This paper prepared by a team of evaluators includes in addition to the external evaluation a statement by Bernd Esdar Chairman of the Executive Director's group concerned with external evaluations, the summing up by IMF Managing Director Michel Camdessus of the Executive Board's discussion of the report, the terms of reference and the IMF staff's response to the evaluation. External Evaluation of the ESAF, 1998 Annual Report of the Executive Directors for the Fiscal Year International Monetary Fund, 1993 External Evaluation of IMF Economic Research Activities International Monetary Fund, 2000-04-11 This report commissioned by the Executive Board was prepared by a committee of academic economists. The paper also provides a brief overview of major institutional developments in Uganda's financial sector since 1993 with regard to the legal accounting and general regulatory framework in which financial institutions operate. Poverty and Social Impact Analysis in PRGF-Supported Programs Ms. Gabriela Inchauste, 2002-12-01 This paper aims to inform on the status of Poverty and Social Impact Analysis (PSIA) in IMF supported programs, detailing the results presented in the recent review of PRGF supported programs. The review showed that more needs to be done both in undertaking PSIA when necessary and in reporting the policy tradeoffs in program documents. Policy design should be continuously informed by the results of PSIA. Globalization for Development Ian Goldin, Kenneth Reinert, 2012-02-16 The book defines the big historical trends, identifies the main globalization processes: trade, finance, aid, migration, and ideas, and examines how each can contribute to economic development. Between Light and Shadow Mac Darrow,2003-03-20 Much has been written on the human rights relevance and impacts of the policies and activities of the World Bank and IMF or International Financial Institutions IFIs However while many of the human rights based critiques of the Bank and Fund purport to link broadly defined reforms with obligations under international human rights law rarely has this been carried out through a rigorous and in depth application of international legal rules governing the proper interpretation of the institutions mandates and rarely have the policy consequences and practical possibilities for human rights integration been explored in any detail These are the principal gaps that the present book aims to fill by reference to a sample of the IFIs most important and controversial contemporary activities
