Le français québécois entre réalité et idéologie : Un autre regard sur la langue Lionel

Meney,2017-03-01T00:00:00-05:00 Au Québec en matière de langue le choix d'un modèle de bon usage devant guider les locuteurs est l'objet d'un débat permanent Deux camps s'opposent D'un côté se trouvent les partisans de l'adoption d'une norme endogène nationale qu'ils désignent sous le nom de français québécois standard De l'autre se situent les défenseurs de l'utilisation d'un français international commun à tous les francophones tel qu'il est décrit dans les dictionnaires de référence Ils l'appellent le français standard international Les endogénistes affirment qu'il existe véritablement une norme propre au Québec distincte de la norme internationale et qu'il convient de la privilégier Dans Le Français québécois entre réalité et idéologie Un autre regard sur la langue Lionel Meney démontre leur théorie Pour la première fois en se basant sur une étude objective approfondie de la langue des journaux québécois il montre l'aide de nombreux exemples qu'il n'y a pas sur le marché linguistique québécois une seule norme qui serait ce français québécois standard mais deux un français québécois et un français international Les deux coexistent et se font concurrence Une conclusion s'impose le français standard international fait autant partie du paysage linguistique québécois que le français québécois standard Vouloir privilégier le seul français québécois est un choix purement idéologique Imposer le second contre le premier c'est aller contre la tendance de fond du marché linguistique qui montre les progressions constants du français international
