Extreme Mittellage Eine Reise Durch Das Deutsche Nationalgefuehl:

The Power of Intellectuals in Contemporary Germany Michael Geyer,2001-12-17 The German Democratic Republic has become the subject of novels memoirs and films and the backdrop for general debates over the power of intellectuals in contemporary media and society This collection considers the demise of the GDR and its impact on the place of intellectuals

The Unification of German Education Val D. Rust,Diane Rust,2018-05-03 Originally published in 1995 This study of the integration of East and West German education following the collapse of the German Democratic Republic in 1989 focuses on policy formation and implementation during this period of great social and political turbulence It is the result of a research project undertaken shortly after the unification The authors lived in East Germany for a full year looking carefully at individual schools vocational training centers teacher colleges and universities The book considers questions of how education policy is successfully formulated conditions in which that policy is implemented and the consequences of the implemented educational reform The first chapters present the context and history of German education and the later chapters discuss the unification and the formation of the new school laws and the successes and failures The authors research shows that even before the unification East Germans had already opted for a system consistent with West German education law However the West Germans disregarded these changes and imposed their own version of reform on East Germany The German situation at this time is of great interest to all educators particularly students of educational policy making as well as researchers in political science economics and sociology 1870/71 - 1989/90 Walter Pape,2013-08-08

No detailed description available for 1870 71 1989 90 Routledge Library Editions: Comparative Education Various,2021-06-23 Reissuing works originally published between 1962 and 1995 this collection is made up of volumes that examine insights and data from the practises and situation in one country or area when considering educational practice elsewhere Many important educational questions are examined from this international and comparative perspective in these volumes Countries represented here include Russia the Caribbean Latin America Australia and New Zealand China France Japan Israel Italy Germany the United Kingdom and the United States Many of the volumes look at the whole area of comparative education and its methods and theories while one looks at the Unesco literacy program The Turkish Turn in Contemporary German Literature L. Adelson,2005-08-19 Challenging the commonplace that suspends migrants between two worlds this study turns a refreshingly curious eye to complex cultural relations and literary novelties wrought by Turkish migration to Germany At interpretive and historic crossroads involving dialogue and storytelling genocide and taboo and capital and labour in the 1990s This book illuminates far reaching imaginative effects that literatures of migration can engender In critical conversation with Arjun Appadurai Seyla Benhabib Homi Bhabha Rey Chow Andreas Huyssen Dominick LaCapra Doris Sommer and many others Adelson probes history and aesthetics as surprisingly twinned indices of national and global transformation at the millennial turn Berlin and Its Culture Ronald Taylor,1997-01-01 An expansive lavishly illustrated portrait of the culture of Berlin from its medieval beginnings to the reunification of 1990 illuminates the cultural activities of each era and their relationship to the city's changing political and social life UP Beyond 1989 Keith Bullivant, 1997 With the opening up of the East in the autumn of 1989 claims were being made on the one hand that German literature had never in fact been divided while others were proclaiming the end of East and West German literatures as they had existed and the beginning of a new era German Comedy Peter Schneider, 1992-10 A tour of Germany after reunification provides anecdotes of the West German people an East German baker Bavarian yodelers Stalinist functionaries and Western capitalists Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture John Sandford, 2013-04-03 Pre and post unification culture Includes Austria and Switzerland Annotated suggestions for further reading English and German language works The ^ARush to German Unity Konrad H. Jarausch, 1994-02-24 The bringing down of the Berlin Wall is one of the most vivid images and historic events of the late twentieth century The reunification of Germany has transformed the face of Europe In one stunning year two separate states with clashing ideologies hostile armies competing economies and incompatible social systems merged into one The speed and extent of the reunification was so great that many people are still trying to understand the events Initial elation has given way to the realities and problems posed in reuniting two such different systems The Rush to German Unity presents a clear historical reconstruction of the confusing events It focuses on the dramatic experiences of the East German people but also explores the decisions of the West German elite Konrad H Jarausch draws on the rich sources produced by the collapse of the GDR and on the public debate in the FRG Beginning with vivid media images the text probes the background of a problem traces its treatment and resolution and then reflects on its implications Combining an insider's insights with an outsider's detachment the interpretation balances the celebratory and the catastrophic views The unification process was democratic peaceful and negotiated But the merger was also bureaucratic capitalistic and one sided Popular pressures and political manipulation combined to create a rush to unity that threatened to escape control The revolution moved from a civic rising to a national movement and ended up as reconstruction from the outside An ideal source for general readers and students The Rush to German Unity explores whether solving the old German problem has merely created new difficulties Mysticism as Modernity William Morris Croke, William Croke, 2008 This work reconsiders the connections between mysticism nationalism and modernity in twentieth century German cultures Disengaging mysticism from occultism the author creates a new space for reconsidering mysticism's links to larger structures of modernity already at play at the turn of the century Rather than dismissing mysticism as a strain of anti modern irrationalism with troubling links to radical politics such as Nazism the author reconceptualizes modern mysticism as an unwittingly logical expression of the same compression of time and space created by the emergence of the newspaper radio railways and telegraph and reflected in the novels of Hermann Hesse Robert Musil and Max Frisch Cultural Studies of Modern Germany Russell A. Berman, 1993 A study probing the ambiguities of German nationhood Berman takes a theoretical perspective of cultural studies exploring such themes as the constitution of nationhood what holds a citizenry together and history's role in providing a framework for current identities and institutions

