the arc of the artist's story bound up in each work. An analysis of location, technique and subject is presented in chronological sequence, allowing the narrative to flow naturally. Entwined with the main text are supplements from contributing writers including Margaret Hudson Ware and Laurence Fearnley focusing on the experience of being a portrait subject. Poems by Zoltan Endre and Barry Southam explore their personal reactions to particular portraits and Alan Pearson's own poems reinforce the understanding of mood and character. Others who have had a close association with the artist, e.g. Neil Roberts, Tim Garrity and Richard Wolfe appraise individual paintings. Short essays by Alan's biographer Denys Trussell and by T. L. Rodney Wilson describe the artist's modus operandi and place in the art historical canon. Vibrant and readable, this book appeals to all readers, to those interested in contemporary art and in the human condition. The End of Expressionism Joan Weinstein, 1990-06-08 Weinstein explores the attitudes and organizations of artists and architects in Berlin, Munich and Dresden in response to the tumultuous events associated with the end of WWI and the failed Revolution. She traces the initial excitement and zeal and then the disillusionment as utopian dreams were dimmed by social, political and military realities as well as by inherent contradiction within the arts movements itself. The accompanying b/w illustrations, fascinating in themselves, directly depict textual themes.
