Someone a long time ago kept monkeys there chained to the stakes Monkeys Was this some kind of suburban legend A third mystery came to light at closing when a building inspectors letter contained a reference to the house having had at one time a different address Why would the house have had another address Her curiosity aroused and intent upon finding the facts Brackbill gradually peeled back layers of history allowing the house and the land to tell their stories and uncovering a past inextricably woven into four centuries of American history At the same time she found thirty two owners across 350 years who had just one thing in common ownership of a particular parcel of land An Uncommon Cape not only tells the story of an eight year odyssey of fact finding and speculation but also answers the broader question What came before and through material presented in twenty two sidebars offers readers

Life Before Stratford Amelia Hall, 1990-01-06 By the time Amelia Hall died suddenly in December 1984 she had become one of Canada's most respected and well loved actresses In this book she has left an incomparable record of her early years in the professional theatre in Canada In particular these memoirs chronicle the history of the Canadian Repertory Theatre of Ottawa one of the first professional repertory theatres in Canada Under Amelia Hall's direction in the late forties and early fifties the CRT gave a start to the careers of such notable Canadian actors as Christopher Plummer Eric House William Hutt Ted Follows and William Shatner In these days of long running corporate subsidized extravaganzas it is instructive to read of the struggles and accomplishments of these pioneers of theatre in Canada performing weekly repertory on a shoestring budget with few facilities and minuscule salaries Yet it was these enthusiasts who provided the basis for the flowering of the Canadian theatrical scene in the 1960s and 1970s It is appropriate that these memoirs should culminate in Amelia Hall's portrayal of the Lady Anne in Richard III opposite Alec Guinness at the first Stratford Festival in 1953 making her the first Canadian and the first woman to speak on the Stratford stage This book is lavishly illustrated with photographs from Amelia Hall's personal collection now housed at the National Archives of Canada

Why do people build furniture or houses plant trees solve problems dig up bones from ancient ruins or invent Each of us is distinct with individualized aptitudes for myriad explorations As God created is it possible we emulate it in His honor I do not believe we are here to concentrate on one particular creative expression Live long enough and we vacillate from this to another My resume is diverse and varied As much as creativity dominates my life so too does my family In my first book Body Mime and Soul When Actions Speak Louder Than Words I cover my artistic bent and training My intention this time is to further talk about my experience as a full time father and husband It is not a how to book I present ideas and philosophies I have come to embrace How many lives are touched because I have shared some of who I am What I have learned is to inspire more parents to be contributing guides for their children It follows that your importance in your child's life will resound for a hundred years And I will have contributed to the world by being important to my children in a definite way a hundred years hence Whatever lasting consequence I had as an entertainer in making an audience think or laugh pales to raising my children Ken Alcorn it is rare for an American author to discover such a natural astute philosophical tone as Mr Alcorn finds himself underpinning As a reader you find yourself connecting to the psychological and philosophical acumen of every passage Ken Alcorn introduces This is reason alone for foreseeable readers to trust the arrival of this author Frederick Smith Canada Writer Book Critic Berlin Germany
