German Poetry A Critical Anthology:

German poetry Robert Marcellus Browning, 1962      German Poetry Robert Marcellus Browning, 1962      Anna Hubbard: Out of the Shadows Mia Cunningham, Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1967 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December      International Anthologies of Literature in Translation Harald Kittel, 1995-01-01      Paradox, Aphorism and Desire in Novalis and Derrida Clare Kennedy, 2008 Building on recent investigations into affinities between early German Romanticism and French post structuralism this study brings together the work of Jacques Derrida with the writings of one of early Romanticisms most important theorists Friedrich von Hardenberg 1772 1801 better known as Novalis In contrast to recent criticism which traces the historical path from Romanticism to modern theory in broad strokes this book undertakes comparative readings of Novalis and Derridas texts on literature and philosophy The book focuses on the significance both writers accord to paradox and argues that readings which are attuned to paradox can better appreciate the proximity of Romanticism and post structuralism As well as their affirmation of paradox the texts of Novalis and Derrida testify to a profound respect for the Other and the close readings of selected texts reveal remarkable similarities in their thinking on literature philosophy and representation and on the intricate interrelation between language identity and desire      The Jews and British Romanticism S. Spector, 2016-04-30 Expanding the perspective initiated by British Romanticism and the Jews History Culture Literature 0 312 29522 7 this volume explores more deeply the complexities inherent in the relationship between the British and Jewish cultures as initiated in the Romantic Period in England though extending to the present in the Middle East      Mind's World Alexander M. Schlutz, 2010-05-01 Winner of the 2009 International Conference on Romanticism s Jean Pierre Barricelli Award for the best book in Romanticism studies As the mental faculty that mediates between self and world mind and body the senses and the intellect imagination is indispensable for modern models of subjectivity From Ren Descartes s Meditations to the aesthetic and philosophical systems of the Romantic period to think about the subject necessarily means to address the problem of imagination In close readings of Descartes Kant Fichte Hardenberg Novalis and Coleridge and with a sustained return to the origins of the discourse about imagination in Greek antiquity Alexander Schlutz demonstrates that neither the unity of the subject itself nor the unity of the philosophical systems that are based on it can be conceptualized without recourse to imagination Yet philosophers like Descartes and Kant must deny imagination any such foundational role because of its dangerous connection to the body the senses and the unruly passions which threatens the desired autonomy of the rational subject The modern subject is simultaneously dependent upon and constructed in opposition to imagination and the resulting ambivalence about the faculty is one of the fundamental conditions of modern models of subjectivity Schlutz s readings of the Romantic poet philosophers Coleridge and Hardenberg highlight that also their texts are not free of fears about the faculty s disruptive potential and its connection to the body

While imagination is now openly enlisted to produce the aesthetic unity of subjectivity it still threatens to unravel and destroy a subject that needs to keep the body and its desires at bay in order to secure its rational and moral autonomy The dark abyss of a self not in control of its thoughts feelings and desires is not overcome by the philosophical glorification of the subject's powers of imagination Hoffman's Index to Poetry Herbert H. Hoffman, 1985 No descriptive material is available for this title Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections--retrospective Marietta Chicorel, 1975 The Palgrave Handbook of German Idealism M. Altman, 2017-12-01 The Palgrave Handbook of German Idealism features essays from leading scholars on German philosophy It is the most comprehensive secondary source available covering not only the full range of work by Kant Fichte Schelling and Hegel but also idealists such as Reinhold and Schopenhauer critics such as Jacobi Maimon and the German Romantics Syncopeations Jed Rasula, 2004-05-18 An analysis of the sustaining vitality behind contemporary American poetry from 1975 to the 2003 these 12 essays examine both exemplary innovators and the social context in which innovation is resisted acclaimed or taken for granted Discordant Melody Lorraine Gorrell, 2002-09-30 Esteemed by many of his most distinguished contemporaries including Arnold Schoenberg Alexander Zemlinsky 1871-1942 was a protégé of Brahms and Mahler Despite this he was overshadowed by the composers of the second Viennese school and for many years after his death was remembered merely as the brother-in-law of Schoenberg But with centenary celebrations of Zemlinsky's birth scholars began a careful examination of his works and realized they had discovered a forgotten master Zemlinsky's wonderful melodic gift was manifested in operas choral works chamber music and symphonic pieces but was realized most fully in his more than one hundred songs In this important new study the first such work in English Lorraine Gorrell focuses on these songs revealing the ways in which they represented a bridge between the 19th century romantic lied and the 20th century avant-garde Of interest to scholars studying both the German art song and the development of the second Viennese school Gorrell's work uses Zemlinsky's songs as a lens through which to examine an important highly influential musical figure Monatshefte Für Deutsche Sprache und Pädagogik, 1966

