 Borden,2014-07-29 Atlanta is running out of water and is in the midst of a water crisis Its crumbling infrastructure spews toxic waste and raw sewage into neighboring streams A tri state water war between Alabama Florida and Georgia has been raging since 1990 with Atlanta caught in the middle however the city s problems have been more than a century in the making In Thirsty City Skye Borden tells the complete story of how Atlanta s water ran dry Using detailed historical research legal analysis and personal accounts she explores the evolution of Atlanta s water system as well as charts the poor urban planning decisions that led to the city s current woes She also uncovers the loopholes in local state and federal environmental laws that have enabled urban planners to shirk responsibility for ongoing water quantity and quality problems From the city s unfortunate location to its present day debacle Thirsty City is a fascinating and highly readable account that reveals how Atlanta s quest for water is riddled with shortsighted decisions unchecked greed political corruption and racial

Hamann,2003-09-30 This is the tale of the origin emergence and transformation of an unorthodox binational partnership the Georgia Project that brought a Mexican university to aid a Georgia school district that suddenly found itself hosting thousands of Latino newcomers It is also the tale of educational leaders evolving understandings of what they needed to do This book tells the particular story of the Georgia Project a partnership initiated between leading citizens a school district and a Mexican university to help Dalton Georgia the Carpet Capital of the World as it suddenly found itself host to the first majority Latino school district in Georgia The book focuses on the evolving understandings of six early leaders of this initiative and their resultant actions It tries to carefully situate these particular actors within the larger swirl of conflicting scripts and public sphere messages regarding who Latino newcomers are what they want and merited and how the community should respond Making a Way Marilyn Robinson,2013-12-24 Making a Way traces the life of Ulysses Byas from childhood through his tenure as the first black superintendent of the Macon County Alabama Schools as told to coauthor Marilyn Robinson This biography relies on extensive interviews that Dr Robinson conducted with Dr Byas as well as an examination of his collection of documents Dr Byas unique experiences and skills informed the strategies he used to attack the fiscal deficit the physical plant deterioration and the educational performance deficiencies he found as superintendent of the Macon County Schools His professional life was dedicated to using creative approaches to addressing problems brought about by segregation and the policies of separate but equal schooling Ultimately Dr Byas faced a dilemma over whether or not to confront Gov George Wallaces political machine and its discriminatory policies governing the licensure of the Alabama Educational Television network Only time would tell whether his testimony would have dire results for him and the school system or whether it could successfully overcome the racist programming endemic in the South In Making a Way Dr Robinson considers the impact of Dr Byass decision as she examines the inspiring story of a courageous and creative leader
