Eyes On The Heart:

Eyes of the Heart Catherine Filloux, 2017-09-30 A collection of six plays by award winning playwright Catherine Filloux. Eyes of the Heart, Kidnap Road, Lemkin's House, Mary and Myra, Selma 65, and Silence of God. The plays have both national and international settings. Subjects include key figures in the history of human and civil rights, genocide crimes against women, international human rights law, U.S. Civil Rights Movement, and Women's Suffrage. SEVERAL OF THE REAL LIFE FIGURES IN FILLLOUX'S PLAYS: Ingrid Betancourt, Colombian politician and activist kidnapped by FARC revolutionary forces in 2002; Myra Bradwell, first U.S. woman lawyer instrumental in getting Mary Todd Lincoln released from an insane asylum in 1875; Raphael Lemkin, originator of the term genocide, activist lawyer and advisor on war crimes; Mary Todd Lincoln, widow of President Abraham Lincoln; Viola Liuzzo, Civil Rights activist murdered by the KKK in 1965; Pol Pot, head of the Khmer Rouge regime responsible for the deaths of nearly two million Cambodians; William Proxmire, U.S. senator advocate in Congress for the adoption of the International Convention for the Punishment of Genocide. The Eyes of the Heart Christine Valters Paintner, 2013-03-25 In this first book to explore photography as a spiritual practice from a Christian perspective, Christine Valters Paintner builds on the process of contemplative creativity she introduced online at Abbey of the Arts and in her book The Artist's Rule. She considers how a camera can help readers open the eyes of the heart. More than a book on photographic technique, Eyes of the Heart is about cultivating photography as a spiritual practice. Adapting the monastic practice of lectio divina, sacred reading, into a form of visio divina, sacred seeing, spiritual director and Benedictine oblate Christine Valters Paintner invites readers to a new way of viewing the world through the lens of a camera. Paintner guides readers through six themes connecting the medium of photography with the Christian spiritual life. Each theme provides a photographic journey in which the reader does not simply take images but receives images and learns to see with the eyes of the heart. Eph 1:18. Photos by the author are included. Eyes of the Heart Russell Haight, 2021-03-16 Growing up in a world shaped by science and technology, young people may easily lose sight of God. Or, as this book shows, their eyes of the heart can become opened like never before. With wit and insight, Russell Haight offers a model for unifying faith and science that does not compromise either good science or Christian convictions. In Eyes of the Heart: Seeing God in an Age of Science, Haight puts this model to the acid test by showing how it resolves long-standing and still-heated issues of creation and evolution. Compelling stories and clear explanations make this book appealing to a wide audience, including parents, youth workers, and young people themselves. The ideas are deep. Haight covers a lot of ground, from Einstein and Hawking to Augustine and Hildegard of Bingen. But the book's arguments are easy to follow, and its bite-size chapters are enjoyable to read. Eyes of the Heart Segun Julius, 2014-01-07 This book uses inspired words of the Holy Bible to purge the heart of faulty biblical teachings. It originates from a period when the Holy Spirit revealed to the author that many people within the body of Christ were following false teachings. As a result of accepting these false or anti-Christ teachings, their hearts, understandings, and priorities have been derailed from the original intent and purposes of God for their lives The intent of this book is to set worshipers back on the right path

The Senses of Scripture Yael Avrahami, 2012-06-15 The Senses of Scripture reveals the essence of biblical epistemology the ways in which ancient Israelites thought about and used their sensorium The theoretical introduction demonstrates that scholars need to liberate themselves from the Western bias that holds a pentasensory paradigm and prioritises the sense of sight The discussion of the biblical material demonstrates that biblical scholars should follow a similar path Through examination of associative and contextual patterns the author reaches a septasensory model including sight hearing speech kinaesthesia touch taste and smell It is further demonstrated that the senses according to the HB are a divinely created physical experience which symbolised human ability to act in a sovereign manner in the world Despite the lack of a biblical Hebrew term sense it seems that at times the merism sight and hearing serves that matter Finally the book discusses the longstanding dispute regarding the primacy of sight vs hearing and claims that although there is no strict sensory hierarchy evident in the text sight holds a central space in biblical epistemology
