Georges Perec's Geographies Charles Forsdick, Andrew Leak, Richard Phillips, 2019-10-14 Georges Perec novelist filmmaker and essayist was one of the most inventive and original writers of the twentieth century A fascinating aspect of his work is its intrinsically geographical nature With major projects on space and place Perec's writing speaks to a variety of geographical urban and architectural concerns both in a substantive way including a focus on cities streets homes and apartments and in a methodological way experimenting with methods of urban exploration and observation classification enumeration and taxonomy Georges Perec's Geographies is the first book to offer a rounded picture of Perec's geographical interests Divided into two parts Part I Perec's Geographies explores the geographies within Perec's work in film literature and radio from descriptions of streets to the spaces of his texts while Part II Perecquian Geographies explores geographies in a range of material and metaphorical forms including photographic essays soundscapes theatre dance and writing created by those directly inspired by Perec Georges Perec's Geographies extends the body of Perec criticism beyond Literary and French Studies to disciplines including Geography Urban Studies Planning and Architecture to offer a complete and systematic examination of Georges Perec's geographies The diversity of readings and approaches will be of interest not only to Perec readers and fans but to students and researchers across these subjects Pictures Into Words Ari J. Blatt, 2012-05-01 The explosive proliferation of pictures in advertising and pop culture mass media and cyberspace following World War II along with the profusion of critical thinking that tries to make sense of it has had wide ranging implications for cultural production as such Pictures into Words explores how this proliferation of graphic images has profoundly affected narrative writing in France especially as Ari J Blatt argues the structure content and symbolic logic of contemporary French fiction By examining a specific corpus of narratives by authors Claude Simon Georges Perec Pierre Michon and Tanguy Viel books that originate amid conjure up and indeed are essentially about pictures Blatt addresses the most salient questions pertaining to the relationship between literature and visual culture today Each of the novels considered here engages the work of several postwar artists from Robert Rauschenberg Andy Warhol Vincent van Gogh and Orson Welles to Jeff Koons Joseph L Mankiewicz Pierre Huyghe and Marcel Duchamp As Blatt's cross disciplinary readings show despite their gleeful raiding of the visual archive to generate and enrich their stories many contemporary narratives that tell tales about pictures simultaneously express a cautious skepticism toward vision and visual representation Pictures into Words examines how such novels while seemingly complicit with the visual simultaneously write back against the images they exploit reclaiming some of literature's lost ground in our visually inundated world Jolted Images Pavle Levi, 2025-10-01 Jolted Images brings together a large cast of mainstream and avant garde cineastes artists photographers comics creators poets and more to reflect on a wide range of phenomena from the realms of cinema and visual culture in the Yugoslav region broader Europe and North America Far from a staid monograph the book takes a cue from filmmaker Dušan Makavejev who once wrote that there are times when it is necessary to jolt art no matter what the outcome to that end the book infuses its analysis with playful creative transfiguration of the material at hand Textual and Visual Selves Natalie Edwards, Amy L. Hubbell, Ann Miller, 2011-12-01 Autobiography in France has taken a decidedly visual turn in recent years photographs shown or withheld become evidence of what was might have been or cannot be said photographers filmmakers and cartoonists undertake projects that explore issues of identity Textual and Visual Selves investigates from a variety of theoretical perspectives the ways in which the textual and the visual combine in certain French works to reconfigure ideas and images of self representation Surprisingly what these accounts reveal is that photography or film does not necessarily serve to shore up the referentiality of the autobiographical account on the contrary the inclusion of visual material can even increase indeterminacy and ambiguity Far from offering documentary evidence of an extratextual self coincident with the I of the text these images testify only to absence loss evasiveness and the desire to avoid objectification However where Roland Barthes famously saw the photograph as a prefiguration of death in this volume we see how the textual strategies deployed by these writers and artists result in work that is ultimately life affirming Listening to Images Tina M. Campt, 2017-03-09 In Listening to Images Tina M Campt explores a way of listening closely to photography engaging with lost archives of historically dismissed photographs of black subjects taken throughout the black diaspora Engaging with photographs through sound Campt looks beyond what one usually sees and attunes her senses to the other affective frequencies through which these photographs register She hears in these photos which range from late nineteenth century ethnographic photographs of rural African women and photographs taken in an early twentieth century Cape Town prison to postwar passport photographs in Birmingham England and 1960s mug shots of the Freedom Riders a quiet intensity and quotidian practices of refusal Originally intended to dehumanize police and restrict their subjects these photographs convey the softly buzzing tension of colonialism the low hum of resistance and subversion and the anticipation and performance of a future that has yet to happen Engaging with discourses of fugitivity black futurity and black feminist theory Campt takes these tools of colonialism and repurposes them hearing and sharing their moments of refusal rupture and imagination Original Copies in Georges Perec and Andy Warhol Priya Wadhera, 2016-11-28 Priya Wadhera s Original Copies in Georges Perec and Andy Warhol is the first book to explore striking similarities between the works of these celebrated figures of the twentieth century Copies abound in Perec s uvre where pastiches paintings and intertexts dialogue with the history of copying in the past and present in literature and in art Both here and in Warhol s works the source of the copies is difficult to pinpoint shrouded in a fog linked to death This remarkable parallel provides insight into their widely admired works and a postmodern aesthetic where the original is stripped of its value and the copy reigns supreme In this study of the original and the copy Wadhera illuminates the nature of art itself Writing and the Image Today Jan Baetens, Ari J. Writing the Image After Roland Barthes Jean-Michel Rabate, Jean-Michel Rabaté, 2012-05-23 In the final stages of his career Roland Barthes abandoned his long standing suspicion of photographic representation to write Camera Lucida at once an elegy to his dead mother and a treatise on photography In Writing the Image After Roland Barthes Jean Michel Rabat and nineteen contributors examine the import of Barthes s shifting positions on photography and visual representation and the impact of his work on current developments in cultural studies and theories of the media and popular culture

