English Fiction of the Victorian Period Michael Wheeler, 2014-01-14 Professor Wheeler's widely acclaimed survey of the nineteenth century fiction covers both the major writers and their works and encompasses the genres and minor fiction of the period This excellent introduction and reference source has been revised for this second edition to include new material on lesser known writers and a comprehensively updated bibliography Meredithiana Maurice Buxton Forman, 1924 George Meredith J.H.E. Crees, George Meredith, 1928 Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association, 1921 Includes both books and articles Book Bulletin of the Chicago Public Library Chicago Public Library, 1913 Victorian Fiction S. D Sharma, 2002 George Meredith James Harold Edward Crees, 1918 Jack Lindsay Anne Cranny-Francis, 2023-11-26 This book offers an in depth analysis of the work of prolific writer activist and publisher Jack Lindsay 1900 1990 It maps the development of his ideas across the twentieth century by reference to the five British writers about whom he published major studies William Blake John Bunyan Charles Dickens George Meredith and William Morris At the same time it maps the formation through the twentieth century of Left cultural politics which Lindsay repeatedly anticipated in areas such as the fundamental interconnectedness of human beings and the natural world the formative role of culture in both social and individual being the crucial role of the senses in embodied being and the rejection of mind body dualism Through his analysis Lindsay foretold both the social alienation and the environmental degradation that characterise the beginning of the twenty first century while his interdisciplinary research and transdisciplinary analysis provide models for how we might address these critical concerns The Yale Review George Park Fisher, George Burton Adams, Henry Walcott Farnam, Arthur Twining Hadley, John Christopher Schwab, William Fremont Blackman, Edward Gaylord Bourne, Irving Fisher, Henry Crosby Emery, Wilbur Lucius Cross, 1922 Victorian Poetry, 1967 William Gilmore Simms, 1857 Books Added Chicago Public Library, 1916 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne, 1899 Comic Faith Robert M. Polhemus, 1982-10 Polhemus sketches several distinctions between nineteenth and twentieth century novelists and concludes that what most characterizes the nineteenth century from the perspective of the twentieth is the tendency in its comic fiction to criticize and to undermine the dogma and institutions of religion and to put faith instead of the existence of the comic perspective Comic Faith is a virtuoso performance of impressive stature I suspect the book will be influential for many years to come John Halperin Modern Fiction Studies A Supplement to Allibone's Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors ... John Foster Kirk, 1891 A Critical Dictionary of English Literature, and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Middle of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1892 A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1899 The American Library Annual, 1915 The Return of King Arthur

Beverly Taylor, Elisabeth Brewer, 1983 The revival of interest in Arthurian legend in the 19th century was a remarkable phenomenon apparently at odds with the spirit of the age Tennyson was widely criticised for his choice of a medieval topic yet The Idylls of the King were accepted as the national epic and a flood of lesser works was inspired by them on both sides of the Atlantic Elisabeth Brewer and Beverly Taylor survey the course of Arthurian literature from 1800 to the present day and give an account of all the major English and American contributions Some of the works are well known but there are also a host of names which will be new to most readers and some surprises such as J Comyns Carr's King Arthur rightly ignored as a text but a piece of theatrical history for Sir Henry Irving played King Arthur Ellen Terry was Guinevere Arthur Sullivan wrote the music and Burne Jones designed the sets The Arthurian works of the Pre Raphaelites are discussed at length as are the poems of Edward Arlington Robinson John Masefield and Charles Williams Other writers have used the legends as part of a wider cultural consciousness The Waste Land David Jones's In Parenthesis and The Anathemata and the echoes of Tristan and Iseult in Finnigan's Wake are discussed in this context Novels on Arthurian themes are given their due place from the satirical scenes of Thomas Love Peacock's The Misfortunes of Elphin and Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court to T H White's serio comic The Once and Future King and the many recent novelists who have turned away from the chivalric Arthur to depict him as a Dark Age ruler The Return of King Arthur includes a bibliography of British and American creative writing relating to the Arthurian legends from 1800 to the present day

Thinking Without Thinking in the Victorian Novel Vanessa L. Ryan, 2012-06-07 In Thinking without Thinking in the Victorian Novel Vanessa L Ryan demonstrates how both the form and the experience of reading novels played an important role in ongoing debates about the nature of consciousness during the Victorian era Revolutionary developments in science during the mid and late nineteenth century including the discoveries and writings of Herbert Spencer William Carpenter and George Henry Lewes had a vital impact on fiction writers of the time Wilkie Collins George Eliot George Meredith and Henry James read contributions in what we now call cognitive science that asked what is the mind These Victorian fiction writers took a crucial step asking how we experience our minds how that experience relates to our behavior and questions of responsibility how we can gain control over our mental reflexes and finally how fiction plays a special role in understanding and training our minds Victorian fiction writers focus not only on the question of how the mind works but also on how it seems to work and how we ought to make it work Ryan shows how the novelistic emphasis on dynamic processes and functions on the activity of the mind rather than its structure or essence can also be seen in some of the most exciting and comprehensive scientific revisions of the understanding of thinking in the Victorian period This book studies the way in which the mind in the nineteenth century view is embedded not just in the body but also in behavior in social structures and finally in fiction
