German Women Writers of the Twentieth Century is an anthology of German women writers of the twentieth century and includes English translations of their German language short stories. These short stories provide an insight into their creators' literary achievement and give some impression of the great variety and scope of their work. Comprised of 16 chapters, this volume begins with a short story by Ricarda Huch 1864-1947 entitled Love, followed by another story entitled The Wife of Pilate by Gertrud von Le Fort 1876-1971. The remaining chapters present short stories by Elisabeth Langgässer 1899-1950, Anna Seghers 1900-1985, Marie Luise Kaschnitz 1901-1974, Luise Rinser 1911-1991, Ilse Aichinger 1921-1992, Barbara Knie 1925-1992, Ingeborg Bachmann 1926-1973, Christa Reinig 1926-1992, Christa Wolf 1929-1993, Gabriele Wohmann 1932-1993, Helga Novak 1935-1993, Gisela Elsner 1937-1993, Elisabeth Meylan 1937-1993, and Angelika Mechtel 1943-1993. This monograph will be of interest to students, scholars, and authors who wish to know more about German literature in general and the work of German women writers in particular. German Women's Writing in the Twenty-first Century Hester Baer, Alexandra Merley Hill, 2015. Essays in this volume rethink conventional ways of conceptualizing female authorship and re-examine the formal, aesthetic, and thematic terms in which German women's literature has been conceived. A History of Women's Writing in Germany, Austria and Switzerland Jo Catling, 2000-03-23. This volume makes the wide-ranging work of German women writers visible to a wider audience. It is the first work in English to provide a chronological introduction to and overview of women's writing in German-speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day. Extensive guides to further reading and a bibliographical guide to the work of more than 400 women writers form an integral part of the volume, which will be indispensable for students and scholars of German literature and all those interested in women's and gender studies. Women and Achievement in Nineteenth-Century Europe Linda L. Clark, 2008-04-17. A history of European women's professional activities and organizational roles between 1789 and 1914. The Women Writers in Schiller's Horen Janet Besserer Holmgren, 2007. This work examines the integral role that six female authors played in Schiller's ambitious literary journal Die Horen 1795-97. Louise Brachmann, Friederike Brun, Amalie von Imhoff, Sophie Mereau, Elisa von der Recke, and Caroline von Wolzogen helped put the journal back on track when it floundered fiscally and programmatically, and their literary contributions were among the most successful the journal ever received. Beyond a critical discussion of the women's publications in Schiller's journal, this work addresses the range of problems associated with women's writing and publishing during the late eighteenth century: the aesthetics of Weimar Classicism, Schiller, and to a lesser degree, Goethe as patrons, and the interpretation of literary history. Women in German Yearbook Women in German Yearbook, 1995-06-01. Women in German Yearbook volume 13 opens with essays by Herta and Paul Amirani. A History of Women's Writing in Russia Adele Marie Barker, Jehanne M. Retrospect and Review Robert Atkins, Martin Kane, 2023-12-18 In Retrospect and Review an international team of scholars explore East German literature and the circumstances of its production in the last phase of the German Democratic Republic s existence The provocative claim of the novelist playwright and essayist Christoph Hein Ich nehme au erdem f r mich in Anspruch elfmal das Ende der DDR beschrieben zu haben serves as the starting point for the twenty three contributors to the volume who consider the many and varied ways in which Hein and his fellow writers signalled and diagnosed the demise of the GDR The fraught relationship between the state and its intellectuals inevitably forms a consistent theme in the studies of writers as diverse as Anna Seghers and Kito Lorenc Christa Wolf and Jurek Becker or Irmtraud Morgner and Heiner M ller However the process of retrospect and review also reveals the innovative and independent minded character of the culture of the GDR s later years Several contributors trace the emergence of a strong and distinctive women s writing which increasingly and subversively imposed itself on the hitherto patriarchal literary landscape of the GDR And in the literature of the 1970s and 1980s experimental narrative strategies take on a political role as a counter discourse to a stubbornly inflexible political order

Borderwork Margaret R. Higonnet, 2018-03-15 The first book to assess the impact of feminist criticism on comparative literature Borderwork recharts the intellectual and institutional boundaries on that discipline and calls for the contextualization of the study of comparative literature within the areas of discourse culture ideology race and gender
