Economy In Transition A System Of Models

Gerhard Gehrig, Władysław Welfe

Economy In Transition A System Of Models:

Economies in Transition Gerhard Gehrig, Władysław Welfe, 1993      Economies in Transition Gerhard

Gehrig, Władysław Welfe, 1993 It has been quite a challenge for econometricians to model economies in transition There is no textbook at hand to master that task Economic theory cannot be applied without adaptations to the characteristic change of a whole economic system Regression analysis taking into account past economic development only is of limited use for the econometrician Having econometric models at hand would be very helpful for an active economic policy to guide the transition process Various scenarios representing strategies could be simulated in their consequences to the economy The best alternative in respect to the government's objectives could be chosen This very situation has born the idea of co operation between Łódź and Frankfurt in 1990 There are problems of this kind in Poland and in Germany The German situation is somewhat better than that of Poland as a relatively small centrally planned economy is being united with a substantial social market economy taking over a lot of the burden of the former mismanagement Thus it might be possible to share the experience in modelling the united Germany and preparing forecasts with the Polish model builders In addition it would be profitable for both model establishing teams to link their models in order to improve the forecasting potential Moreover the Polish partner has a broad national and international experience in econometric model building which makes co operation smooth and fruitful His experience in modelling countries with a centrally planned economy would also help to master the transition problems      Models and Applications of Chaos Theory in Modern Sciences Elhadj

Zeraoulia, 2011-09-07 This book presents a select group of papers that provide a comprehensive view of the models and applications of chaos theory in medicine biology ecology economy electronics mechanical and the human sciences Covering both the experimental and theoretical aspects of the subject it examines a range of current topics of interest It consid

The Economy in Transition Gerhard Gehrig, 1995 This publication is a further result of a joint research with mainly W Welfe on economies in transition financed by the European Community To analyse and forecast the German economy a system of models for the old and new lands has been established Forecasts are done by simulations This part of the results contains a multi variate time series analysis and the West German money and capital market with 50 equations The demand for labour will be shown broken down to industries qualification levels and sex by 40 equations A sensitivity analysis has been applied to the structure of the model for the German economy In addition a simulation on an optimistic scenario shows the economic development of the two German economies up to the year 2000 Finally a model to connect foreign trade with the system of models shows an application for Poland and Slovakia also by a simulation      Modeling and Control of

Economic Systems 2001 R. Neck, 2003-05-21 This volume contains papers presented at the IFAC symposium on Modeling and control of Economic Systems SME 2001 which was held at the university of Klagenfurt Austria The symposium brought together scientists and users to explore current theoretical developments of modeling techniques for economic systems It

Economic Models for Policy Making Solomon Cohen, 2013-05-02 Over the past decades many different kinds of models have been developed that have been of use to policy makers but until now the different approaches have not been brought together with a view to enhancing the systematic unification and evaluation of these models This new volume aims to fill this gap by bringing together four decades worth of work by S I Cohen on economic modelling for policy making Work on older models has been rewritten and brought fully up to date and these older models have therefore been brought back to the fore both to assess how they influenced more recent models and to see how they could be used today The focus of the book is on models for development policies in developing economies but there are some chapters that relate to economic policies in transition and developed economies The policy areas covered are of typical interest in developing and transition economies They include those relating to trade liberalization reforms sustainable development industrial development agrarian reform growth and distribution human resource development and education public goods and income transfers Each chapter contains a brief assessment of the empirical literature on the economic effects of the policy measures discussed in the chapter The book presents a platform of economic modelling that can serve as a refresher for practising professionals as well as a reference companion for graduates engaging in economic modelling and policy preparations

Ideology, Political Transitions and the City Aleksandra Djurasovic, 2016-06-10 Recent history has seen Bosnian and Herzegovinian BiH cities undergoing several transitions Their cities have developed under socialism 1945 1992 have suffered through the civil war during the 1990s and during the last twenty years have been undergoing a slow and multifaceted transition to an indeterminate end point Focusing on the post socialist postwar and neoliberal transitions experienced in BiH the book shows that planning systems deviated from control oriented and top down regulation to flexible approaches for more open for informal development The book analyzes several levels of planning related processes the former Yugoslavia BiH the city of Mostar and three urban zones the Industrial Zone Bi e Polje the City Zone Rondo and the Historic District and the Old Town Zone in order to offer insights into the new planning systems in the late phase of post socialist transition

Energy and Water Development Appropriations for 2007 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development, 2006

Economic Development and the Division of Labor Xiaokai Yang, Jeffrey D. Sachs, 2008-04-15 This innovative new text from Jeffrey Sachs and Xiokai Yang introduces students to development economics from the perspectives of inframarginal analysis and marginal analysis The book demonstrates how the new found emphasis on inframarginal analysis has influenced a shift back to an interest in Classical Economics from Neoclassical Economics Inframarginal Analysis vs Marginal Analysis is presented as a consistent theoretical framework throughout Shows how the relationship of Inframarginal Analysis to Marginal Analysis has influenced the shift back to an interest in Classical Economics from Neoclassical Economics with regard to economic development

 Allows economists to reduce their overall reliance on marginal analysis which may be less relevant to development economics than it is to the economics of development countries
 Brings considerable analytic machinery to bear on important problems
 A focus on institutions and transaction costs that is very relevant to development economics
 Offers a thorough analysis of trade CHs 3 7 and macroeconomics CHs 16 19 both of which are not dealt with in depth by comparable textbooks

Complex Systems Modeling and Simulation in Economics and Finance Shu-Heng Chen, Ying-Fang Kao, Ragupathy Venkatachalam, Ye-Rong Du, 2018-11-20
 This title brings together frontier research on complex economic systems heterogeneous interacting agents bounded rationality and nonlinear dynamics in economics
 The book contains the proceedings of the CEF2015 21st Computing in Economics and Finance held 20-22 June 2015 in Taipei Taiwan and addresses some of the important driving forces for various emergent properties in economies when viewed as complex systems
 The breakthroughs reported in this book are a result of an interdisciplinary approach and simulation remains the unifying theme for these papers as they deal with a wide range of topics in economics
 The text is a valuable addition to the efforts in promoting the complex systems view in economic science
 The computational experiments reported in the book are both transparent and replicable
Complex System Modeling and Simulation in Economics and Finance is useful for graduate courses of complex systems with particular focus on economics and finance
 At the same time it serves as a good overview for researchers who are interested in the topic

A Systemic Transition to Circular Economy Aldo Roberto Ometto, Joseph Sarkis, Steve Evans, 2024-03-29
 The book will explore using multiple perspectives from multiple contributors two main aspects for circular economy CE business and technology B T systems and value perspectives
 Going beyond a linear economic perspective the traditional perspective CE needs to develop intentional and integrated paths to help restore physical resources and regenerate the functions of natural and anthropic systems creating greater economic and social opportunities with environmentally positive outcomes
 Whether this is feasible and possible within the context of CE and B T is something that will be central to the contributions made in this book
 A major

objective of the book is to deliver practical and fundamental knowledge of B T CE insights combining a systems perspective and value creation for socio technical innovation leading to sustainable transitions and effective transformations Based on those key aspects the book is structured in two parts one from a more theoretical and conceptual basis in Part 1 and a more applied perspective in Part 2 The chapters in Part 1 are presented through the lens of business and systems transitions In Part 2 the chapters present the opportunities and the journeys from real case studies of companies engaged in circular business strategies processes practices and technologies
