Be the Architect of Your Inclusive Classroom Celia Oyler, Erika Hughes Hooper, Britt Hamre. Based on the authors' collaborative work with K-12 public school teachers, this practical book offers an invitation to create dynamic learning opportunities in classrooms designed to challenge and support to ALL learners. Because teaching contexts are always unique and shifting, we cannot rely primarily upon scripts, recipes, best practices, and prescribed curriculum. Rather, based on teachers' analysis of their own contexts, the authors describe and show how today's educators can curate strategies, curriculum, and methods to design a sustainable classroom architecture that maximizes student engagement, learning, and belonging. Attending to principles of culturally sustaining pedagogy, Universal Design of Learning, and backwards design, the text focuses on curriculum design, classroom behavior, and building relationships with students, colleagues, families, and communities. Readers will come to understand why this kind of teaching is both complex and inherently rewarding.

Book Features: Provides actionable tools to create classroom curriculum and practice that will improve learning and equity outcomes for all students. Stimulates collaborative dialogue through Fearless Inventories that invite teachers to examine their own practices that promote belonging and student success Uses a lens of critical inclusivity offering a bottom up and collegial approach to designing instruction Focuses on learning rather than compliance and belonging rather than ranking and sorting learners Includes numerous examples of teachers creating inclusive classrooms as central teaching points The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1986 Educom Review ,1994 Computing and communications in colleges and universities George Orwell, a Personal Memoir Tosco R.
