Mirakhor, H. Askari, 2010-08-18 This book briefly surveys the evolution of the Western concept of development recognizing the wider dimensions of human and economic development and the role of institutions and rules which has moved toward the vision and the path of development envisaged in Islam Mediterranean Tradition in Economic Thought Louis Baeck, 2012-08-21 The Mediterranean Tradition in Economic Thought surveys the legacy of thinking on economic affairs from the countries in the Mediterraean basin over four millenia It considers the economic content of the scriptures of the Mesopotamian civilisations Pharaonic Egypt and the Biblical peoples and the contributions of the Greeks and Romans and their influence on Islamic civilisation and on the Medieval scholastics The flowering of the school of Salamanca as recently as the seventeenth century demonstrates how long lived the tradition was and throughout Baeck demonstrates how these ideas continue to survive and resurface citing the renewed interest in the ethical dimension of economics the revival of interest in the history of Islamic thought and the re emergence of Slavophile doctrines in contemporary Russian Labor Economics in an Islamic Framework Toseef Azid, Umar Burki, Muhammad Junaid Khawaja, Nasim Shah Shirazi, Muhammad Tahir, 2021-12-30 The labor market in Islam is governed by the Islamic laws of fairness justice and reward that is equivalent to the job done Most of the literature in the field discusses the normative aspect of the labor market whereas few attempts can be seen to address more positive aspects There is a need for new theoretical and empirical models for the Islamic labor market which should differ from established approaches This book provides a comprehensive overview of the nature scope and dimensions of the labor market in an Islamic context from both theoretical and practical perspectives It presents and discusses labor economics and then compares the similarities and differences between conventional and Islamic views of the labor market explaining where they meet and critically justifying why they differ under the umbrella of Shari ah The book raises pertinent issues which it analyzes from both standpoints and widens the discourse to include norms morality and related institutions such as social security and welfare A unique feature of the book is that it examines labor economics practices among a specific group of countries and studies the labor conditions within these countries where the majority of the population follow the teachings of Islam in their daily lives The book proposes practical strategies for the development of new models for the Islamic labor market which are compatible with the modern world The book will enable academics and practitioners of Islamic economics to make economic sense of Shari ah compliance and human resource development Economics and Capitalism in the Ottoman Empire Deniz Kilinçoğlu, 2015-06-19 Is it possible to generate capitalist spirit in a society where cultural economic and political conditions did not unfold into an industrial revolution and consequently into an advanced industrial capitalist formation This is exactly what some prominent public intellectuals in the late Ottoman Empire tried to achieve as a developmental strategy long before Max Weber defined the notion of capitalist spirit as the main motive behind the development of capitalism This book demonstrates how and why Ottoman reformists adapted English and French economic theory to the Ottoman institutional setting and popularized it to cultivate bourgeois values in the public sphere as a developmental strategy It also reveals the imminent results of these efforts by presenting examples of how bourgeois values permeated into all spheres of socio cultural life from family life to literature in the late Ottoman Empire The text examines how the interplay between Western European economic theories and the traditional Muslim economic cultural setting paved the way for a new synthesis of a Muslim capitalist value system shedding light on the emergence of capitalism as a cultural and an economic system and the social transformation it created in a non Western and more specifically in the Muslim Middle Eastern institutional setting This book will be of great interest to scholars of modern Middle Eastern history economic history and the history of economic thought
