Predator Ander Monson,2022-09-06 A searching memoir of a life lived in the flicker of an action film by the author of I Will Take the Answer In his first memoir Ander Monson guides readers through a scene by scene exploration of the 1987 film Predator which he has watched 146 times Some fighters might not have time to bleed but Monson has the patience to consider their adventure one frame at a time He turns his obsession into a lens through which he poignantly examines his own life formed by mainstream white male American culture Between scenes Monson delves deeply into his adolescence in Michigan s Upper Peninsula and Riyadh his role as a father and the loss of his own mother and his friendships with men bound by the troubled camaraderie depicted in action and sci fi blockbusters Along with excursions into the conflicted pleasures of cosplay and first person shooters he imagines himself beside the poet and memoirist Paul Monette who wrote the novelization of the movie while his partner was dying of AIDS A sincere and playful book that lovingly dissects the film Predator also offers questions and critiques of masculinity fandom and their interrelation with acts of mass violence In a stirring reversal one chapter exposes Monson through the Predator s heat seeking vision asking him What do you know about the workings of the hidden world As Monson brings us into the brilliant depths of the film and its universe the hunt begins
