Southern Writers at Century's End Jeffrey J. Folks,James A. Perkins,2021-12-14 Since the end of World War II the South has experienced a greater awareness of growth and of its accompanying tensions than other regions of the United States The rapid change that climaxed with the war in Vietnam the Cold War civil rights demonstrations and Watergate has forced the traditional South to come to terms with social upheaval As the essays collected in Southern Writers at Century's End point out southern writing since 1975 reflects the confusion and violence that have characterized late twentieth century public culture These essays consider the work of twenty one of the foremost southern writers whose most important fiction has appeared in the last quarter of this century As the region s contemporary writers have begun to gain a wide audience critics have begun to distinguish what Hugh Holman has called the fresh the vital and the new in southern literary culture Southern Writers at Century s End is the first volume to take an extensive look at the current generation of southern writers Authors considered include James Lee Burke Fred Chappell Robert Drake Andre Dubus Clyde Edgerton Richard Ford Kaye Gibbons John Grisham Barry Hannah Mary Hood Josephine Humphreys Randall Kenan Richard Marius Bobbie Ann Mason Cormac McCarthy Tim McLaurin T R Pearson Lee Smith Anne Tyle r Alice Walker and James Wilcox THE VOICES FROM THE

Home Voices Mark Lucas, 1991-01-01 In the decades following World War I the American South was the locus of a starburst of creative activity: the Southern Literary Renaissance. Paradoxically, the same South that produced much of the greatest American literature of this century has also long had one of the worst literacy rates in the country. But the recent adult literacy movement is making important inroads, and many of the South's nonreaders, with the help of literacy projects springing up throughout the region, are now learning to read. As reward and encouragement, why not put these newly literate adults in touch with the acclaimed storytelling art of their region? This is the idea behind Home Voices, an anthology selected especially for adult new readers. The literacy students and tutors who served as editorial advisors for Home Voices demanded works uncomplicated enough in diction and sentence structure for people relatively new to reading, yet rich enough in substance for people not at all new to life. From James Weldon Johnson's rousing verse sermon "The Creation" to a harrowing excerpt from Olive Ann Burns's Cold Sassy Tree, the six works in this volume bridge the gap between simplicity of language and complexity of vision. The selections are diverse, ranging from the quiet intensity of an excerpt from James Still's River of Earth to the broad comedy of Flannery O'Connor's "The Life You Save May Be Your Own." Home Voices is the sixth in the series New Books for New Readers, acclaimed for a style, vocabulary, and sentence structure that neither talk down nor pose too much difficulty, yet appeal to adult tastes. British Mysteries Collection: The Complete 7 Novels & Detective Story Ethel Lina White, 2015-07-05 This carefully crafted ebook, British Mysteries Collection: The Complete 7 Novels & Detective Story, is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents. Ethel Lina White (1876-1944) was a British crime writer best known for her novel The Wheel Spins, on which the Alfred Hitchcock film The Lady Vanishes was based. Set in early 20th-century England on the Welsh border, the novel tells the story of a serial killer who murders disabled young women in the community. His next victim apparently is Helen, a mute girl working as a maid for the wealthy bedridden Mrs. Warren. Mrs. Warren urges her to leave the house, as does Dr. Parry, who knows the reason for Helen's loss of speech and hopes to help her get her voice back. Fear Stalks the Village: Series of poison pen letters cause panic in a small, quiet English village, and soon after the murders start happening. As the fear arises, Joan Brooks, who used to live a peaceful life, is forced to act fast in order to save the lives of her loved ones and her own. She Faded into Air: The story of the alleged disappearance of Evelyn Cross was too fantastic for credence. According to the available evidence, she melted into thin air shortly after four o'clock on a foggy afternoon in late October. One minute she was visible in the flesh, a fashionable blonde, nineteen years of age and weighing about eight and a
