Georg Trakl

Georg Trakl:

Poems and Prose Georg Trakl, 2005 An undeniable aura surrounds the name of Georg Trakl a poet of intense inner vision and originality whose work stands alongside that of Yeats Valery and T S Eliot The distinctive tone of Trakl's work especially admired by his patron Ludwig Wittgenstein is autumnal and melancholy Trakl was writing at a time of spiritual and social disintegration on the eve of the First World War when personal values and perceptions tended to be subsumed in a more generalized anguish and exaltation

Surrender to Night Georg Trakl, 2019-09-17 A new translation by acclaimed poet Will Stone of the visionary Austrian poet Georg Trakl In Georg Trakl's brief tragic life he produced a body of work of intense visual power Dense imagistic and full of unnerving symbolism his poems occupy a critical place in German Expressionism Until his death on the Eastern Front in 1914 Trakl honed a singular poetic voice to express the horror he saw in the world around him culminating in the starkly powerful war poems for which he is best known This edition includes all of Trakl's major poems alongside a judicious selection of the best of his uncollected work all rendered in vividly clear English by translator and poet Will Stone With a biography a critical introduction and a chronology of Trakl's life this collection promises to reinvigorate interest in this under appreciated poet

Georg Trakl's Poetry Richard Detsch, 1991-01-18 The chaotic mixture of elements in Trakl's poems is more apparent than real this book argues thus challenging the Orphic view of Walther Killy and his followers A dream of unity one of the most ancient dreams in human history is in fact reflected in all of Trakl's work The recurring themes in Trakl's poetry are brought into focus through Dr Detsch's literary psychological and philosophical analysis the union of male and female in incest from the Jungian standpoint the union of life and death from the Heideggerian standpoint and that of German Romanticism as represented by Novalis the union of good and evil from the Dostoyevskian or Nietzschean standpoint the mixture of images from the Goethean definition of symbolism Trakl 1887 1914 is presented as a poet whose lyric voice sounded a cry of hope in its deepest despair As Dr Detsch's generous quotations from the poet's work in the original German make clear Georg Trakl sought poetic expression for a union of opposites

Song of the West Georg Trakl, 1988 The influential German poet presents forty seven poems characterized by an intensely personal point of view and a deeply psychological nature and presented in both English and German

The Gentle Apocalypse Richard Millington, 2020 Like much German language poetry of the years preceding the First World War the poems of Georg Trakl 1887 1914 are imbued with a sense of historical crisis but what sets his work apart is the mildness and restraint of his images of universal disintegration Trakl typically couched his vision of the end of days in images of migrating birds abandoned houses and closing eyelids making his poetry at once apocalyptic rustic and intimate The argument made in this study is that this vision amounts to a unitary worldview with tightly interwoven affective ethical social historical and cosmological dimensions Often termed hermetic and obscure Trakl's poems become more accessible when viewed in relation to the evolution of his methods and concerns across different phases and the idiosyncrasies of his strangely beautiful later works make sense as elements of a sophisticated system of expression committed to truth as a transcendental order Through close readings of poems covering the span of his lyric output this study traces the evolution of Trakl's distinctive style and themes while attending closely to biographical and cultural contexts Richard Millington is Senior Lecturer in German at Victoria University of Wellington Aotearoa New Zealand He is the author of Snow from Broken Eyes Cocaine in the Lives and Works of Three Expressionist Poets 2012 6 Poems by Georg Trakl (1889-1914) Georg Trakl, Hopkins Center.
