George Cukor A Double Life:

George Cukor Patrick McGilligan, 2013-02-01 One of the highest paid studio contract directors of his time George Cukor was nominated five times for an Academy Award as Best Director In publicity and mystique he was dubbed the women s director for guiding the most sensitive leading ladies to immortal performances including Greta Garbo Ingrid Bergman Judy Garland and in ten films among them The Philadelphia Story and Adam s Rib his lifelong friend and collaborator Katharine Hepburn But behind the women s director label lurked the open secret that set Cukor apart from a generally macho fraternity of directors he was a homosexual a rarity among the top echelon Patrick McGilligan s biography reveals how Cukor persevered within a system fraught with bigotry while becoming one of Hollywood s consummate filmmakers George Cukor

Patrick McGilligan, 2013 One of the highest paid studio contract directors of his time and dubbed the women s director George Cukor was five times nominated for an Academy Award as Best Director and he was a homosexual a rarity among the top echelon Patrick McGilligan s biography reveals how Cukor persevered within a system fraught with bigotry while becoming one of Hollywood s consummate filmmakers George Cukor Murray Pomerance, 2015-07-07 George Cukor is one of the studio era s most famous and admired directors with many of the American cinema s most beloved classics to his credit including The Women Gaslight Adam s Rib A Star is Born and My Fair Lady to his credit Not himself a scriptwriter he was particularly adept at choosing which properties to adapt and then managing the adaptation process with verve and effectiveness What makes for a good adapter for a talented master of ceremonies who knows where to put everything and everybody including the camera Who knows how to make a property his own even while enhancing the value it has as belonging to someone else The essays in this volume provide a series of complementary answers to those questions Though many of his films are celebrated Cukor has hitherto not received appropriate critical attention Cukor s interest in the various forms of indoor cinema lacked the generic focus of Ford s westerns and Hitchcock s thrillers His style was theatricality writ large a successful transference to the screen of what he had learned from his successful Broadway career including the outsized often flamboyant handling of emotionality Yet Cukor was also a man of the cinema fascinated by the ever developing potentials of his adopted medium as shown by the more than fifty films he directed in a career that endured from the early sound era into the 1970s What Price Hollywood? Elyce Rae Helford, 2020-06-23 During the early

Hollywood sound era studio director George Cukor produced nearly fifty films in as many years famously winning the Best Director Oscar at the 1964 Academy Awards for My Fair Lady His collaborations with so called difficult actresses such as Katharine Hepburn Judy Garland and Marilyn Monroe unsettled producers even as his ticket sales lined their pockets Fired from Gone with the Wind for giving Vivien Leigh more screen time than Clark Gable Cukor quickly earned a double sided reputation as a woman s director While the label celebrated his ability to help actresses deliver their best performances the epithet also branded the gay director as suitable only for work on female centered movies such as melodramas and romantic comedies Desperate for success after a failed drag film nearly ended his career Cukor swore to work within Hollywood's constraints Nevertheless What Price Hollywood Gender and Sex in the Films of George Cukor finds that Cukor continued to explore gender and sexuality on screen Drawing on a broad array of theoretical lenses Elyce Rae Helford examines how Cukor's award-winning films titles including My Fair Lady and The Philadelphia Story as well as his lesser-known films engage Hollywood masculinity and gender performativity through camp drag and mixed genres Blending biography with critical analysis of more than twenty-five films What Price Hollywood tells the story of a once-in-a-generation director who produced some of the best films in history George Cukor's People Joseph McBride, 2024-12-17 The director of classic films such as Sylvia Scarlett The Philadelphia Story Gaslight Adam's Rib A Star Is Born and My Fair Lady George Cukor is widely admired but often misunderstood Reductively stereotyped in his time as a woman's director a thinly veiled disparaging code for gay he brilliantly directed a wide range of iconic actors and actresses including Cary Grant Greta Garbo Spencer Tracy Joan Crawford Marilyn Monroe and Maggie Smith As Katharine Hepburn the star of ten Cukor films told the director All the people in your pictures are as goddamned good as they can possibly be and that's your stamp In this groundbreaking lavishly illustrated critical study Joseph McBride provides insightful and revealing essayistic portraits of Cukor's actors in their most memorable roles The queer filmmaker gravitated to socially adventurous subversively rule-breaking audacious dreamers who are often sexually transgressive and gender fluid in ways that seem strikingly modern today McBride shows that Cukor's seemingly self-effacing body of work is characterized by a discreet way of channeling his feelings through his actors He expertly cajoled actors usually gently but sometimes with bracing harshness to delve deeply into emotional areas they tended to keep safely hidden Cukor's wry wit his keen sense of psychological and social observation his charm and irony and his toughness and resilience kept him active for more than five decades in Hollywood George Cukor's People gives him the in-depth multifaceted examination his rich achievement deserves Conversations with the Great Moviemakers of Hollywood's Golden Age at the American Film Institute George Stevens, Jr., 2007-02-13 ONE OF THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER'S 100 GREATEST FILM BOOKS OF ALL TIME The first book to bring together interviews of master moviemakers from the American Film Institute's renowned seminars Conversations with the Great Moviemakers offers an unmatched history of American cinema in the words of its greatest practitioners Here are the incomparable directors Frank Capra Elia Kazan King Vidor David Lean Fritz Lang I learned only from bad films William Wyler and George Stevens renowned producers and cinematographers celebrated screenwriters Ray Bradbury and Ernest Lehman as well as the immortal Ingmar Bergman and Federico Fellini Making a movie is a mathematical operation It's absolutely impossible to improvise Taken together these conversations offer uniquely intimate access to the thinking the wisdom and the genius of cinema's most talented pioneers Laurette Taylor, American Stage Legend Lynn Kear, 2014-01-10 How did Laurette Taylor 1884-1946 become America's most celebrated actress What training and experience led to her first stage success Peg o My Heart in 1912 How did her failed 1920s silent film career influence her stage technique What was so remarkable about her portrayal of Amanda Wingfield in the original 1945 Broadway production of The Glass Menagerie that many actors and critics have proclaimed her performance as the greatest they have ever seen before or since How did alcoholism affect her career And why has it been so difficult to tell her story on stage and screen This biography offers fascinating new insights into the life and craft of Loretta Taylor Included is a very short play written by the actress entitled The Dying Wife Edmond O'Brien Derek Sculthorpe, 2018-10-18 One of the most versatile actors of his generation Edmond O'Brien made a series of iconic noir films From a man reporting his own murder in D.O.A. 1949 to the conflicted title character in The Bigamist 1953 he portrayed the confusion of the postwar Everyman His memorable roles spanned genres from Shakespeare to westerns and comedies he also turned his hand to directing He won the Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor as the harassed press agent Oscar Muldoon in Joseph Mankiewicz's bitter Cinderella fable The Barefoot Contessa 1954 This first in depth study of O'Brien charts his life and career from Broadway to Hollywood and to the rise of television revealing a devoted family man dedicated to his craft

