Fables From The Womens Quarters:

Fables from the Women's Quarters Claire Harris, 1984 Multimodality in Canadian Black Feminist Writing Maria Caridad Casas, 2009 This book develops a theory of multimodality the participation of a text in more than one mode centred on the poetry poetics of Lillian Allen Claire Harris Dionne Brand and Marlene Nourbese Philip How do these poets represent oral Caribbean English Creoles CECs in writing and negotiate the relationship between the high literary in Canadian letters and the social and historical meanings of CECs How do the latter relate to the idea of female and black Through fluid use of code and mode switching the movement of Brand and Philip between creole and standard English and written orality and standard writing forms part of their meanings Allen s eye spellings precisely indicate stereotypical creole sounds yet use the phonological system of standard English On stage Allen projects a black female body in the world and as a speaking subject She thereby shows that the implication of the written in the literary excludes her body s language as performance and she embodies her poetry to realize a language alternative to the colonizing literary Harris s creole writing helps her project a fragmented personality a range of dialects enabling quite different personae to emerge within one body Thus Harris Brand Philip and Allen both project the identity female and black and explore this social position in relation to others Considering textual multimodality opens up a wide range of material connections Although written this poetry is also oral if oral then also embodied if embodied then also participating in discourses of race gender sexuality and a host of other systems of social organization and individual identity Finally the semiotic body as a mode i e as a resource for making meaning allows written meanings to be made that cannot otherwise be expressed in writing In every case Allen Philip Harris and Brand escape the constraints of dominant media refiguring language via dialect and mode to represent a black feminist sensibility The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry Denise deCaires Narain, 2003-08-29 Contemporary Caribbean Women s Poetry provides detailed readings of individual poems by women poets whose work has not yet received the sustained critical attention it deserves These readings are contextualized both within Caribbean cultural debates and postcolonial and feminist critical discourses in a lively and engaged way revisiting nationalist debates as well as topical issues about the performance of gendered and raced identities within poetic discourse Newly available in paperback this book is groundbreaking reading for all those interested in postcolonialism Gender Studies Caribbean Studies and contemporary poetry New Selves, 2016-10-24 The aim of the following paper is an analyses of selected poems of Claire Harris and Olive Senior in regard of the theme that connects the poetic work of these two women writers identity At first glance it might come as quite a surprise to some readers that the literary artist Harris and Senior share a connection in their poetical exploration of themes However after having a short glance a commonalty between them will became apparent Due to the subject the essay is informed by concepts of feminism post colonialism and cultural studies in order to depict the different ways in which identity is addressed in their work Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 Gillian Holmes, 1999-06-01 Who's Who of Canadian Women is a guide to the most powerful and innovative women in Canada Celebrating the talents and achievement of over 3 700 women Who's Who of Canadian Women includes women from all over Canada in all fields including agriculture academia law business politics journalism religion sports and entertainment Each biography includes such information as personal data education career history current employment affiliations interests and honours A special comment section reveals personal thoughts goals and achievements of the profiled individual Entries are indexed by employment of affiliation for easy reference Published every two years Who's Who of Canadian Women selects its biographees on merit alone This collection is an essential resource for all those interested in the achievements of Canadian women The Black Prairie Archives Karina Vernon, 2020-02-19 The Black Prairie Archives An Anthology recovers a new regional archive of black prairie literature and includes writing that ranges from work by nineteenth century black fur traders and pioneers all of it published here for the first time to contemporary writing of the twenty first century This anthology establishes a new black prairie literary tradition and transforms inherited understandings of what prairie literature looks and sounds like It collects varied and unique work by writers who were both conscious and unconscious of themselves as black writers or as prairie people Their letters recipes oral literature autobiographies rap and poetry provide vivid glimpses into the reality of their lived experiences and give meaning to them The book includes introductory notes for each writer in non specialist language and notes to assist readers in their engagement with the literature This archive and its supporting text offer new scholarly and pedagogical possibilities by expanding the nation's and the region's archives They enrich our understanding of black Canada by bringing to light the prairies black histories cultures and presences Concert of Voices - Second Edition Victor J. Ramraj, 2009-08-17 Concert of Voices combines poetry fiction drama and essays in an anthology of world literature in English This second edition preserves the first edition's breadth and its balance of established and less widely known authors while including a large selection of exciting new material Biographical information and explanatory notes have been updated and expanded and new pieces by Cyril Dabydeen Vikram Seth Wole Soyinka Pauline Johnson Rudy Wiebe and many other authors have been added Fables for the Patriarchs Jowen R.

Tung,2000 Exploring issues of gender in Tang dynasty literature and culture Jowen R Tung draws on a comprehensive range of historical literary and social texts to unravel the complex mechanisms of one of the world s oldest patriarchal systems The author reveals the profound damage inflicted by the masculine state ideology on its subjects by illuminating the problematics of male sexuality under the hovering phallus of the emperor the construct of male and female psyches within the pseudo monogamous household the logic of the collective unconscious in the literati s writings and a female tradition desperately trapped inside the law of the father Tung poses urgent questions about a civilization that builds itself upon the sacrifice of human lives and arrives at a rather dark interpretation of the Tang_for many the epitome of the Chinese empire As such the book moves beyond the confines of gender studies to propose a heightened agenda for feminist studies which the author argues now stand at a critical conjecture

Women Re-Creating Classics Emily Hauser,Helena Taylor,2025-06-12 In the last few years there has been a major and unmissable surge in women s retellings and re creations of ancient myths and texts that has put women s re creations of Classics centre stage Drawing together an interdisciplinary range of creative and scholarly voices this volume asks why classical creative retellings by women are so popular now and considers what creativity can do to foster new ways of thinking and writing about Classics thus blurring the boundary between the creative and the critical Contributors engage with debates on how to make Classics more accessible through the medium of creative works so that it is not just a discipline for the select few This second volume in a two volume set brings together original creative work by some of the many women writers who are pushing forward changes in the landscape of re creating Classics from Madeline Miller to Jennifer Saint Emily Hauser Caroline Lawrence Roz Kaveney Nikita Gill Fiona Benson Anne Carson and many more These are set alongside discussions and interviews between writers and academics roundtable conversations among poets and critics and reflections on creative and inclusive pedagogy thus offering a cutting edge collaboration between practitioners and researchers and underlining the centrality of women s re creations of Classics to the contemporary shaping of the field
