Michael Hofmann André Naffis-Sahely, 2025-03-26 For more than four decades Michael Hofmann has made significant contributions to the literary cultures of Germany the United Kingdom and the United States ranging from his original poetry to translations of Kafka Brecht Hans Fallada and Joseph Roth among others In the first book length study of this iconic figure poet and translator Andr Naffis Sahely surveys Hofmann s life and work with an emphasis on his poetry situating him within the New Generation of writers including Carol Ann Duffy Simon Armitage and Don Paterson who rose to prominence in Britain between the mid 1980s and the early 1990s Reaffirming Hofmann's central place in contemporary literature Naffis Sahely presents the author's oeuvre as an extended passport application as the poet's unusually peripatetic nature emerges as a poetic means of questioning various modes of authority Naffis Sahely examines Hofmann's chief literary influences revealing that while he was heavily inspired by the example of Robert Lowell's confessional model his work was equally shaped by other poetic mentors including Ian Hamilton and Hugo Williams In turn Hofmann's five published volumes of poetry from his debut Nights in the Iron Hotel to his latest collection One Lark One Horse published after a silence of two decades chronicle the poet's sentimental and intellectual education from adolescence to middle age as well as the traumatic emotional experiences that arose from his relationship with his father the German novelist Gert Hofmann whom the poet portrayed to shocking effect in his breakthrough second collection Acrimony Naffis Sahely concludes his study with an analysis of the influence Hofmann has exerted on other poets testifying to the value and importance of his work in the contemporary British tradition followed by an extensive interview reflecting on his career situated in one of the great port cities of Europe and the heavy gold Antiqua letters in which its banal name is spelled out shining across the roofs of the gently banked houses are in my eye metal flags metal bannerets that instead of fluttering shine out their greeting In the 1920s and 30s Joseph Roth travelled extensively in Europe leading a peripatetic life living in hotels and writing about the towns through which he passed Incisive nostalgic curious and sharply observed and collected together here for the first time his pieces paint a picture of a continent racked by change yet clinging to tradition From the compulsive exercise regime of the Albanian army the rickety industry of the new oil capital of Galicia and split and scalped houses of Tirana forced into modernity to the individual and idiosyncratic characters that Roth encounters in his hotel stays these tender and quietly dazzling vignettes form a series of literary postcards written from a bygone world creeping towards world war Twentieth-century English History Plays Niloufer Harben, 1988-01-01 The book offers the clearest definition yet of the history play its scope and its limits Historical drama is an extremely popular genre among 20th century English playwrights Yet the sheer size and complexity of the subject has until now prevented critics from attempting a clear definition Dr Harben provides a new and original perspective taking into account modern ideas of and attitudes to history The author examines the varying approaches to history taken by modern historians and playwrights and provides a detailed analysis of the historical source material of selected plays The study is supported with a wealth of vivid and provocative illustrations Historical and dramatic criticism is related to theatrical interpretation and experience This book therefore should prove valuable and interesting to the reader with a specialist interest in the field as well as to the more general reader
