Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven and Is Shakespeare Dead? Mark Twain, 1910 Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven Mark Twain, 2017-03-11 I had been having considerable trouble with my wings The day after I helped the choir I made a dash or two with them but was not lucky First off I flew thirty yards and then fouled an Irishman and brought him down brought us both down in fact Next I had a collision with a Bishop and bowled him down of course We had some sharp words and I felt pretty cheap to come banging into a grave old person like that with a million strangers looking on and smiling to themselves I saw I hadn't got the hang of the steering and so couldn't rightly tell where I was going to bring up when I started I went afoot the rest of the day and let my wings hang Early next morning I went to a private place to have some practice I got up on a pretty high rock and got a good start and went swooping down aiming for a bush a little over three hundred yards off but I couldn't seem to calculate for the wind which was about two points abaft my beam I could see I was going considerable to leeward of the bush so I worked my starboard wing slow and went ahead strong on the port one but it wouldn't answer I could see I was going to broach to so I slowed down on both and lit I went back to the rock and took another chance at it I aimed two or three points to starboard of the bush yes more than that enough so as to make it nearly a head wind I done well enough but made pretty poor time I could see plain enough that on a head wind wings was a mistake I could see that a body could sail pretty close to the wind but he couldn't go in the wind's eye I could see that if I wanted to go a visiting any distance from home and the wind was ahead I might have to wait days maybe for a change and I could see too that these things could not be any use at all in a gale if you tried to run before the wind you would make a mess of it for there isn't anyway to shorten sail like reefing you know you have to take it all in shut your feathers down flat to your sides That would land you of course You could lay to with your head to the wind that is the best you could do and right hard work you'd find it too If you tried any other game you would founder sure Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven Mark Twain, 2022-10-04 Reproduction of the original Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven Mark Twain, 1909 Captain is misdirected and arrives at the wrong gate Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven Mark Twain, 2015-09-16 Well when I had been dead about thirty years I begun to get a little anxious Mind you had been whizzing through space all that time like a comet LIKE a comet Why Peters I laid over the lot of them Of course there warn't any of them going my way as a steady thing you know because they travel in a long circle like the loop of a lasso whereas I was pointed as straight as a dart for the Hereafter Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven Марк Твен, 2021-03-16 Twain at Sea Mark Twain, 2018-05-01 Samuel Clemens 1835 1910 repeatedly traversed the ocean during his globetrotting life A keen observer the man who recast himself as Mark Twain was fascinated by seafaring This book compiles selections ranging from his first voyage in 1866 San Francisco to Hawaii to his circumnavigation of the world by steamship 1897 Despite his background as a brown water mariner Twain was out of his element on the ocean His writings about being at sea as well as feeling at sea reflect both a growing familiarity with voyaging and an enduring sense of amazement Twain s shipboard observations capture his interest and amusement in the blue water mariners he encountered with their salty subculture and individual quirks Twain at Sea collects the author s essays and travelogues on the maritime world in one volume including excerpts from Roughing It The Innocents Abroad A Tramp Abroad Following the Equator and other sources The Complete Short Stories of Mark Twain Mark Twain,2012-06-05 These sixty satirical rollicking uproarious tales by the greatest yarn spinner in our literary history are as fresh and vivid as ever more than a century after their author s death Mark Twain s famous novels Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn have long been hailed as major achievements but the father of American literature also made his mark as a master of the humorous short story All the tales he wrote over the course of his lengthy career are gathered here including such immortal classics as The Notorious Jumping Frog of Calaveras County The Man That Corrupted Hadleyburg The Diary of Adam and Eve and The 30 000 Bequest Twain s inimitable wit his nimble plotting and his unerring insight into human nature are on full display in these wonderfully entertaining stories Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven Mark Twain,2008-11-28 Books for All Kinds of Readers ReadHowYouWant offers the widest selection of on demand accessible format editions on the market today Each edition has been optimized for maximum readability using our patent pending conversion technology We are partnering with leading publishers around the globe to create accessible editions of their titles Our goal is to have accessible editions simultaneously released with publishers new books so that all readers can have access to the books they want to read today To find more books in your format visit www.readhowyouwant.com Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven (Classic Reprint) Mark Twain,2015-07-13 Excerpt from Extract From Captain Stormfield s Visit to Heaven Well when I had been dead about thirty years I begun to get a little anxious Mind you I had been whizzing through space all that time like a comet Like a comet Why Peters I laid over the lot of them About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Extract from Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven Mark Twain,2016-12-26 Well when I had been dead about thirty years I begun to get a little anxious Mind you had been whizzing through space all that time like a comet Like a comet Why Peters I laid over the lot of them Of course there warn t any of them going my way as a steady thing you know because they travel in a long circle like the loop of a lasso whereas I was pointed as straight as a dart for the Hereafter but I happened on one every now and then that was going my way for an hour or so and then we had a bit of a brush together But it was generally pretty one sided because I sailed by them the same as if they were standing still An ordinary comet don t make more than about 200 000 miles a minute Of course when I came across one of that sort like Encke s and Halley s comets for instance it warn t anything but just a flash and a vanish you see You couldn t rightly call it a race It was as if the comet was a gravel train and I was a telegraph despatch But after I got outside of our astronomical system I used to flush a comet occa sionally that was something like We haven t got any such comets ours don t begin One night I was swinging along at a good round gait everything taut and trim and the wind in my favor I judged I was going about a million miles a minute it might have been more it couldn t have been less when I flushed a most uncom monly big one about three points off my starboard bow By his stern lights I judged he was bearing about northeast and by north half east Well it was so near my course that I wouldn t throw away the chance so I fell off a point steadied my helm and went for him You should have heard me whiz and seen the electric fur fly In about a minute and a half I was fringed out with an electrical nimbus that flamed around for miles and miles and lit up all space like broad day The comet was burning blue in the distance like a sickly torch when I first sighted him but he begun to grow bigger and bigger as I crept up on him I slipped up on him so fast that when I had gone about 150 000 000 miles I was close enough to be swallowed up in the phosphorescent glory of his wake and I couldn t see anything for the glare Thinks I it won t do to run into him so I shunted to one side and tore along By and by I closed up abreast of his tail Do you know what it was like It was like a gnat closing up on the continent of America I forged along By and by I had sailed along his coast for a little upwards of a hundred and fifty million miles and then I could see by the shape of him that I hadn t even got up to his waistband yet Why Peters we don t know anything about comets down here If you want to see comets that are comets you ve got to go outside of our solar system where there s room for them you understand My friend I ve seen comets out there that couldn t even lay down inside the orbits of our noblest comets without their tails hanging over
