curriculum study This practice integrates three influential interpretations of curriculum curriculum as deliberative artistry curriculum as complicated conversation and curriculum as currere with John Dewey's lifetime work on reflective inquiry At its heart the book advances a way of studying as a way of living with reference to the question How might I live as a democratic educator The study guidance is organized as an open ended scaffolding of three embedded reflective inquiries informed by four deliberative conversations Study recommendations are provided by a carefully selected team The field tested study based approach is illustrated through a multi layered multi voiced narrative collage of four experienced teachers personal journeys of understanding in a collegial study context Applying William Pinar's argument that a conceptual montage enabling teachers to lead complicated conversations should be the focus for curriculum development in the field's current post reconceptualist moment the book moves forward the educational aim of facilitating a holistic subject self social understanding through the practice of a balanced hermeneutics of suspicion and trust It closes with a discussion of cross cultural collaboration and advocacy reflecting the interest of curriculum scholars in a wide range of countries in this study based lead learning approach to curriculum development
