Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another

Emily Dickinson Elizabeth Phillips,1988-01-01 Giving us a new sense of Dickinson it considers instead evidence of the poet Dickinson bore a heavy share of domestic duties and familial responsibilities throughout most of her life The crisis she experienced during the early 1860s in a cluster of responses to the Civil War coincided with the onset of her difficulties with her eyes Suffering from exotropia and photophobia she never fully recovered and gradually withdrew into the less severe light of the house in Amherst She continued to care for those close to her and to write both letters and verse From the perspective of Dickinson s maturity and resilience we also see her gift for depicting and dramatizing episodes in a manner that gives the illusion of their being autobiographical whether they are or not Dickinson was however an actress who changed roles and points of view as readily as she experimented with poetic genres Analyses of her various personae or supposed persons for dramatic monologues in the Browning tradition which enabled the poet to represent a range of experiences different from her own serve to dispel much of the confusion that has surrounded her in the last century Rather than searching for an illusive absent center Phillips scrutinizes in a most revealing way the poet s reading appropriation and command of materials from the Bront s George Eliot Hawthorne the Brownings Shakespeare and the Southey for personae that introduce us to a Dickinson heretofore hardly glimpsed A central vision of the study is the poet as a biographer of souls
