Face Of Justice:

The American State Reports Abraham Clark Freeman, 1908 Distillations Mari Ruti, 2018-08-23 Distilling into concise and focused formulations many of the main ideas that Mari Ruti has sought to articulate throughout her writing career this book reflects on the general state of contemporary theory as it relates to posthumanist ethics political resistance subjectivity agency desire and bad feelings such as anxiety It offers a critique of progressive theory's tendency to advance extreme models of revolt that have little real life applicability The chapters move fluidly between several theoretical registers the most obvious of these being continental philosophy psychoanalytic theory Butlerian ethics affect theory and queer theory One of the central aims of Distillations is to explore the largely uncharted territory between psychoanalysis and affect theory which are frequently pitted against each other as hopelessly incompatible but which Ruti shows can be brought into a productive dialogue

Prevailing Justice Gloria Squires, 2013-05 What would you do if you woke up and found you were in someone else's life and that life was your worst nightmare Would you be able to hold back your fear and trust God especially when you could see angels and demons battling for your life as Janet is able She continues to bounce back and forth between her real life and this other horrible abusive life and she can't stop it from happening She's afraid to go to sleep because when she does she is back there again Janet begins to understand what is happening when the Angel named Justice comes to her and says Father wants her help to make right what horribly went wrong and see that justice prevails There are two little girls in danger and she needs to protect them above all else But what if it costs her her very own life