'Diese merkwürdige Kleinigkeit einer Vision' David Clarke, 2021-11-15 Christoph Hein is one of the best known authors of the former GDR and his works of fiction have been widely interpreted as responses to and critiques of socialist society In this study David Clarke undertakes a detailed analysis of all of Christoph Hein's major works of fiction from Der fremde Freund 1928 to Willenbrock 2000 in order to explore Hein's critique of the GDR regime whilst also demonstrating how aspects of that critique provided a starting point for Hein's rejection of capitalism both before and after German unification For Hein socialism had failed to make good its promise to create a community bound together by common values and goals preferring instead to impose conformity upon its citizens Capitalism he believed was equally unable to meet the need for community and Hein sought to demonstrate the consequences of this state of affairs in the figure of Wrie in his first post unification novel Das Napoleon Spiel 1993 After this point Clarke argues Hein was nevertheless forced to re-examine his criticism of capitalism a process which ultimately led to the more differentiated and convincing portrayal to be found in Willenbrock

The Poet's Role Ruth J. Owen, 2021-10-18 This study of contemporary German poetry represents the first attempt to examine comprehensively and at some length the lyric response to the unification period It sets out to investigate by means of close textual analysis whether the German Wende was also a turning point for poetry exploring how GDR poets responded both to the revolutionary events of 1989 and subsequently to the new united Germany An introductory chapter considers what is distinct about poetry as a genre especially under censorship or amid historic change as well as outlining the post unification Literaturstreit The following chapter offers a survey of the poet's role in the GDR from 1949 until 1989 Two central chapters then gather the poetry of the Wende and unification as a corpus of work and characterize it through the elucidation of recurring themes motifs and techniques The volume strikes a balance between giving a general overview of poetry written in 1989-1996 and focusing on individual poets whose work is particularly compelling After identifying broad trends across a wide range of individual poems collections and anthologies single chapters therefore examine in greater depth the work of Volker Braun and Durs Grünbein The concluding chapter addresses the issue of a separate GDR literature Finally an extensive structured bibliography is provided covering the poetry literary criticism and cultural history of the period

German Orientalisms Todd Curtis Kontje, 2004 A fresh examination of the role of the East in the German literary imagination ranging from the Middle Ages to the present

The Skin of the System Benjamin Robinson, 2009-09-28 The Skin of the System objects to the idea that there is only one modernity that of liberal capitalism Starting from the simple conviction that whatever else East German socialism was it was real this book focuses on what made historical socialism different from social systems in the West In this way the study elicits the general question what must we think in order to think an other system at all To approach this question Robinson turns to the remarkable writer Franz Fühmann the East German who most single-mindedly dedicated himself to understanding what it means to transform from fascism to socialism F hmann s own serial loyalties to Hitler and Stalin inform his existential meditations on change and difference By placing F hmann s politically alert and intensely personal literary inventions in the context of an inquiry into radical social rupture The Skin of the System wrests the brutal materiality of twentieth century socialism from attempts to provincialize both its desires and its failures as antimodern ideological follies

