"A Dream of Stone" Michael D. Garval, 2004 With democratization of fame in the wake of the French Revolution writers enjoyed ever greater celebrity status But in nineteenth century France the availability and perceived impermanence of such renown cheapened it and prompted longing for enduring fame exemplified by monuments commemorative sculptural or architectural works helping a nation in flux define itself its past and anticipated future Within this cultural climate there evolved an ideal of great writers and their work as immortal that envisioned literary greatness through the metaphor of monuments and monumentality study draws upon wide ranging evidence from journalism to poetry caricature to statuary

Focusing on the lives work and fame of Honore de Balzac George Sand and Victor Hugo it uncovers the salient features and traces the rise and fall of this monumentalizing vision of literary greatness largely forgotten today yet so central to nineteenth century French culture North Carolina State University Les névrosés de la littérature et de l'histoire dr.
