From Captivity to Fame Or the Life of George Washington Carver Raleigh Howard Merritt,1929 George Washington Carver George Washington Carver,1987 A black man praised by white America George Washington Carver 1864 1943 was an anomaly in his own time Now available in paperback this choice selection of Carver s writings reveals the human side of the famous black scientist as well as the forces that shaped his creative genius George Washington Carver Linda O. McMurry,Linda McMurry Edwards,1981 She also sets out how these roles served both whites and blacks reminds the reader of Carver s personal and circumstantial reasons for not demurring and reaffirms in particular his impact on individuals prominent among whom was Southern radical Howard Kester viz Anthony Dunbar s Against the Grain above An intellectually satisfying study and no less an affecting biography George Washington Carver Christina Vella,2015-09-14 Christina Vella received a PhD in Modern European and U S history from Tulane University where she is a Visiting Professor A consultant for the U S State Department she lectures widely on historical and biographical topics The Industrial Student ,1925 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1996 The Gospel According to Elihu Moses Pollard,2022-11-15 In the biblical days there was not a man who was greater than Job Job was a very wealthy man with seven sons and three daughters he possessed more than anyone in the land of Uz Job was a man of God who lived a blessed life protected under God s divine power In the heavenly realm beyond the scope of Job s understanding there were conversations between God and Satan While God maintained great confidence in Job s ability to stay true to the faith He continued to allow Satan access to destroy the blessings which God had given him God s instruction to Satan was that he was allowed to do adverse things to Job but he was not allowed to take his life Job meanwhile was enjoying the good life unaware of Satan s plans to destroy him At once tragedy struck Job s life from all directions causing him to lose his children and his wealth in a short period of time While grieving over the loss of his loved ones and dealing with the realization that he was now destitute Job s health rapidly declined to a point of turning him into an emaciated relic of his former self While Job was suffering due to

undue duress from all of the calamities of his present world he could no longer feel the presence of God In the twenty third chapter of the book of Job we find that the main character is very distraught over the absence of God in his time of trouble Job said If only I knew where I could find God I would go where he lives Job begins to wonder if he will ever find God again Job said that he could not find God in the north south east or west Several of Job s friends came to visit him but would become a snare and a stumbling block in his life by their accusatory words against Job and the sovereignty of God These three men sat beside Job in his time of distress without offering any words of encouragement A young friend of Job listened intently over a period of days until finally he began to speak out against their ignorance about God s sovereignty and love of God toward His people Elihu brings a very different perspective into the discussion which changed Job s attitude toward God The Gospel According to Elihu is a look into how we sometimes view God from a very dim self righteous vantage point rather than from God s sovereign position In this book we will discover that because of God s supernatural advantage He sees all and knows all even when our eyes are blinded by the disguise of the earthly realm This book teaches us to trust God while we are going through tough times because behind the curtain blanketing our vision God is orchestrating it all If ever you have questioned God in any aspect of your life this book is a must read to help you understand His undying love and commitment to the preservation of His saints Elihu s message to saints today is so needed because it is truly good news for daily living It is good news for our peace of mind and comfort during loss It is a compass during feelings of hopelessness and a guide to steer us back on course and to do so while believing in God s sovereign power The Gospel or good news is that God does not lie and He has said that He will never leave us nor forsake us It is not God who brings about destruction in the lives of saints When trouble comes God has already given us the written word to combat any and all things naturally or supernaturally Yes there is good news and the good news is the gospel according to Elihu The Christian Advocate ,1898

Walker, 2014-08-20 Get some sense in your head some God in your heart some money in your pocket and a ballot in your hand This was a message by Walter Caldwell Robinson who became known as the Silver tongued Orator as he traveled the country making speeches to black audiences for the National Republican Committee beginning in 1926 Walter C Robinson was born the son of sharecroppers in Larkinsville Alabama in 1893 His family moved to Chattanooga Tennessee when he was nine years old At age 11 Walter worked a part time job in a foundry each morning before going to school By age 16 he was operating a laundry business of his own Walter married his childhood sweetheart and fathered seven children By age 21 he was a trustee in the Second Missionary Baptist Church Walter became interested in politics and was elected chairman of the powerful Fourth Ward the largest black voting precinct in Chattanooga at the time He eventually organized all the chairmen of black wards and formed the Colored Voters League of Greater Chattanooga. The league became so powerful that it could determine winners in local elections. Walter was chosen alternate delegate to the Republican National Convention each election from 1928 to 1963. Walter C. Robinson and the Colored Voters League supported H. D. Huffacker for commissioner of education in 1927. Huffacker won and gave Robinson a job as a truant officer for the Chattanooga Public School System. His office was located in city hall. Robinson's power and duties extended far beyond keeping black boys and girls in school. The hiring of teachers, janitors, and cooks in the black schools was determined by Robinson. He also recommended the filling of positions in other departments of the city. Robinson worked in this capacity until a candidate that he opposed was elected commissioner of education in 1935. In 1933, Walter began publishing a black weekly newspaper, the Chattanooga Observer. It was the purpose of his newspaper to express his views to benefit the Republican Party to defeat candidates in local elections felt by Robinson not to be in the best interest of black citizens and for the purpose of enlightening and unifying the black community. Walter continued to be elected chairman of the Fourth Ward until 1959. He served as chairman of the Colored Voters League until his death. He published the Observer for thirty-five years from 1933 to 1968. Walter Caldwell Robinson was a successful businessman, an outstanding orator, an astute politician, and a powerful leader. He labored in segregated Chattanooga during a time when the Ku Klux Klan was as revered as religion.