Photo-texts Andy Stafford, 2010-01-01 What do photographs want Do they need any accompaniment in today s image saturated society Can writing inflect photography or vice versa in such a way that neither medium takes precedence Or are they in constant inexorable battle with each other Taking nine case studies from the 1990s French speaking world from France North Africa and the Caribbean this book attempts to define the interaction between non fictional written text caption essay fragment poem and photographic image Having considered three categories of intermediality between text and photography the collaborative the self collaborative and the retrospective the book concludes that the dimensions of their interaction are not simple and two fold visibility versus alongside textuality but threefold and therefore complex Thus the photo text as defined here is concerned as much with orality the demotic the popular the vernacular as it is with visual and written culture That text image collaborations give space to the spoken spectral traces of human discourse suggests that the key element of the photo text is its radical provisionality

The Literary Life of Pictures Michele Cometa, 2024-07-15 This book offers a theory of ekphrasis the literary description of an artwork from the perspective of Visual Culture studies A theory of ekphrasis must take into account not only the rhetorical strategies articulated in the description of artworks but also the complex interplay that holds together the pictures that are described the gazes that rest on them and the dispositives that mediate them It is therefore a matter of linking the study of the verbal rhetoric with the dynamics that are established between the author the reader and the visual artworks real or fictive as well as the performative aspects of description and the mediascapes that from time to time condition the gaze and the visual experience of the authors and the readers This book proposes thus to consider both the intradiegetic aspects of description and the extradiegetic ones that condition its verbal texture Following the rhetorics of ekphrasis throughout the Western tradition from its origins in Philostratus its reappraisal by Johann Joachim Winckelmann to the twentieth century avant garde this book shows how ekphrastic techniques are historically determined by the relationship between pictures gazes and dispositives Literary Memory, Consciousness, and the Group Oulipo Peter Consenstein, 2021-11-08 The question of memory intrigues us more and more as industrialized societies move further and further away from the written word In the past the role of memory was integral to literary history precise mnemonics served as the support systems for erudition and Mnemosyne was mother of the Muses The group Oulipo born in reaction to the Surrealists proposes invents and applies novel literary constraints Using memory and best of all conscious memory as a theoretical starting point the implications of writing under constraint are analyzed First writing under constraint is viewed as a new mnemonics second the spiritual component of such a practice is shown to redefine a notion of inspiration third constraints and their relationship with games and society is highlighted finally the manner in which they build a literary consciousness is studied through the lenspiece of contemporary neurobiological research For the first time the work of the group Oulipo and the member s emphasis on the function of literature is placed in historical cultural and philosophical context Editing the Image Mark Cheetham, Elizabeth Legge, Catherine M. Soussloff, 2008-11-29 The editing process is a vital part of virtually every form of media Primarily associated with texts and written language editing is equally essential if less examined in regard to visual media Editing the Image looks at the editing of visual media as both a series of technical exercises and as an allegory It touches on concerns that are crucial to the history of art and visual culture as well as those media and institutions that produce and disseminate the visual arts in our society Featuring contributors from a wide range of disciplines Editing the Image considers editing in the context of academic journals art historical texts illustrated books museum displays and exhibitions It is an inclusive analysis of visual forms commonly associated with the process of editing photography film and video as well as some that are not intrinsically linked to editing painting sculpture and architecture In addition to wide ranging academic considerations this collection includes discussions of moving picture media and studio art by practitioners giving the study a practical focus For anyone who has considered the implications of the editorial process this work will be of significant interest Exploratory Image Databases Simone Santini, 2001-09-05 The explosion of computer use and internet communication has placed new emphasis on the ability to store retrieve and search for all types of images both still photo and video images The success and the future of visual information retrieval depends on the cutting edge research and applications explored in this book It combines the expertise from both computer vision and database research Unlike text retrieval and text numeric databases the challenges of image databases are enormous How do you use data mining to search for an image if you do not have key words to search Exploratory Image Databases introduces the idea that it is possible to solve this problem by merging database systems into a single search and browse activity called exploration Exploratory Image Databases is one of the first single author books that unifies the critical emerging topic of image databases A new approach to image databases the work is divided into four central parts introduction to the problems that image database research must solve computer vision and information retrieval techniques image database issues and interface and engines for visual searches Example Imagine the difficulty of building and using a database for face recognition where an image of a face is used In order to effectively use the image a huge number of characteristics would need to be entered in the database The goal of future image databases is to use hardware and software to recognize and categorize images without typing in characteristics Comprehensive coverage of the image analysis as well as the database theoretical aspects of image databases Extensive coverage of interfaces and interaction models with a theoretical framework for the development of new interaction schemes Identifies three interaction models between users and image databases two of which have no counterpart in traditional databases Coverage of the relation between image and text including mixed search models and the automatic determination of the relation between images and text on large corpuses like the web Analysis of the process of signification in images and its influence on the interaction models and technological problems of image databases

