Story Writing in a Nursing Home Martha A John, 2014-04-08 Based on the belief that older people have good stories to tell Story Writing in a Nursing Home was developed as part of a volunteer teaching service to a nursing home Graduate students who were learning to teach this special population conducted story writing activities with older adults and found that even the frail elderly who are confined to nursing centers provided a unique perspective about events that emphasize the lasting verities in life The idea of a patchwork was derived from one of the lessons taught and was suggested by one of the older participants who said We re sort of like a patchwork quilt The information memories and humor the elderly see in situations is worth recording In addition Story Writing in a Nursing Home emphasizes the way to develop the mental stimulation that is so important for physical well being This sensitive and insightful book provides a lesson plan outline and the type of content that was used as an example It also provides a running commentary in the form of a diary that tells how to begin a teaching program for nursing center residents Students and professionals interested in implementing a similar program can use these ideas for planning and for organizing the use of student help to better serve the population Fascinating reading this book includes stories by frail elderly people lesson plans tips on working with administrators in a nursing center and reasons for providing instruction Teachers volunteers librarians gerontology sociology students and others concerned with the well being of the elderly will refer often to this instructive volume

The Adult Learner Malcolm S Knowles, Elwood F Holton III, Richard A Swanson, 2012-05-31 A great update of a classic Should be required reading for anyone involved with adult learning in schools businesses and communities Sam Stern Professor Dean School of Education Oregon State University USA How do you tailor education to the learning needs of adults Do they learn differently from children How does their life experience inform their learning processes These were the questions at the heart of Malcolm Knowles pioneering theory of andragogy which transformed education theory in the 1970s The resulting principles of a self directed experiential problem centred approach to learning have been hugely influential and are still the basis of the learning practices we use today Understanding these principles is the cornerstone of increasing motivation and enabling adult learners to achieve This update of a pioneering classic contains all Knowles original chapters alongside a newer second part by Elwood Ed Holton and Richard A Swanson charting the advancements on these core principles A third section includes selected readings from previous editions to illustrate the theory s evolution as well as important articles from other key experts around the world for a comprehensive view This new edition includes New chapter outlines learning objectives and careful edits of Malcolm Knowles work to simplify the original theory Updates to the second part to reflect the very latest advancements in the field. Revisions throughout to make it more readable and relevant to your practices. If you are a specialist or student in education, an adult learning practitioner, training manager, or involved in human resource development, this is the definitive book in adult learning you shouldn't be without. The Adult Learner Malcolm Shepherd Knowles, 2011. How do you tailor education to the learning needs of adults? Do they learn differently from children? How does their life experience inform their learning processes? These were the questions at the heart of Malcolm Knowles' pioneering theory of andragogy, which transformed education theory in the 1970s. Gerontological Nursing Kristen L. Mauk, 2013-03-15. Important Notice: The digital edition of this book is missing some of the images or content found in the physical edition. Gerontological Nursing: Competencies for Care, Second Edition is a comprehensive and student-accessible text that offers a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to caring for the elderly. The framework for the text is built around the Core Competencies set forth by the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) and the John A. Hartford Foundation Institute for Geriatric Nursing. Building upon their knowledge in prior medical/surgical courses, this text gives students the skills and theory needed to provide outstanding care for the growing elderly population. This innovative text is the first of its kind to have over 40 contributing authors from many different disciplines. Some of the key features of the text include chapter outlines, learning objectives, discussion questions, personal reflection boxes, case studies, and more. New Trends in Foreign Language Teaching Raúl Ruiz Cecilia, António Lopes, 2019-01-15. Language teaching approaches, methods, and procedures are constantly undergoing reassessment. New ideas keep emerging as the growing complexity of the means of communication and the opportunities created by technology put language skills to new uses. In addition, the political, social, and economic impact of globalisation, the new demands of the labour market that result from it, the pursuit of competitiveness, the challenges of intercultural communication, and the diversification of culture have opened new perspectives on the central role that foreign languages have come to play in the development of contemporary societies. This book provides an insight into the latest developments in the field and discusses the new trends in foreign language teaching in four major areas: namely, methods and approaches, teacher training, innovation in the classroom, and evaluation and assessment. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Prison Education Erin S. Corbett, 2024-10-03. Finalist PROSE Awards 2025. Education Theory and Practice. Written by activists and scholars based in Australia, Kenya, Pakistan, New Zealand, South Africa, Uganda, and the USA, The Bloomsbury Handbook of Prison Education offers the first global state-of-the-field overview of research into educational practices and programs in prisons. It covers the history of the field and puts forward future directions for research. The range of topics covered includes discussions of how gender, race, sexuality, indigeneity, age, and faith impact incarceration rates around the world; educational leadership; STEM education; creative writing programs; distance learning; abolition education; after prison; and education for correctional staff. The book includes a Foreword by Donald Sawyer III, Vice President of Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging at Fairfield University, USA.
