International Handbook of Educational Evaluation T. Kellaghan, D.L. Stufflebeam, 2012-12-06 Thomas Kellaghan Educational Research Centre St Patrick's College Dublin Ireland Daniel L Stufflebeam The Evaluation Center Western Michigan University MI USA Lori A Wingate The Evaluation Center Western Michigan University MI USA Educational evaluation encompasses a wide array of activities including student assessment measurement testing program evaluation school personnel evaluation school accreditation and curriculum evaluation It occurs at all levels of education systems from the individual student evaluations carried out by classroom teachers to evaluations of schools and districts to district wide program evaluations to national assessments to cross national comparisons of student achievement As in any area of scholarship and practice the field is constantly evolving as a result of advances in theory methodology and technology increasing globalization emerging needs and pressures and cross fertilization from other disciplines The beginning of a new century would seem an appropriate time to provide a portrait of the current state of the theory and practice of educational evaluation across the globe It is the purpose of this handbook to attempt to do this to sketch the international landscape of educational evaluation its conceptualizations practice methodology and background and the functions it serves The book's 43 chapters grouped in 10 sections provide detailed accounts of major components of the educational evaluation enterprise Together they provide a panoramic view of an evolving field Educational Evaluation: Theory and Practice Blaine R. Worthen, James R. Sanders, 1973 The Program Evaluation Standards Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation, James R. Sanders, 1994-04-06 The Program Evaluation Standards is a must have book for anyone responsible for reviewing evaluation proposals planning and conducting evaluations managing evaluation projects or judging the merit and worth of evaluations once completed For experienced practitioners it provides a set of values and principles by which to guide successful practice that is a set of criteria that determines whether educational evaluations are trustworthy and fair The Standards sets expectations of the design and implementation of educational evaluation for all practitioners in all types of educational arenas even those involved in social programming endeavors For newcomers and those less experienced who may be responsible for commissioning and using evaluations the Standards supplies a useful framework of generating a list of questions to raise about any evaluation plan or final report in an effort to assess its pros and cons The book is an invaluable resource for graduate students venturing out into the field and it instills a sense of what it means to be a responsible evaluator For clients or consumers the book offers advice on what they should expect of an evaluation Publisher description Measurement for Educational Evaluation Clinton I. Educational Evaluation & Measurement L. R. Gay, 1980      Practical Evaluation for Educators Roger Kaufman, Ingrid Guerra, William A. Platt, 2005-07-20

Roger Kaufman and his colleagues have produced what is simply the best practical book on educational evaluation published in the past few years It is current clearly written and structured in a way that educators can apply it in a huge variety of educational contexts Richard Clark Professor University of Southern California As an evaluation book written for educators and education this publication delivers on its promise It provides a practical professional and comprehensive approach for planning and conducting evaluation studies that are meaningful and effective for understanding and improving the education enterprise Dale W Lick Professor College of Education Florida State University Tallahassee The book describes how to ask and answer the right questions in order to measure the gaps in results and their consequences Readers will be able to custom tailor an evaluation plan for their specific situations Practical examples and scenarios along with how to do it guides show readers how to apply the concepts and tools presented James D Russell EdD Professor Visiting Research Associate Educational Psychology and Learning Systems Institute Florida State University Tallahassee This book puts evaluation in a framework of societal needs while simultaneously being results oriented and practical This is a unique combination of how to with why that is of immense importance in the present time when the public value of education seems to have been lost while citizens also demand specifics Elizabeth D Capaldi Vice Chancellor Chief of Staff State University of New York Use program evaluations to define measurable results and deliver meaningful outcomes Finding a straightforward approach to educational evaluations is the most important step toward discovering and reporting the meaningful results underlying the hard work of education Kaufman Guerra and Platt present program evaluation as a trouble free process that any educator can effectively complete while providing the evidence required to justify and validate any educational endeavor Drawing from the education business and military fields this accessible resource shows educators administrators politicians learners and parents how to distill evaluations to uncover what works and what doesn't Practical Evaluation for Educators breaks down the program evaluation process into four easy to understand steps Align and direct evaluation questions into useful queries aimed at the intended results of educational programs Observe to gather pertinent valid and useful data Compare the results of what was accomplished to what was planned to be accomplished Use the data by taking action and adjusting programs to bring them into alignment with societal needs When educators see evaluation as a simple useful tool for improving programs measurable results become meaningful

Educational Evaluation, Assessment and Monitoring Cees Glas, Jaap Scheerens, Sally M. Thomas, 2006-01-16 This book looks at the foundations of school self evaluation from a scientific as from a practical perspective Planning concepts restructuring of education systems organizational theory on schools evaluation methodology and models of school effectiveness and school improvement are discussed as contributing to the overall conceptualization of school self evaluation A broad range of approaches is presented and methodological requirements are discussed School self evaluation contains controversial issues that reflect tension between the need for objectivity in a context that is permeated by values and potential conflicts of interests Similar tensions may be seen to exist with respect to the static and reductionist aspects of available data collection procedures in a complex and dynamic situation and the appeal for external accountability on the one hand and improvement oriented self reflection on the other The mission of the book is to clarify these tensions and offer ways to deal with them in practical applications The school effectiveness knowledge base is offered as a substantive educational frame of references that serves an important function in selecting relevant factors for data collection and the use of the evaluation results

Educational Evaluation María Ortiz, Claudia Rubio, 2009 There are two common purposes in educational evaluation which are at times in conflict with one another Educational institutions usually require evaluation data to demonstrate effectiveness to funders and other stakeholders and to provide a measure of performance for marketing purposes Educational evaluation is also a professional activity that individual educators need to undertake if they intend to continuously review and enhance the learning they are endeavouring to facilitate This book presents new research on issues of vital importance to this field

An Archaeology of Educational Evaluation Emiliano Grimaldi, 2019-08-16 An Archaeology of Educational Evaluation Epistemological Spaces and Political Paradoxes outlines the epistemology of the theories and models that are currently employed to evaluate educational systems education policy educational professionals and students learning It discusses how those theories and models find their epistemological conditions of possibility in a specific set of conceptual transferences from mathematics and statistics political economy biology and the study of language The book critically engages with the epistemic dimension of contemporary educational evaluation and is of theoretical and methodological interest It uses Foucauldian archaeology as a problematising method of inquiry within the wider framework of governmentality studies It goes beyond a mere critique of the contemporary obsession for evaluation and attempts to replace it with the opening of a free space where the search for a mode of being acting and thinking in education is not over determined by the tyranny of improvement This book will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of educational philosophy education policy and social science