Image and Territory Jennifer Burwell, Monique Tschofen, 2007 In a culture that often understands formal experimentation or theoretical argument to be antithetical to pleasure Atom Egoyan has nevertheless consistently appealed to wide audiences around the world If films like The Adjuster Calendar Exotica and The Sweet Hereafter have ensured him international cult status as one of the most revered of all contemporary directors Egoyan's forays into installation art and opera have provided evidence of his versatility and confirmed his talents Throughout his career Atom Egoyan has shown himself to possess the rarest kind of singularity As Jonathan Romney puts it Egoyan's preoccupations and tropes have been so consistent that he's practically created his own genre³ 1995 8 Hrag Vartanian adds 2Egoyanesque has become a word to film aficionados commonly understood to mean a cinematic moment that examines sexuality technology and alienation in the modern world³ 2004 For this singularity Egoyan is widely hailed as a true auteur someone carrying on the legacy of the European art house traditions of Bergman Godard and Truffaut Certainly his work bears a most recognizable signature there is no confusing an Egoyan work with anyone else's Like his art house predecessors Egoyan clearly intends that his work be as Dudley Andrew puts it 2read rather than consumed 3 that is viewed meditatively reflected upon and discussed 2000 24 And indeed in this world in which filmmaking has become commonplace where as Egoyan has said 2what used to be a rarified activity is now available to anyone with a digital camera and a computer³ 2001b 18 he intends through much of his work to recall an earlier image culture in which artists had an ability to produce something that gained its power precisely through its rarity

The Future of Text and Image Ofra Amihay, Lauren Walsh, 2012-01-17 The question of the relation between the visual and the textual in literature is at the heart of an increasing number of scholarly projects and in turn the investigation of evolving visual verbal dynamics is becoming an independent discipline This volume explores these profound literary shifts through the work of twelve talented and in some cases emerging scholars who study text and image relations in diverse forms and contexts The inter medial conjunctures investigated in this book play with and against the traditional roles of the visual and the verbal The Future of Text and Image presents explorations of the incorporation of visual elements into works of literature of visual writing modes and of the textuality and literariness of images. It focuses on the special potential literature offers for the combination of these two functions. Alongside examinations of major forms and genres such as memoirs, novels and poetry, this volume expands the discussion of text and image relations into more marginal forms, for instance collage books, the PostSecret collections of anonymous postcards and digital poetry. In other words, while exploring the destiny of text and image as an independent discipline, this volume simultaneously looks at the very literal future of text and image forms in an ever-changing technological reality. The essays in this book will help to define the emergent practices and politics of this growing field of study and at the same time reflect the tremendous significance of the visual in today's image culture.

Ethical Materialities in Art and Moving Images Silke Panse, 2024-12-26 Starting from the premise that after modernism and postmodernism in the Anthropocene, an artwork cannot rest upon its separation from the planet, this volume develops new ethical practice and thought with respect to art, philosophy and moving images. Practitioners and theorists examine how the relations between the ethical and the material figure in a context in which a dearth of ethical practice and thought has caused the materialities of the Anthropocene and the climate catastrophe. Ethics are generally regarded as constituted through immaterial relations guided by moral imperatives. By contrast, this volume argues that the singular ethicalities that are manifested in a work cannot be captured by abstract ethics. The explorations of the ethical here are not prescriptive but creative. Through artistic and philosophical thought and practice, the contributions move beyond the division between an active practice of ethics and a contemplative theory of aesthetics. They ask what ethicalities and materialities are at play in the relations between the artist, the art, their worlds and the planet after new materialism and posthumanism. Rather than transcending the ethical through the material or the material through the ethical, the contributions articulate the singular relations between them and consider the inter and intra-active ethical and material relations of art and images in biodiverse environments. They suggest that to bring out the ethical dimensions of the material and the material dimension of the ethical without identifying one with the other is a responsibility of art and images.

Image, Eye and Art in Calvino Birgitte Grundtvig, 2017-07-05 Few recent writers have been as interested in the cross-over between texts and visual art as Italo Calvino. 1923-85. Involved for most of his life in the publishing industry, he took as much interest in the visual as in the textual aspects of his own and other writers' books. In this volume, twenty international Calvino experts, including Barenghi, Battistini, Belpoliti, Hofstadter, Ricci, Scarpa and others, consider the many facets of the interplay between the visual and textual in Calvino's works, from the use of colours in his fiction to the influence of cartoons, from the graphic qualities of the book covers themselves to the significance of photography and landscape in his fiction and non-fiction. The volume is appropriately illustrated with images evoked by Calvino's major texts.
