God Roger Scruton,2012-03-08 Roger Scruton explores the place of God in a disenchanted world His argument is a response to the atheist culture that is now growing around us and also a defence of human uniqueness He rebuts the claim that there is no meaning or purpose in the natural world and argues that the sacred and the transcendental are real presences through which human beings come to know themselves and to find both their freedom and their redemption In the human face we find a paradigm of meaning And from this experience Scruton argues we both construct the face of the world and address the face of God We find in the face both the proof of our freedom and the mark of self consciousness One of the motivations of the atheist culture is to escape from the eye of judgement You escape from the eye of judgement by blotting out the face and this Scruton argues is the most disturbing aspect of the times in which we live In his wide ranging argument Scruton explains the growing sense of destruction that we feel as the habits of pleasure seeking and consumerism deface the world His book defends a consecrated world against the habit of desecration and offers a vision of the religious way of life in a time of trial In the Face of God Michael Horton,1996-09-23 Have modern believers grown too comfortable with God In response to the unbiblical mystical spirituality of our day Michael Horton calls for a return to the teaching of the Apostle Paul and the early church The result is a compelling picture of true spiritual intimacy with God The Face of God Paul
