Georgia O'Keeffe Georgia O'Keeffe, 1978      Georgia O'Keeffe, Photographer Lisa Volpe, Ariel Plotek, 2021-11-16 A groundbreaking introduction to the photographic work of an iconic modern artist The pathbreaking artist Georgia O'Keeffe 1887-1986 is revered for her iconic paintings of flowers skyscrapers animal skulls and Southwestern landscapes Her photographic work however has not been explored in depth until now After the death of her husband the photographer Alfred Stieglitz in 1946 photography indeed became an important part of O'Keeffe's artistic production She trained alongside the photographer Todd Webb revisiting subjects that she had painted years before landforms of the Southwest the black door in her courtyard the road outside her window and flowers O'Keeffe's carefully composed photographs are not studies of detail or decisive moments rather they focus on the arrangement of forms This is the first major investigation of O'Keeffe's photography and traces the artist's thirty-year exploration of the medium including a complete catalogue of her photographic work Essays by leading scholars address O'Keeffe's photographic approach and style and situate photography within the artist's overall practice This richly illustrated volume significantly broadens our understanding of one of the most innovative artists of the twentieth century

Through the Long Desert: Georgia O'Keeffe and Frank Lloyd Wright Sarah Rovang, 2025-09-09 A richly illustrated exploration of newfound connections between American cultural icons Georgia O'Keeffe and Frank Lloyd Wright This groundbreaking volume places the artist and architect side by side shedding light on their lives work and mutual love of the American desert Georgia O'Keeffe and Frank Lloyd Wright were neither competitors nor direct collaborators Yet these romantic heroes of twentieth-century art and architecture largely operated in parallel In this seminal book Rovang weaves together their compelling life stories examining newly discovered links between them and in the process offering a fresh perspective on their work their intermittent yet poignant friendship and their closeness to the desert Starting in 1933 O'Keeffe and Wright exchanged roughly two dozen letters in which they expressed admiration for one another but also their passion for the places that informed them many of which they had in common Both were born in rural Wisconsin and built their careers in Chicago and New York However both sought inspiration and fulfillment in places farther afield including in Japan and the desert landscape of the American Southwest Juxtaposing images highlighting shared aspects of their individual biographies and work this unique take on American creative expression explores the nature of artistic friendship and the idea of home Rovang's text gives rich context to the allure and romance of her visual subject offering readers new ways to appreciate O'Keeffe's and Wright's monumental contributions to American culture

Duncan and Marjorie Phillips and America's First Museum of Modern Art Pamela Carter-Birken, 2021-07-06 He was born to privilege and sought the world of art She lived at the center of that world a working artist encouraged by the famous artists in her extended family Together Duncan Phillips and Marjorie Acker Phillips founded The Phillips Collection in Washington D.C. the first museum of modern art in America It opened in the grand Phillips family home in 1921 eight years before New York City

s Museum of Modern Art and only a few weeks after they wed Duncan took the lead in developing the collection and showcasing it Marjorie kept space and time to paint Duncan considered Marjorie a partner in the museum even though she was not directly involved in all purchasing and presentation decisions To him her influence was omnipresent Although Duncan s writings on artists and art history were widely published he chose not to provide much instruction for visitors to the museum Instead he combined signature methods of displaying art which live on at The Phillips Collection Phillips had viewers in mind when he hung American art with European art or art of the past with modern art and he frequently rearranged works to stimulate fresh encounters With unfettered access to archival material author Pamela Carter Birken argues that The Phillips Collection s relevancy comes from Duncan Phillips s commitment to providing optimal conditions for personal exploration of art In depth collecting of certain artists was one of Phillips s methods of encouraging independent thinking in viewers Paintings by Pierre Bonnard Arthur Dove Georgia O Keeffe John Marin Jacob Lawrence and Mark Rothko provide testament to the power of America s first museum of modern art