Imperialist Imagination Sara L. Friedrichsmeyer, Sara Lennox, Susanne M. Zantop, 2025-10-01 Race relations are a controversial topic in today's Germany Have Germans learned from the past How far back must one go to understand the tensions prejudices and strategies that have marked race relations in the recently unified nation The Imperialist Imagination explores the German preoccupation with racial and ethnic differences throughout the past two centuries in a colonial and postcolonial context Germany's belated national unification in 1870 its short colonial period 1884-1918 and the loss of its colonies as a consequence of World War I rather than through wars of liberation generated very different colonial and postcolonial conditions from those in Britain and France This volume's sixteen essays investigate how as a consequence of these conditions Germans imagined their relationship to racial and ethnic others how they supported and contested colonization during the colonial period how their colonial fantasies fed into the Nazis racial and expansionary policies after

Philosophical Romanticism Nikolas Kompridis, 2006-09-27 Philosophical Romanticism is one of the first books to address the relationship between philosophy and romanticism an area which is currently undergoing a major revival This collection of specially written articles by world class philosophers explores the contribution of romantic thought to topics such as freedom autonomy and subjectivity memory and imagination pluralism and practical reasoning modernism scepticism and irony art and ethics and cosmology time and technology While the roots of romanticism are to be found in early German idealism Philosophical Romanticism shows that it is not a purely European phenomenon the development of romanticism can be traced through to North American philosophy in the era of Emerson and Dewey and up to the current work of Stanley Cavell and Richard Rorty The articles in this collection suggest that philosophical romanticism offers a compelling alternative to both the reductionist tendencies of the naturalism in analytic philosophy and deconstruction and other forms of scepticism found in continental philosophy This outstanding collection will be of interest to those studying philosophy literature and nineteenth and twentieth century thought

The Myth and Identity of the Romantic Artist in European Literature Elena Anastasaki, 2022-08-04 This study addresses the question of artistic identity and the myth of the artist as it has been shaped by the artists themselves While the term artist is to be understood in a broad sense the focus of this study is the literature of the Romantic tradition Identity is largely perceived as a construct and a central hypothesis of this book concerns its aesthetic value and the ways it creates dominant narratives of self perception that produce powerful myths The construction of the artist s identity be it collective or personal rests on a series of aesthetic praxes Caught between the mythic idealisation of poetic genius and its social devaluation the Romantic artist seeks to create a place for himself and in doing so he engages in his own mythmaking This process is studied in an interdisciplinary perspective approaching texts and writers from different traditions The study analyses various typologies of the artist numerous mythmaking strategies as well as several postural techniques all of which have sketched major direct or indirect fictional self portraits in the European tradition

The Mediatization of War and Peace Christoph Cornelissen, Marco Mondini, 2021-02-08 During the First World War mass media achieved an enormous and continuously growing importance in all belligerent countries Newspaper illustrated magazines comics pamphlets and instant books fictional works photography and the new born theater of imagery the cinema were crucial in order to create a heroic vision of the events to mobilize and maintain the consensus on the war But their role was pivotal also in creating the image of the war s end and finally together with a widespread new literary genre the war memoirs to shape the collective memory of the conflict for the next generations Even before November 1918 the media raised high expectations for a multifaceted peace a new global order the beginning of a peaceful era the occasion for a regenerating apocalypse Likewise in the following decades particularly war literature and cinema were pivotal to reverse the icon of the Great War as an epic crusade and a glorious chapter of the national history and to create the hegemonic image of a senseless carnage The Mediatization of War and Peace focalizes on the central role played by mass media in the tortuous transition to the post war period as well as on the profound disenchantment generated by their prophecies