British Masculinity in Transatlantic Cinema Carolyn Owen-King, 2024-12-12 British Masculinity in Transatlantic Cinema explores the Hollywood careers and stardom of British male actors who had fought in the first World War In an apparently incongruous development in the years after the armistice some of the men who fought in Scottish regiments during World War I found some degree of career success in Hollywood's film industry two of which included Ronald Colman and Basil Rathbone Through exploring transatlantic film history this book uncovers the ways in which these men were presented in media and on screen arguing that they carry with them even in films made at the height of censorship an appealing and attractive queerness Owen King expands on Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick's theory of homosocial homosexual continuum and offer readings of film texts that use her theories to survey gender and sexual identities within Hollywood's Golden Era

Out of the Shadows Gene D. Phillips, 2012 Out of the Shadows explores the most celebrated examples of film noir such as Laura The Maltese Falcon and Sunset Boulevard but also offers new insight into underrated films that deserve reconsideration including Spellbound A Double Life

Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism, 1946-1959 Jon Cowans, 2015-05-15 The first transnational history of cinema s role in decolonization Using popular cinema from the United States Britain and France Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism 1946 1959 examines postwar Western attitudes toward colonialism and race relations Historians have written much about the high politics of decolonization but little about what ordinary citizens thought about losing their empires Popular cinema provided the main source of images of the colonies and according to Jon Cowans in this far reaching book films depicting the excesses of empire helped Westerners come to terms with decolonization and even promoted the dismantling of colonialism around the globe Examining more than one hundred British French and American films from the post World War II era Cowans concentrates on movies that depict interactions between white colonizers and nonwhite colonial subjects including sexual and romantic relations Although certain conservative films eagerly supported colonialism Cowans argues that the more numerous liberal colonialist productions undermined support for key aspects of colonial rule while a few more provocative films openly favored anticolonial movements and urged internal decolonization for people of color in Britain France and the United States

Combining new archival research on the films production with sharp analysis of their imagery and political messages the book also assesses their reception through box office figures and newspaper reviews It examines both high profile and lesser known films on overseas colonialism including The King and I Bhowani Junction and Island in the Sun and tackles treatments of miscegenation and internal colonialism that appeared in Westerns and American films like Pinky and Giant The first truly transnational history of cinema s role in decolonization this powerful book weaves a unified historical narrative out of the experiences of three colonial powers in diverse geographic settings
