their poetry in light of philosopher Stanley Cavell's remarkably similar engagement with the issues of skepticism and linguistic finitude The skeptic s refusal to settle for anything less than perfect knowledge of the world Cavell maintains amounts to a refusal to accept the fact of human finitude Gardner argues that both Cavell and the poets he discusses reject skepticism's world erasing conclusions but nonetheless honor the truth about the limits of knowledge that skepticism keeps alive In calling attention to the limits of such acts as describing or remembering the poets Gardner examines attempt to renew language by teasing a charged drama out of their inability to grasp with certainty Juxtaposed with Gardner's readings of the work of the younger poets are his interviews with them In many ways these conversations are at the core of Gardner's book demonstrating the wide ranging implications of the struggles and mappings enacted in the poems The interviews are themselves examples of the charged intimacy Gardner deals with in his readings Ten Poems to Last a Lifetime Roger Housden, 2007-12-18 The fourth volume in the popular series that began with Ten Poems to Change Your Life Ten Poems to Last a Lifetime focuses on what it means to be truly human In it Roger Housden offers us poems on life and death happiness seeing ourselves in relation to the world and of course the ineffable the things that really matter when the chips are down He describes these passionate poems as bread for the soul and fire for the spirit The poets Housden has chosen are Billy Collins Hayden Carruth Dorianne Laux James Wright Naomi Shihab Nye and Mary Oliver from the United States D H Lawrence and John Keats from England Rainer Maria Rilke from Germany Fleur Adcock from New Zealand and Seng Ts an from sixth century China And yes that adds up to eleven not ten Housden decided to include a bonus poem for his faithful readers in this the final volume of the series As before Housden's luminous essays provide an elegant and easy passage into the sometimes daunting world of poetry enabling readers to feel that in him they have found a trusted guide and mentor An American Poet Kevin Green, 2020-04-24 I wrote these poems to inspire myself and others to help quide the blind into the light of truth and imagination Leaving behind the truth of emotion happiness love hate fear and fantasy for all that may find my book a joy to read I wrote this book to free myself from limitations and all of the stress and pain that life brings Inside this book lies tales of life from the reflection of a true American Poet and still an ever present student life I hope you the readers enjoy my outlook on life and experience another plane of conscienceness from a different angle of insight
