Gish,1981-06-18 "My Rebellious and Imperfect Eye" ,2021-10-18 My Rebellious and Imperfect Eye Observing Geoffrey Grigson acknowledges and celebrates Geoffrey Grigson 1905 1985 as an all round man as a distinctive lyrical poet as the exact observer of nature and of men in the past and in the present as a pioneering literary critic and art critic as an unrivalled anthologist as a ground breaking editor as a broadcaster as a botanist the list could be extended In an unsurpassed number of diverse areas of artistic and natural culture Grigson passionately communicated all he experienced and felt to as wide an audience as possible Therefore as the centenary of his birth comes in view it seems singularly appropriate to celebrate Geoffrey Grigson's unique contribution to the twentieth century cultural scene In a writing career spanning nearly sixty years he was unmatched by any of his contemporaries for a range which reaches from the edges of journalism into and beyond the academic world In prose and verse the nineteen contributors to this volume amongst them some of the most distinguished names in contemporary English letters would hardly claim to have covered every aspect of Grigson's genius but they do manage to touch upon most of the territory he illuminated The volume contains a full bibliography of Grigson's work and a number of his drawings South Asian Writers in Twentieth-Century Britain Ruvani Ranasinha,2007-02-22 South Asian Writers in Twentieth Century Britain is the first book to provide a historical account of the publication and reception of South Asian anglophone writing from the 1930s to the present based on original archival research drawn from a range of publishing houses This comparison of succeeding generations of writers who emigrated to or were born in Britain examines how the experience of migrancy the attitudes towards migrant writers in the literary market place and the critical reception of them changed significantly throughout the twentieth century Ranasinha shows how the aesthetic cultural and political context changed significantly for each generation producing radically different kinds of writing and transforming the role of the postcolonial writer of South Asian origin The extensive use of original materials from publishers archives shows how shifting political academic and commercial agendas in Britain and North America influenced the selection content presentation and consumption of many of these texts The differences between writers of different generations can thus in part be understood in terms of the different demands of their publishers and expectations of readers in each decade Writers from different generations are paired accordingly in each chapter Nirad Chaudhuri 1897 1999 with Tambimuttu 1915 83 Ambalavener Sivanandan born 1923 with Kamala Markandaya born 1924 Salman Rushdie born 1947 with Farrukh Dhondy born 1944 and Hanif Kureishi born 1954 with Meera Syal born 1963 Raja Rao Mulk Raj Anand Attia Hosain V S Naipaul and Aubrey Menen are also discussed Larry Michael Haag, 2025-07-03

Forms Jessica Bundschuh, Irmtraud Huber, 2025-10-06 This Handbook of Poetic Forms aims to offer historically informed approaches to a wide variety of poetic forms A particular emphasis will be on considering poetic form in dialogue with the cultural context in which it is being used as well as within the literary tradition of each form and to explore the stable as well as the historically variable affordances of each form in such contexts Hereby the focus lies on prescriptive forms that is on poetic forms which are defined by or at least associated with specific metrical stanzaic or overall structures or the absence of such rather than poetic genres that are primarily characterised by similarities in subject matter like the elegy or the ode While this Handbook should be accessible to students its aim is not to offer basic introductions but rather to broaden a historical and functional understanding of the poetic forms it covers and to engage with poetic forms not as givens but as historically contingent processes of formation Above all this Handbook's formalism is new formalist in emphasising historical awareness and contextualisation      Ezra Pound: Poet A. David Moody, 2015-09-24 This third and final volume of A David Moody's critical life of Ezra Pound presents Pound's personal tragedy in a tragic time In this volume we experience the 1939 1945 World War and Pound's hubristic involvement in Fascist Italy's part in it we encounter the grave moral and intellectual error of Pound holding the Jewish race responsible for the war and his consequent downfall being charged with treason condemned as an anti Semite and shut up for twelve years in an institution for the insane Further we see Pound stripped for life by his own counsel and wife of his civil and human rights Pound endured what was inflicted upon him justly and unjustly without complaint and continued his lifetime's effort to promote in and through his Cantos and his translations a consciousness of a possible humane and just social order The contradictions run deep and compel as tragedy does a steady and unprejudiced contemplation and an answering depth of comprehension
