capitalism into each nation In making comparisons between seemingly disparate and distinctive nations and by questioning established canons of comparative inquiry Gran encourages people to recognize the similarities between the West and non West nations

Encounters with Civilizations Gezim Alphon,2017-09-29 Encounters with Civilizations is a broad ranging work uniting sweeping themes such as history culture the media social issues and politics Building around comparative analyses of aspects of Albanian Egyptian British and Indian cultures Alphon addresses the problems people experience in their encounters with civilizations different from their birth cultures The course of history has made the confrontation and comingling of different cultures inevitable It has also engendered ambivalence toward the cultures involved including a desire to emulate the new culture or resentment or conflicting attitudes toward the relative strength or weakness of both birth and new cultures Alphon describes how Egyptian culture and politics have been shaped by foreign domination while retaining ancient customs at the social level In comparison Great Britain has been an imperial power whose cultural preeminence has shaped the images of smaller countries in the eyes of the world Alphon writes of English images of his native Albania and offers a penetrating analysis of Mother Teresa as a Christian missionary in Hindu and Muslim India focusing on her cultural presentation via the media and the cult of celebrity Whether discussing the customs of Egyptian coffee houses or Alexander the Great as a defining figure in Western and Eastern culture Alphon grasps the impact of these cultural encounters He makes us aware that understanding and resolving such differences involves considering ultimate issues of life and death

Black Lambs & Grey Falcons John B. Allcock, Antonia Young, 2000 Revised and Updated with a New Introduction During the 19th century the Balkan countries became the subject of a rather romantic fascination for the public at large This vision of the area has been created in large measure by the writing of women travelers such as those represented in this volume

The achievements of these women are quite remarkable in many cases their travels were adventurous and even dangerous reaching into parts of the countryside which were remote and hardly known to outsiders Not only as travelers but also in the fields of medical and military service scholarship and education journalism and literature did these women contribute in very significant ways to the expansion of women s horizons and to the attempt to gain greater freedom for women in society in general Contents Editorial Introduction Black Lambs and Grey Falcons Outward and Inward Frontiers Two Victorian Ladies and Bosnian Realities 1861 1875 G M MacKenzie and A P Irby Edith Durham Traveller and Publicist Edith Durham as a Collector Emily Balch Balkan Traveller Peace Worker and Nobel Laureate The Work of British Medical Women in Serbia during and after the First World War Captain Flora Sandes A Case Study in the Social Construction of Gender in a Serbian Context Rose Wilder Lane 1886 1968 Rebecca West Gerda and the Sense of Process Margaret Masson Hasluck Louisa Rayner An Englishwoman s Experiences in Wartime Yugoslavia Mercia MacDermott A Woman of the Frontier An Anthropologist in the Village Bucks Brides and Useless Baggage Women s Quest for a Role in their Balkan Travels Constructing the Balkans Women Travellers in the Balkans A Bibliographical Guide John B Allcock is head of the Research Unit in South East European Studies and is based in the Interdisciplinary Human Studies department at the University of Bradford Antonia Young is a member of the Department for Sociology and Anthropology at Colgate University New York

Europe's deposed royal houses examining their political significance and influence on global power dynamics Among the great hidden narratives of twentieth century history are the movements in Europe which between the two world wars aimed to restore the royal and imperial houses forced out of power in 1918 or in Portugal's case eight years earlier These efforts acquired media coverage and often strategic importance far greater than would be now supposed from the cursory often dismissive treatment which they have received from most historians since Campaigns to reinstate such dynasties as the Hohenzollerns the Habsburgs the Wittelsbachs the Braganças and even France's House of Orléans were taken seriously at the highest governmental and journalistic levels in London and Paris not to mention the Holy See Upon the whole phenomenon this book seeks to shed light It discusses both the phenomenon's soft power manifestations the designs of newspaper tycoon Lord Rothermere upon the Hungarian throne for his son for instance and the phenomenon's hard power manifestations among which probably the most dramatic were the successful monarchical campaigns in Albania and Greece With a cast that includes not only the monarchist candidates themselves but Churchill Lloyd George Hitler Mussolini and Franco this is a drama that embraces a continent and forces thorough reappraisals of events which we thought we knew No one can read it without acquiring a firmer grasp of political power's very nature and the sheer narrowness of the gap between victory and defeat     British Books, 1913