Memory Traces Silke Arnold-de Simine, 2005 This essay collection examines the dynamics of memory organization and the way it varies among different media and modes of discourse in post unification Germany German unification has put the post war period into a historical perspective Such a rupture raises questions concerning the appropriate commemoration preservation and reinterpretation of the past The processes of reorientation after unification influenced the self perception of literary authors as well as the social role position and status of German literature They also affected the way writers viewed the competition in which they found themselves pitted against visual and electronic media as rival windows on the past In the context of several debates on German literature during the 1990s the discussion revolved not only around the adequate aesthetic representation of the historical and cultural heritage but even more so around the role of literature itself in that process The contributions look at different discourses that were and still are concerned with reinterpreting and creating new collective symbols and narrative patterns in relation to Germany s past The volume focuses on the effects of the characteristic discourses of the press literature and its different genres film the internet and memorials on the depiction and performance of memories

Transforming the Center, Eroding the Margins Dagmar C. G. Lorenz, Renate S. Posthofen, 1998 Transforming the Center Eroding the Margins is a collection of critical articles about recent and contemporary German literature designed to stimulate discussion about German speaking culture from the point of view of diversity The combination of broad historical approaches and detailed textual analyses made it possible to present in this volume a spectrum of identities and positions within the German speaking sphere and sometimes even within the work of a single author Examining the works of German speaking authors of different backgrounds and countries of residence from many different points of view shows that the very concept of a unified German Culture is a construct Because of the increasing visibility of various ethnic religious cultural and economic groups including migrant workers exiles and immigrants multiculturalism and cultural diversity in Central Europe have received considerable attention in public debate since the disintegration of the Eastern bloc and the fall of the Berlin Wall Yet neither cultural diversity nor the gender issues examined throughout the volume are recent phenomena Upon closer scrutiny the notions of center and margin are shown to have origins in the nineteenth century and before The articles in this volume distinct in their approaches and each one concerned with specific situations reveal an ongoing decline of mainstream discourse the erosion of the cultural center and a strengthening of what continues to be referred to as marginal The literary and intellectual production of groups that are seen as marginal is becoming ever more compelling and visible as is documented in Transforming the Center Eroding the Margins

Contemporary German Fiction Stuart Taberner, 2007-06-21 The profound political and social changes Germany has undergone since 1989 have been reflected in an extraordinarily rich range of contemporary writing Contemporary German Fiction focuses on the debates that have shaped the politics and culture of the new Germany that has emerged from the second half of the 1990s onwards and offers the first comprehensive account of key developments in German literary fiction within their social and historical context Each chapter begins with an overview of a central theme such as East German writing West German writing writing on the Nazi past writing by women and writing by ethnic minorities The authors discussed include Günter Grass Ingo Schulze Judith Hermann Christa Wolf Christian Kracht and Zafer Senocak These informative and accessible readings build up a clear picture of the central themes and stylistic concerns of the best writers working in Germany today

Recasting German Identity Stuart Taberner, Frank Finlay, 2002 A collection of essays offering a nuanced understanding of the complex question of identity in today's Germany This collection of fifteen essays by scholars from the UK the US Germany and Scandinavia revisits the question of German identity Unlike previous books on this topic however the focus is not exclusively on national identity in the aftermath of Hitler Instead the concentration is upon the plurality of ethnic sexual political geographical and cultural identities in modern Germany and on their often fragmentary nature as the country struggles with the challenges of unification and international developments such as globalization multiculturalism and postmodernism The multifaceted nature of German identity demands a variety of approaches thus the essays are interdisciplinary drawing upon historical sociological and literary sources They are organized with reference to three distinct sections Berlin Political Formations and Difference yet at the same time they illuminate one another across the volume offering a nuanced understanding of the complex question of identity in today's Germany Topics include the new self understanding of the Berlin Republic Berlin as a public showcase the Berlin architecture debate the Walser Bubis debate fictions of German history and the end of the GDR the impact of the German student movement on the FRG Prime Minister Biedenkopf and the myth of Saxon identity women in post 1989 Germany trains as symbols and the function of the foreign in post 1989 fiction identity construction among Turks in Germany and Turkish self representation in post 1989 fiction the state of German literature today Contributors Frank Brunssen Ulrike Zitzlsperger Janet Stewart Kathrin Sch del Karen Leeder Ingo Cornils Peter Thompson Chris Szejnmann Sabine Lang Simon Ward Roswitha Skare Eva Kolinsky Margaret Littler Katharina Gerstenberger and Stuart Parkes Stuart Taberner is Lecturer in German and Frank Finlay is Professor of German and Head of the Department of German both at the University of Leeds UK
