Nina Parish

Face Aux Verroux:

Henri Michaux Nina Parish, 2007 Henri Michaux is both a recognised poet and visual artist arguably one of the greatest double artists of the twentieth century This book presents the first detailed examination of a particular interdisciplinary aspect of his production namely the innovative experimentation with signs contained in four works Mouvements Par la voie des rythmes Saisir and Par des traits Questions arise concerning their literary and visual status as in their attempt to render interior rhythm and dynamism they occupy an interstitial space between writing and drawing between the book and the canvas between the Western alphabet and Chinese characters This study addresses these questions by analysing the conception production and reception of Michaux's signs and the literary and artistic contexts in which they were produced

Visible Writings Marija Dalbello, Mary Lewis Shaw, 2011 This vastly learned superbly illustrated collection has not a dull text within it I was enlightened and fascinated by every essay on every topic Visible Writings is a book to treasure Mary Ann Caws Distinguished Professor of English French and Comparative Literature The Graduate Center CUNY , Redefining Resistance Esther Rowlands, 2021-10-18 The study of resistance developed here by Dr Esther Rowlands consists of a fresh interrogation of the notion of resistance discourse Here for the first time this detailed study of selected wartime texts produced by Francis Ponge Benjamin Perret Henri Michaux and Antonin Artaud compiled between 1936 and 1946 presents a specific critique of resistance which investigates the possibility for opposition and subversion to take place without direct allusion to the object of resistance This investigation questions the criteria according to which literature is perceived as being resistant and suggests that historical and political referentiality may be deemed retaliative and reactionary thereby risking replication of the dominant order The relationship between language and power structures is elucidated through allusion to modern theorists Michel de Certeau Michel Foucault Ross Chambers and Françoise Proust The necessary framework for a study of the poetic voice draws upon aspects of the post structuralist work of Jacques Derrida and Gilles Deleuze incorporating specific theories expounded by the Surrealist leader André Breton The works of the above theorists are foundational to this new critique of poetic discourse which when applied by Dr Esther Rowlands to the wartime works of the four named writers suggests that language itself may be recognised as a locus of resistance This book is designed to be of interest both to undergraduates and to researchers studying Surrealism Second World War time Literature and Critical Theory

Subjective Writing in Contemporary Chinese Literature Jin Siyan, 2020-09-15 Translated from the original French publication this book provides a comprehensive analysis of 20th century Chinese literature and examines the relationship between Chinese literary theory and modernity The author surveys the work of leading writers including Zhang Ailing Beidao and Mu Dan The author seeks to answer some fundamental questions in the study of Chinese literary history such as How does contemporary Chinese literature go from historical narrative to the narrative of the I where rhythm and epic merge into writing and where the instinctive load of the rhythm substantiates the epic What are the steps and the forms of mediation that allow such a transition Is the subject the only agent of the transition What is its status What is the role of poetic language that led to the birth of the subject and which separates it from empiricism What are the difficulties faced by Chinese writers today Young Chinese writers set off in search of a totally new writing to rediscover subjectivity which is in no way limited to literature it also covers areas such as the law and the expression of the I confronted to an overpowering we 17-09-2025, 张其成 著
