Georgia And The Union In 185:

Georgia and the Union in 1850 ... Richard Harrison Shryock,1926 Georgia and the Union in 1850 Richard Harrison Shryock,1968 Directory of forest tree seed orchards in the United States ,1982 Parties, Slavery, and the Union in Antebellum Georgia Anthony Gene Carey,2012-02-01 At the heart of Georgia s secession from the Union in 1861 were two ideological cornerstones the protection of white men s liberty and the defense of African slavery Anthony Gene Carey argues in this comprehensive analytical narrative of the three decades leading up to the Civil War In Georgia broad consensus on political essentials restricted the range of state party differences and the scope of party debate but Whigs and Democrats battled intensely over how best to protect Southern rights and institutions within the Union The power and security that national party alliances promised attracted Georgians but the compromises and accommodations that maintaining such alliances required also repelled them By 1861 Carey finds white men who were out of time fearful of further compromise and compelled to choose acted to preserve liberty and slavery by taking Georgia out of the Union Secession the ultimate expression of white unity flowed logically from the values attitudes and antagonisms developed during three decades of political strife Gwinnett County, Georgia, and the Transformation of the American South, 1818-2018 Michael Gagnon,Matthew Hild,2022-07-15 In Gwinnett County s two hundred years the area has been western southern rural suburban and now increasingly urban Its stories include the displacement of Native peoples white settlement legal battles over Indian Removal slavery and cotton the Civil War and the Lost Cause New South railroad and town development Reconstruction and Jim Crow business development and finance in a national economy a Populist uprising and Black outmigration the entrance of women into the political arena the evolution of cotton culture the development of modern infrastructure and the transformation from rural to suburban to a multicultural urbanizing place Gwinnett as its chamber of commerce likes to say has it all However Gwinnett has yet to be the focus of a major historical exploration until now Through a compilation of essays written by professional historians with expertise in a diverse array of eras and fields Michael Gagnon and Matthew Hild s collection finally tells these stories in a systematic way avoiding the pitfalls of nonprofessional local histories that tend to ignore issues of race class or gender While not claiming to be comprehensive this book provides general readers and scholars alike with a glimpse at Gwinnett through the ages The History of the State of Georgia from 1850 to 1881 Isaac Wheeler Avery,1881 Official Guide of the Railways and Steam Navigation Lines of the United States, Porto Rico, Canada, Mexico and Cuba ,1923 Reassessing Security in the South Caucasus Annie Jafalian,2011 Lying on the periphery of Europe Russia Turkey and Iran the South Caucasus is receiving growing attention among decision makers and scholars of international relations It acts as a corridor for oil and gas imports whose stability has become part of European security itself This volume reassesses security in the South Caucasus Cherokees and Baptists in Georgia Robert Granville Gardner,1989 Georgia Women Ann Short Chirhart,Betty Wood,2009 This first of two volumes extends from the founding of the colony of Georgia in 1733 up to the Progressive era From the beginning Georgia women were instrumental in shaping the state yet most histories minimize their contributions The essays in this volume include women of many ethnicities and classes who played an important role in Georgia s history Though sources for understanding the lives of women in Georgia during the colonial period are scarce the early essays profile Mary Musgrove an important player in the relations between the Creek nation and the British Crown and the loyalist Elizabeth Johnston who left Georgia for Nova Scotia in 1806 Another essay examines the near mythical quality of the American Revolution era accounts of Georgia s War Woman Nancy Hart The later essays are multifaceted in their examination of the way different women experienced Georgia s antebellum social and political life the tumult of the Civil War and the lingering consequences of both the conflict itself and Emancipation After the war both necessity and opportunity changed women s lives as educated white women like Eliza Andrews established or taught in schools and as African American women like Lucy Craft Laney who later founded the Haines Institute attended school for the first time Georgia Women also profiles reform minded women like Mary Latimer McLendon Rebecca Latimer Felton Mildred Rutherford Nellie Peters Black and Martha Berry who worked tirelessly for causes ranging from temperance to suffrage to education The stories of the women portrayed in this volume provide valuable glimpses into the lives and experiences of all Georgia women during the first century and a half of the state s existence Historical figures include Mary Musgrove Nancy Hart Elizabeth Lichtenstein Johnston Ellen Craft Fanny Kemble Frances Butler Leigh Susie King Taylor Eliza Frances Andrews Amanda America Dickson Mary Ann Harris Gay Rebecca Latimer Felton Mary Latimer McLendon Mildred Lewis Rutherford Nellie Peters Black Lucy Craft Laney Martha Berry Corra Harris Juliette Gordon Low

Empire and Belonging in the Eurasian Borderlands Krista A. Goff, Lewis H. Siegelbaum, 2019-04-15

Empire and Belonging in the Eurasian Borderlands engages with the evolving historiography around the concept of belonging in the Russian and Ottoman empires The contributors to this book argue that the popular notion that empires do not care about belonging is simplistic and wrong Chapters address numerous and varied dimensions of belonging in multiethnic territories of the Ottoman Empire Imperial Russia and the Soviet Union from the mid nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries They illustrate both the mutability and the durability of imperial belonging in Eurasian borderlands Contributors to this volume pay attention to state authorities but also to the voices and experiences of teachers linguists humanitarian officials refugees deportees soldiers nomads and those left behind Through those voices the authors interrogate the mutual shaping of empire and nation noting the persistence and frequency of coercive measures that imposed belonging or denied it to specific populations deemed inconvenient or incapable of fitting in The collective conclusion that editors Krista A Goff and Lewis H Siegelbaum provide is that nations must take ownership of their behaviors irrespective of whether they emerged from disintegrating empires or enjoyed autonomy and power within them
