Eye On The Whiplash And Other Stories:

A Night at the Inns and Other Stories Henry Murphy, 2018-03-01 Requiem for an Unsung Revolutionary and Other Stories Manju Kak, 1996 The People of the Pit and Other Stories Abraham Merritt, 2016-11-28 The People of the Pit and Other Stories is a collection of Abraham Merritt's short stories and contains seven stories and two fragments. These short stories span the entire career of the man who has been called America's foremost adventure fantasist of the 1920s and 30s. Several of the tales boast the lush purple prose of Merritt's early period as seen especially in his first two novels The Moon Pool and The Metal Monster but all seven are finely written little gems. They run the gamut from full-blown fantasy to lost world adventure to outright science fiction and abundantly demonstrate that Merritt was a master of the concise short form as well as the full-length novel.

Flowering Judas and Other Stories Katherine Anne Porter, 2014-03-25 The Library of America presents an exclusive e-book edition of the astonishing 1930 collection that introduced a major new voice in American literature. If Katherine Anne Porter had written nothing but these short narratives observed the New York Times she would be among the most distinguished masters of her craft in this country.

The Shadows Return (and other stories) Ravi Tennety, 2020-03-20 A teacher who loves to discipline his students a friend who returns to kill a hotel that retains its guests a wife who dreads the return of her husband an educationalist whose spirit remains in his school a pickpocket who finds the wrong victim an unending flight an actress who literally lives her role The Shadows Return and other stories is a compelling collection of short stories. They are tightly woven haunting and inevitably carry a sting in the tail. The author races the reader to the end and with a deft flick turns him around to face the way he has come. Each story is meticulously detailed and knit like a collage. The last few lines convert each painting into a hologram where the reader is not sure what the picture really is. Won't you enjoy the ride?

The German Lieutenant August Strindberg, 1915 It was fourteen days after Sedan in the middle of September 1870. A former clerk in the Prussian Geological Survey later a lieutenant in the reserve named Von Bleichroden sat in his shirt sleeves before a writing table in the Caf du Cercle the best inn of the little town Marlotte. He had thrown his military coat with its stiff collar over the back of a chair and there it hung limp and collapsed like a corpse with its empty arms seeming to clutch at the legs of the chair to keep itself from falling headlong. Round the body of the coat one saw the mark of the sword belt and the left coat tail was rubbed quite smooth by the sheath. The back of the coat was as dusty as a high road and the lieutenant geologist might have studied the tertiary deposits of the district on the edges of his much worn trousers. When the orderly came into the room with their dirty boots he could tell by the traces they left on the floor whether they had been walking over Eocene or Pleiocene formations. He was really more a geologist than a soldier but for the present he was a letter writer. He had pushed his spectacles up to his forehead sat with his pen at rest and looked out of the window.

Wondrak and Other Stories Stefan Zweig, 2009-01-06 Compulsion In the Snow and Wondrak all concern Zweig's strong anti-war feelings following the First World War. The artist Ferdinand central figure of Compulsion partly reflects

Zweig's own experience In The Snow tells of the plight of a group of Jews who freeze to death while trying to escape a medieval pogrom In Wondrak a woman disfigured since birth attempts to save her only child from being drafted into the military In this newly available English translation the reader discovers the essential humanist preoccupations of the author of Amok and Twenty four Hours in the Life of a Woman his compassion towards human suffering his horror of war and his faith in idealism generosity love values that can in an instant illuminate an entire existence Pushkin Collection editions feature a spare elegant series style and superior durable components The Collection is typeset in Monotype Baskerville litho printed on Munkens Premium White Paper and notch bound by the independently owned printer TJ International in Padstow The covers with French flaps are printed on Colorplan Pristine White Paper Both paper and cover board are acid free and Forest Stewardship Council FSC certified

The Age of Infidelity and Other Stories Valerie Sayers, 2020-06-03 In the spirit of Muriel Spark and Walker Percy The Age of Infidelity's eleven stories embrace the comic the absurd and the dead serious Faithless parents betray their children the young betray the old and lovers betray each other but somehow these characters cling to hope Aging white cheerleaders shout through an online megaphone remembering a time when racial equality seemed almost possible a teenager endures her father's abandonment as her mother's psychotic episodes pick up pace an old couple on the lam from the Constitutional Guard of the future hides out in a garage reminiscent of our consumerist past In an age many call post religious these characters want to believe in something but they're not always sure what that something is Set in landscapes from the small town South to New York City from a parched Midwest to a deserted Dublin these stories time travel from our Jim Crow past to an imagined future of warehouses for the aged where robots do the nursing With what the Washington Post describes as her distinctive brutal elegance Valerie Sayers writes playfully powerfully and musically These stories form an album riffing on our age the Age of Infidelity
